Don't forget Holstein Fall Fair on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept 23 and 24th, the best ever. Please have your entries in early to Mr Neil Calder to save confusion the day of the Fair. Experts from the Wellington Produce of Harriston will give a free demonstration of killing and plucking fowl. A good concert will be given the night of the last day of the fair. Reserved seats at the Telephone Office.

The School Fair which was postponed will be now held Saturday, the 20th September.

Mr Thos. McMillan had his foot badly bruised left Saturday forenoon by a railroad tie. Thos. is still limping but expects to go to work again soon.

Mrs Gordon Legge of Kitchener, spent a day with Mrs E. Thorne recently.

The Ladies' Bowling Club was formed last Saturday when the following officers were elected : President, Miss Davidson : Vice Pres., Mrs Irvin : Sec'y Treas., Miss Floyd. A very cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the village and community to join the Club.

The Community Circle met in the basement of the Presbyterian church. The scripture reading was taken by Miss Margaret Arnill, after which Rev. Mr West gave a posting address on the coming Plebiscite. We were sorry owing to counter attractions a small attendance was on hand as the address was interesting and instructive. Mr West has kindly promised to give his address at a future date when a large attendance is hoped for.

Dromore Dramatic Club's presentation of "Deacon Dubbs" was given in the Hall Friday last before a fair-sized crowd. The play was a grand success, the parts being well sustained by the actors. The Hooper orchestra treated the crowd to some lively music before the play and between the acts.

Mr and Mrs Ibbott of Arthur, accompanied by Mrs Petrie, motored to Thorndale the first of the week to spend a few days with Mr and Mrs W. A. Reid.

Mr Chas. Kilner of Fergus, spent a few days recently with his daughter, Mrs R. Irvin.

Mr L. Fothergal of Little Current, Manitoulin Id., was the guest of Clarence Fenton over the week end.

Mr Jno. Sandord, Windsor, Miss Mary and Mr Jas McCaw of Arthur, spent a few days at the home of Mr and Mrs Fred McCaw.

Geo. Rice after spending a month with friends here, left for his home near Lumsden, Sask., Friday last.

Two rinks of Holstein Bowlers went to Harriston Tuesday evening and won the round by 2 points. The ladies team from here were to have played but some irregularity prevented it.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs W. B. Rife of Thursday afternoon of last week. One feature of the meeting was the judging of boquets of cut flowers. Prizes were awarded to 1st, Miss D. Thorne : 2nd, Ella Ellis. There was a very large attendance, over 40 being present.

The young people of the Presbyterian church presented Rev Mr Scott with an auto rug and driving gauntlets on Friday evening of last week. Mr Scott on Sunday morning thanked the young people for their kind remembrance. Mr Scott leaves this week for his new charge at Pelham. Rev. Mr Burnett of Dromore, who has been appointed Moderator will preach the pulpit vacant on Sunday next.

The address to Mr Scott follows :

Dear Mr. Scott :—

On hearing that you had accepted a call to another charge, we felt that we could not allow you to leave without in some way showing our appreciation of your work among us.

We remember that you were the originator of our Flower and Social Committee and have been its greatest support ever since. Many of the congregation have been made happy by a boquet and those of the committee actively engaged gladdened by their appreciation.

We have always felt your kindly interest and shall miss you greatly but through your past help, we may be able tocarry on the work begun by you.

We ask you to accept this gift as a kind remembrance from the Young People of Holstein Pres. Chruch. We pray God's richest blessing on you and your work in your new field and hope that your memories of the Y. P. S. may be pleasant ones.

Signed on behalf of Y. P. S.

Mr Stewart has been busy training his pupils for the school fair in Holstein to-day. We hope No. 4 will be successful as last year or even better.

Harvest around the Bend is over and a lot of thrashing done. The yield of grain is good, also the quality.

BLYTH'S CORNERS

The McLuhan Bros., well drillers, of Mt. Forest, started on Thursday to drill a well for the Halliday Bros. of the 'Corners.'

Inspector Wright paid a visit to our school last week.

Miss Merle Bauer leaves this week to attend Durham High School. Having to undergo an operation for appendicitis, she was deprived of being able to write at the June exams, consequently Merle thought it meant another year at the public school. But the Inspector decided differently. We wish her great success.

Mr Bert Watson left Saturday last on a motor trip to Detroit, via London, where he intended to take in the Show there for a day or so. His daughter, Miss Margaret, who has been visiting in Detroit for the past couple of weeks, will return with him.

We had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Dr. McCrae of Mt. Forest Presbyterian church on Sunday evening last and it sure was a most eloquent and uplifting sermon. The Rev. gentleman took his text as he admitted it himself to be, one of the most unlikely chapters in the whole Bible, 1st Chron. 12th Chap., 21st verse, declaring his belief that every chapter in the whole Bible had a direct message for us. The lesson in this chapter was David's valiant helpers. Although the lawful king, through the determined and persistent attempt of Saul to usurp the throne, David was constantly in danger. In every day life there is great force for evil in the land to usurp the throne from the King of Kings. Where are the willing helpers ? Are they fitted and valiant helpers as were those who came to King David's aid.

For their act of loyalty the names of those valiant men have been recorded all through the ages. But how much greater to be valiant helpers for the King of Kings in combating the great forces of evil and have our names recorded in the Lamb's Book of Life. This is only a very meagre attempt to convey a few practical lessons from as able and inspiring a sermon as we ever had the pleasure of listening to.

Since the Ferguson Gov't has decided to put the country to the expense of half a million dollars to relieve the liquor men of the restrictions of the O. T. A. if possible, we are big enough to commend the government for the fair ballot they intend to submit. With the two questions only there can be no juggling or even confusion on the part of the voter and should produce a definite conclusion as to what the people of the Province want to do with the liquor question. The ballot to be submitted is all that could be desired in our humble opinion. Thanks 'Fergie', 'tis a pleasant surprise.

The regular monthly meeting of the U. F. O. and U. F. W. O. will be held at the home of Mr Jas. McCaul Marshall on Friday evening of this week, Sept. 19th. Miss MacPhail is expected to be present.

DROMORE

The deepest sympathy is felt for Mr and Mrs Robt. Keith, at the loss of their little boy at the age of 15 months and one week on Friday last, after an illness of nearly two month's duration. This feeling was evidenced by the large number who attended the funeral Saturday and the wealth of flowers bestowed, which were carried by five young lads : Harold Eccles, Russel Taylor, Alex. Taylor, Bobbie Renwick and Lorne McMurdo. Undertaker C. McMillan was in charge and Rev Mr Burnett spoke feelingly and comforting words to the bereaved ones. The flower donors were: Father, mother and Howard : Mrs Wilson and Cora : Mr and Mrs Alfred Sharp : Mr and Mrs S. Chapman : Dr and Mrs Ellis, Holstein : Annie Keith, Toronto : Harold Eccles : Mr and Mrs Harvey Groat and Lyla : Taylor boys : Nellie Bunston : Mr and Mrs Robt Renwick and Agnes : Mr and Mrs Elliot : Mr and Mrs Will Glass, Durham : Misses Lizzie Kinnee and Mary Brown : Mr and Mrs Geo Yirrs : Mr and Mrs Ben Sharp : Mr and Mrs Will Clark : Mrs Thos. Ellis : Mr and Mrs Thos. Brown : Mrs A. Meyer and Mrs P. Hopkins : Mrs J. D. Drimmie : Mr and Mrs J. G. Smith and boys.

Miss Mildred Scott after a stay of two weeks at home returned to the city on Saturday.

Inspector Wright visited our school on Friday last and found teacher and school satisfactory, the "heating" being now ranked as first class.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr and Mrs Robert Keith desire to express their sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown them, during the recent illness and death of their little son Freddie.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Keith
