Don't forget the Horse Fair at Commercial Hotel, Holstein, Wednesday, Feb. 25th. All classes of horses purchased. Bring them in.

Mrs Petrie is spending a few days in Hamilton.

The Dr. reports Mr. C. S. Legge slightly improved.

Mr. Grey of Avonlea, Sask, is visiting at Mr W. J. Eccles.

Mr W. J. Eccles has purchased a residence in Mt Forest.

Friends of Mr. Robt. Elder regret that he is not improving in health.

Quite a number harvested their ice last week which was of good quality.

Mrs. Arnill and son Billy have returned after spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr Levine of Durham shipped a large amount of sweet clover from here on Tuesday.

The township fathers met on Monday when the general routine business was followed.

Miss Mather, nurse, left Tuesday a m for Mooretown to nurse Mrs Allingham's sister who is suffering from flu.

Quite a number are drawing logs to Buller and Brebner's mill. Some custom but generally for sale and prices are good.

A pleasant time was spent at the Parsonage on Tuesday evening when a program of music, games and singing was enjoyed.

As expected the concert in the Agricultural Hall on Wednessday, was well attended and the artists as usual gave a good program.

There appears to be a scarcity of houses in the village as there are several anxious to secure houses for the immediate future.

Mrs Bruce writing from Nassau, Bahama Islands, says that it is beautiful warm weather there, sleeping at night with doors open. If we left the doors open here the mosquitos would not come in.

Meetings were held during the past week in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches in the interests of the Forward Movement when considerable amounts were subscribed. This week the canvassers are going over their territory and indications are that we will go over the top.

The death of Mrs. Jane Brown took place at her home in Vancouver, B C, on Dec. 31st, 1919. The deceased was the wife of the late Dr. Brown who practiced medicine in Beechville for many years and predeceased by over 20 years. Mrs Brown was widely known and respected for her kindly disposition and christian character and while she resided in Beachville was an active member of the Baptist church from which place the funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 8th. The services were conducted by Rev. D. Lang and were largely attended. She is survived by one son and one daughter, Dr. Arthur Brown and Miss May Brown of Vancouver, B. C. The pall bearers were M. S. Caulfield, J. S. Nichols, C. Carr, John Hacken. T Taylor and E S. McClelland. The body was laid to rest in Beachville cemetery. Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were John Fairbairn, London: Mr. and Mrs Clipperton St Marys: Mrs Ward and daughter, Woodstock: Mrs W. Elliot, Mrs Bowman and Miss Helen Ingersoll. — Beachville cor., Woodstock Sentinel Review. (Many in Holstein and vicinity will regret Mrs Brown's death, she being well known and respected while residing with her son here.—Ed.)

VARNEY

Mr Geo. M. Leeson M. P. P. is in Toronto this week.

Sorry to report Mrs J W Blyth and daughter Ruby on the sick list but hope to soon hear of their recovery.

Quite a number of neighbors and friends are spending this Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Barber.

Our industrious M. P. P. has engaged the services of Mr John Arnett for the coming summer months. Mr Arnett moves to Varney sometime this week.

Alf. McCabe will be a busy man this year. We hear he has rented a 50 acre farm to grow some "gold dust." With the mail route, auto industry and farming, Alf will be kept busy.

Miss Lilian Keller, we hear has undergone a second operation in Fergus It is hoped she will be in better health soon. Her father, Mr. J. Keller left to be present with her and Mrs Keller.

The young folk in the village have formed a literary society to meet every other Friday night. Their next meeting will be on the 20th when a very interesting debate, 'Resolved that it would be better to marry a prospective young farmer than marry a city man with thousands of dollars" will be reasoned out by a few of our high school students. Come out and hear the young knowledge chasers ridicule the farmer or our city friend as the case may be

Looks as though we may have a thaw with Premier Drury and Attorney Gen. coming as far north as Mt Forest.

ALLAN'S CORNERS

On Sunday last a very interesting service was held in St Paul's church when Mr — Craig, chairman of the Educational Dept., Toronto, addressed the congregation on behalf of the Forward Movement.

Mr. Wm. J. Davis disposed of his farm and all in connection with same to his brother, Mr. David Davis of Glenelg. The above farm was formerly known as the Sharp estate.

Miss Clara Gordon who spent a couple of months vacation among her many friends in this locality has recently returned to her home in St. Mary's.

A meeting of the U. F. O. was held at Varney one evening last week. Among those who joined up were Messrs Alex., Arch and W. J. Allan.

Messrs Jas Lewis and John Brown are busy drawing ice, supplying the Holstein creamery for the coming summer.

North Egremont Presentations

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Chas. Reid last Wednesday evening, to honor them before their removal to the West. To Mr Reid was presented a gold watch and to Mrs Reid a wrist watch the address which accompanied it being read by Mr Wm H Hunter, Mr Jas Lothian presided over a short program two of the numbers being a solo by Miss Bena Bunston and a duett by Misses Blanch Reid and Cora Lawrence. The remainder of the night was pleasantly spent in music and dancing. Mrs. Reid left on Tuesday afternoon for their new home at Webb, Sask, where he will follow in two or three weeks. We regret to lose them from our community.

At the home of Mr and Mrs John Arnett, who has been employed with Wm Lawrence, another gathering was held on Thursday evening, and a presentation was again the chief feature. They were the recipients of a handsome clock as a farewell token of esteem from the neighbors before their removal to Varney, where Mr Arnett is engaged with G. M. Leeson M. P. P. A happy social time was spent, with Mr W. R. Watson, chairman for the evening's entertainment
