The teachers took advantage of Arbor Day by a general clean-up and decorations that will be prominent for some time. Others as well as the children could take lessons from such and do a little work and not only make their own places but the village as well show the results. Let us make the village look its best this season.

Holstein Football Club re-organized for the coming season last Friday night when the following management was elected: President, Bert Gibson: Secy Treas, Bert Eccles: Captain, Clarence Calder; Manager, Robt Sim Practices will be held twice a week, Tuesday and Friday night, in Tyndall's field adjoining the park. Let these clubs organize at once and notify the Holstein Secy, Bert Eccles, so that in a couple of weeks a league schedule can be arranged. It is hoped to have a live league in operation by June 1st, or very shortly after. Apparently the teams are well matched, judging by the close games of last season, and with a trophy in view for the top notchers, some exciting meets will be staged this summer if the league is successfully pushed through.

Miss Hilda Whyte visited with her cousins, the Misses Bunston over the week end.

Mr. Edgar Renwick has returned home from Dental College and has taken a position in Taylor's store for the summer.

Mr John McMurdo who carries on an extensive business as general agent in addition to his blacksmithing establishment, has recently sold two handsome rubber tired buggies of the Conboy manufacture to Messrs Campbell Watson and Harold Atchison. The latter is engaged for the summer at Mr Wm Philp's.

Mr Victor Adams lost a valuable horse last week we are informed.

Mr. Edgar Renwick is home on a visit to his parents from Toronto, where he has been attending Dental College.

Mr John Snell again acceptably occupied the pulpit at Amos Church, Dromore, in the absence of the minister who is supplying elsewhere.

Mr Robert Renwick gave a fine talk to the Christian Endeavor at Amos Church last night on the perfect harmony of the Bible, the 44 writers clearly showing the influence of Divine inspiration. These various books of the Bible, divided as they are, show Preparation, Manifestation, Propagation, Explanation and Consummation, the last not yet completed. He also spoke of the eight Covenants God made with man. A most interesting and profitable address.

In this world of turmoil we hear of trouble over South over sweet clover; everything or everybody is not "in clover" it seems.

Mother's Day was fittingly observed at Amos church on Sunday last. Appropriate music was given by the choir who sang "Just a vision of mother and of Home Sweet Home," incorporating some of that fine old melody in its composition which affected many in the congregation. A beautiful boquet of roses graced the table, the handsome gift of Miss Nellie Atchison of Toronto, at one time a valued and much appreciated member of the choir, who expressed them for the occasion. Many warm thanks Nellie, may your shadow never grow less. The choir were each decked out in a sprig of white hyancinth, the gift of our worthy and qualified organist, Miss Agnes Renwick. Thanks here too. At the Ebenezer also Miss Beryl Rennie sang as a solo "Tell mother I'll be there," the choir joining in the chorus.

Many are already through seeding.

Mr and Mrs Peter Reid and daughter Maggie moved to Durham last week.

Mr and Mrs. Thos. Stansby have purchased a buggy in which they intend going to Holstein church.

The motor truck of the new Durham Creamery made its initial round on Saturday last and was meeting with good success. The rattle of the empty cans, a quarter mile away, over the too many jolts on the road, reminded a local humorist of the 12 h of July.

Mr. Wm. H Hunter is personally shipping his cattle to Toronto this week, a fine period.

The walls, beautifully adorned with becoming paper reflected credit on those who did the work. The graceful display of flowers which graced the pulpit and windows was very observant. The morning service was taken by Rev. Cole and in the evening Rev Wren of Mt Forest spoke forcibly to a large audience. Special music by the choir was rendered at both services.

On Monday evening an entertainment was held and the chair ably filled by Rev Cole. Cornet and vocal solos by Mr E Leeson was a special feature. The Cole family showed their ability as entertainers when Miss Marie recited and Mr. and Mrs Cole a duett.
