BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CENTRE

Workforce, Innovation & Entrepreneurship: Strategic partnerships that support business

Halton Region helps youth develop their entrepreneurial skills with two programs delivered in partnership with the Ministry of Small Business and Entrepreneurship. Summer Company provides financial awards, training and mentoring to help students ages 15 to 29 start their own businesses. The Halton Region RBC Business Plan Competition lets secondary school students showcase their entrepreneurial talents and written business skills.

Congratulations to the following entrepreneurial students who successfully applied for the 2007 Summer Company program, and have started their own summer businesses. Contact us if you would like to hire one of these enterprising students!

- Bill MacDonald, Augusta Masters Lawn Service, Oakville
- Fred Malinski, Lively Lawn, Oakville
- Dan Mandic, Up 'N' Running Pool Service, Oakville
- Adam Willhoeft, Blast IT Clean Power Washing, Oakville
- Mike Zhang, Lawn Sharks, Burlington

Congratulations to the following students, teachers and schools on their awards from the 2007 Halton Region RBC Business Plan Competition:

- 1st place: "The Par Pal" by Amanda Secor from Abbey Park High School, Oakville, submitted by teacher Ms. Krista LoCicero
- 2nd place: "Canine Kingdom Dog Kennel" by Miriam Dall from Nelson High School, Burlington, submitted by teacher Mr. Kyle Pope
- 3rd place: "Supreme Painting Service" by Maris Chutumstid and Paul Lee from Abbey Park High School, Oakville, submitted by teacher Ms. Krista LoCicero
- 4th place: "Hall Importing & Distributing Ltd." by Jack Hall from Abbey Park High School, Oakville, submitted by teacher Ms. Krista LoCicero
- 5th place: "Burns Lacrosse" by David Burns from St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Secondary School, Oakville, submitted by teacher Ms. Suzanne Rolland

Need help but don't know who to call? Just dial 211.

Halton Region is committed to creating safe and healthy communities where people have access to the services they need. There are many community, health and social services available but sorting out which one to call can be difficult. Thanks to a new service launched by Halton Region, residents can now simply dial 211 to be connected with the best available resources in the community. Whether you're a senior looking for a flu shot, a recent immigrant seeking language training, or parents looking for child care, dialing 211 is an easy way to find the information you need. 211 service is free, confidential, and multilingual, and it can also be accessed on line at www.211halton.ca.

McIsaac marvelous in ring

Seventeen-year-old Cameron McIsaac of Acton had a glove signed by former world middleweight champion Marvelous Marvin Hagler at the 13th-annual Ringside for Youth charity boxing event in Ottawa earlier this month. McIsaac went on to score a unanimous 3-0 decision in a much-anticipated rematch against hometown favourite Henry Lopez of the Beaver Boxing Club, his second victory over his Ottawa rival in just over a month after winning at Orangeville's Bigtime Boxing Club on May 5. McIsaac's next fight could come July 22 in Brampton against a touring team from Scotland while his sister Heather is slated to box on the undercard of a pro-am event in Hamilton this September.
