Mrs G. Collinson, Ceylon, Laid to Rest Sunday

The funeral of the late Mrs Gibson Collinson of Ceylon, whose sudden death in Owen Sound on New Years' day, caused wide regret, took place from her late home at Ceylon to Flesherton cemetery Sunday afternoon in the blinding snow storm, which prevented many attending, who otherwise would have been there. The remains were laid beside those of her late husband who died 5 years ago.

Service was held at the house conducted by Rev. S. W. Vose, who gave an appropriate and impressive discourse and by request sang very effectively "Beautiful Angels," a favorite of deceased. Mrs Collinson, who was a member of the Anglican church was loved and very highly esteemed in her community. The large number of beautiful floral tributes from her family and friends near and far which covered and surrounded the casket, were silent tributes of the sorrow felt at her departure. The sons and daughters surviving are: Frank of Ceylon: Jas. G. of Dundas: and Drs T. W., J. R., and A. B. Collinson of Montana and Nebraska: Mrs A. B. Balfour, St. Catharines: Miss Jean Collinson at home: Mrs F. D. Cairns, Ceylon: Miss Sybil Collinson, Regina. All but one son, Dr J. D., were home for th efuneral. Other relatives present were: Thos. ## Matron Tenders Her Thanks

The Managing Board and Matron of Durham Red Cross Hospital desire to extend thanks to the following who were recent donators to the Hospital:

Mr Wm Philp, in appreciation for the care given his daughter during her illness, contributed $25 to be spent for the nurses' comfort.

Methodist Missionary Society, Holstein, two quilts.

Mrs H. Morlock remembered the nurses again this year by donating a Christmas cake.

Dr. D. B. Jamieson, a year's subscription to "Good Housekeeping."

Mr. J. A. Graham, a year's subscription to the "Family Herald and Weekly Star."

Mr Irwin, three copies of the Chronicle since opening of Hospital.

Mr. Ramage, two subscriptions of the Review.

Last but not least the dining room suite as well as the rug, was donated by the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church.

We have been so well remembered at Christmas and New Year's by the good people in and around town that we may well be pardoned if we should accidentally happen to omit the names of some who so kindly remembered the Hospital at this festive season.

We were remembered by many of those who had been patients here and in so many thoughtful ways that while we do not mention each personally, yet we heartily thank them all for these kindly remembrances.

But in this regard we cannot forbear mentioning that the Red Cross Society which never ceases its work in behalf of the Hospital, presented us with a prime Christmas turkey and to each nurse gave a useful Hypodermic set and to myself, a handsome French ivory set.

For the nurses' rest room Dr D. B. Jamieson donated a beautiful congoleum rug and a Library table while Mrs Dr. Jamieson added to her many gifts by giving an electric plate for use in the Hospital.

Mrs Robt. MacFarlane has kindly offered to present the Hospital with a subscription to any magazine chosen by the staff.

MISS C. FETTIS, Matron
