On Tuesday afternoon of last week the residents of S. S. No 9, Bentinck, met at the school to bid farewell to their teacher, Miss Mabel Dowling and to present her with five pieces of ivory as a means of expressing their appreciation of her services during the past two years.

When all had assembled there was a short program of songs and recitations given by the children of the school. Then an address was read by Miss Alma Subject and the presentation made by Mr Richard Bailey. After the presentation Miss Dowling made a suitable reply, expressing her appreciation and thanks for their kindness. She told how she enjoyed the two years spent with them and of the many evidences of friendship and kindness she had experienced while in their society and that of the children.

Following is the address ;

Dear Miss Dowling.—

We Crawford pupils and friends have met here this afternoon in a social way to say good bye to you. You have been our teacher for the last two years and have worked hard for the school and we appreciate your efforts and they have not been in vain. Your task was not always easy but often hard and difficult at times.

We know you will have many pleasant recollections of Crawford and we are glad of that as you have been a good teacher and a true friend. As a token of our esteem and good will we ask you to accept these gifts as a remembrance of Crawford school.

June 29, 1920

An enjoyable picnic of the Crawford Presbyterian Sunday school was held on July 5th on the beautiful lawn of D. J McDonald. The event was especially for the children of the Sunday School, and they enjoyed it to the full extent. The afternoon was spent in swinging, playing games, base ball and racing for which prizes were given for the latter.

A sumptuous supper was partaken of by all after which snaps were taken. Last but not least enjoyed by the children were the auto rides given them by Messrs A. McDougall, Wm Cook, D. H McDonald and D J McDenald All went home with the kindliest feeling toward Mr. and Mrs McDonald for their kind hospitality.

Messrs D J McDonald, Wm Henderson, and Geo Hastie attended the Orangemen's service in Durham last Sunday evening.
