In keeping with the growth of its business and following upon the establishment of new district executive offices at Halifax Toronto, Regina and Calgary, the Bank of Montreal has just made a number of new executive appointments. Before the war Major Norsworthy was in the service of the Bank of Montreal, St. John's, Nfld. and London, England, and as Manager of the branch of the Bank in Mexico City. On rejoining the Bank of Montreal he was, for a time Inspector of the Foreign Department. He is a native of Ingersoll, Ont.

ORCHARD

We are having fine spring weather the last 2 weeks if it only lasts. The sap ought to run these days with bright warm sun and frosty nights. However it would be just as well not to prepare for spring too soon as we haven't had our equinoctial gales yet.

We had a very good attendance at our meeting last Wednesday night Mr West delivered a very touching address on Amos which everyone listened to with enthusiasm. He was afraid of wearying us listning to his lengthy disourse, but we weren't thinking of that side of it when the address was so interesting. Mr West intends coming back again next Wednesday evening March 22. He has promised us something extra for that night, so let us make it a red letter night as regards attendance.

All are sick folks are better again which we are glad to report. It would have been hard for a sick person not to get better during these lovely days we have been having.

NORTH EGREMONT

It was with sincere sympathy the people of this part of the country learned of the death of Mr Geo Swanston, sympathy for his wife and three little girls and also his mother who was thus called upon to mourn the death of a second son within four months. Deceased had attended his brother's funeral at Sperling, Man., and had not felt well ever since coming home. He was a successful and prosperous farmer, progressive in the matter of farming and posessing advanced tools and implements for the purpose. At one time he occupied a seat in the Council.

Many were the wreaths and sprays of flowers bestowed chief among which were by brothers and sisters, Gilbert McEachern, A. P. Bateman, Mr. and Mrs R. J. Arnill, 'Fred and Elizabeth' from Brandon and many others whose names we were unable to secure. The body though kept from Thursday to Tuesday showed the successful art of the embalmer, notwithstanding the long time: McMillan of Holstein was undertaker. The pall bearers were Messrs Alex and Neil Calder, Chas. and Roy McGillivray, Jno. Leith and Robt Kinnell.

The Ladies' Institute of Dromore and surrounding country held a successful At-Home on Friday evening last at Russell Hall. The program began with a selection from the Hooper family orchestra, Jas., Davie and Mrs Wells on violins and auto harp, and contributed at intervals to the pleasure of the audience. A greeting song was given by some 8 members of the Institute. A debate, "Resolved that country life affords more opportunities for the developement of the mind than does the city," was held, Messrs Walter Hastie and Alex Drimmie were for the affirmative and Rev. W. J. Burnett and Dr Sneath for the negative. The judges' decision was in favor of the negative, though our own verdict, formed by giving various values to the points given, unbiased, brought out the affirmative 64 to 57. Twelve minutes were given to each contestant, the leader, Mr Hastie, having 4 minutes in which to reply.

The play put on by 'Ma' Sweet and her seven 'cultivated' daughters was a very laughable and successful farce. The first and eldest, Arminta Ann (Bena Bunston) was the prima donna who sang like a "martingale"; Betsy Belinda (Mrs R. Taylor) a delicate woman lecturer who faints away at the finish while the others apply smelling salts and "camfire" to their own noses and hands and a drink of water by all, restores her to her normal self without it. Caroline Cordelia, authoress, (Eva Renton) who recites her latest effort and Dorothy Delilah (Nellie Bunston) 'musician-er,' 'twins the both are twins' who could not be told apart were it not for their hair and their faces. The latter who secured her education at the Boston 'observatory' gave a selection on the organ while 'Ma' Sweet who was acting in the capacity of announcer, fell asleep and woke up with a start. Elizabeth Eliza (Bessie Drimmie,) dramatic 'recitationist' and Frances Fedora (Florence Renwick) composer of poetry and disappointed in love, recited a heartfelt selection which made all the other sisters cry.

Gloriana Gadabout (Gladys Ecclee) the youngest, recited one verse 'Mary had a little lamb' after considerable prompting by Ma Sweet (Miss Agnes Renwick) a lone 'wideler' who acts as chairman and directs the show. The play was well done by everyone, the round, the triple recitations and the 'lad from Kalimazoo' evoked much laughter and merriment. Ma Sweet is certainly a born actor and came in for a great deal of praise.

The wand drill including military movements, was also a success by the same eight, with Miss Viola Henry added, taking the place of Miss A Renwick who presided at the organ.

An enjoyable dance was held at the close. Proceeds $27.00 odd.

Mrs John McKenzie is visiting her daughter. Mrs Robt. Gregor, Mt Forest, for a few days, before leaving for Toronto, where she will visit friends.

The Dromore branch of Women's Institutes will have a demonstration from the Department to give lessons in 'Domestic Science' for ten days, beginning March 20th. at 2 p. m. All ladies are invited to join the class and Miss Edith Hopkins will be the teacher.

SOUTH BEND

Mr Robert Scarlett along with his mother and sister, moved back to the home farm the first of the month. The Coburn family who lived there the last five years, went to the Brown farm north of Holstein. They were fine neighbors and will be missed around here.

Mr Fred Holliday, who has been visiting his mother and other friends here this winter, returned to his home at Herschel, Sask. last week.

Mr and Mrs John Conway Arthur visited the latters father, Mr Alex Rawn over Sunday.

Mr Eric Sharp attended the box social at the toll gate school last Friday evening and assisted with the program.

The social evening at Letter Breen church last Thursday was well attended and a good time spent. Among other things on the program was a spelling match in which the ladies won.

A few have tapped and are busy making maple syrup. This industry is growing less every year.

We believe we are going to have the telephone on this concession at last. The poles are all laid out but it may take some time yet before they are set up and everything in talking order, but we hope some time this summer.

The roads are in a bad condition yet, but if the fine weather continues they will soon dry up Spring is at hand.
