An Explanation.

We have received for publication a newspaper account of a service held at Hillsburg and addressed by Rev. H. R. Horne of Toronto. The clipping presents the usual arguments against union, which have been disputed. As the issue has been settled by vote in every Presbyterian congregation in this locality, (and we have already refused union articles for that reason,) it would be unwise to again open the controversy.

As was seen by the columns of the Review last week, the home of Mr. and Mrs Malcolm McLean was bereaved last week by the death of their six year old son Kenneth, who passed away in the Red Cross Hospital, Durham, following an operation for appendicitis. The funeral held on Friday from the home of Mr Donald McLean to McNeil's cemetery, was a very large one. Rev Mr Sutherland conducted the services at house and grave. The pall bearers were six boy cousins, Innis McLean, Neil McLean, Donnie McLean, Alroy McLean, Donald Reiley and Wilbert Burnett. A beautiful wreath was presented by the teachers and pupils of the school here as a loving tribute to a little favorite. The sympathy of the community go out to the sorrowing parents. Mrs McLean, the mother, was very low at the time of the funeral, but is now, we are pleased to report making progress toward recovery from pneumonia. We sincerely trust along with her many friends that she will soon be restored to health.

Mrs Gus Ibbitson, Mr Jack McLean and Mrs K. Marshall of Toronto, came up for the McLean funeral.

Mrs Wright and daughter, Mrs. Kerr, of Collingwood, and Mrs Marshall, Toronto visited Miss Sarah McLean over the week end.

Mrs Geo. Koreitz and two children of Chicago, are visiting Mrs K's mother, Mrs Saulter, at present.

Mr and Mrs C. E. Jones, Toronto, and Miss Bessie Jones, Waterdown, spent the week end with friends in the village, calling on their many friends.

Mr Jack McTaggart, Toronto, was a holiday visitor at his home here.

Mrs McPhail of Russeldale, with her daughter Kate and friend, Mr. Geo. Harper, visited for a few days with her cousin, Mrs Saulter.

Mrs K. McDonald has returned home from New York where she spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs W. Parslow.

Mrs D. G. McLean, visited last week with her cousin, Mrs N. Holliday, near Mt. Forest.

Miss Ethel Watson, Toronto, spent the week end at her home here.

Misses Sadie and Mary McKinnon, Toronto, were holiday visitors with their parents, Mr and Mrs F. McKinnon.

Messrs Leroy McDonald and Murray Watson attended the Epworth League banquet at O. Sound Monday.

Miss Louise Watson, Beeton H. S., was home for the day.

Mrs (Rev.) Curran, Miss Edith and Master George, visited friends at O. Sound last week.

Messrs Colin H. McLean and Jack Ferguson, visited friends in Toronto over the week end.

Mr Matthew Conkey is spending a few days with his mother and brother here.

Mr and Mrs Alex McEachern, Toronto, visited his parents here Sunday

Miss Esther McInnis, Toronto, was home for the holiday.

Miss Isla McCannel, Proton, visited her sister, Mrs A. Hincks.

Mr Frank Williamson is home from Toronto University. Frank has just completed his last year in medicine. We wish you success in your exams. Frank.

The play "Civil Service" put on by the young people of "Onward" Club, O.D.R., in Watson's Hall Friday evening last, was well attended and those who attended were not disappointed for the play was splendidly put on and each member of the cast did credit to himself or herself. The proceeds amounted to nearly $45.

Messrs J. M. McGillivray and F. McKinnon, motored the first of the week to Gravehurst, to visit with the former's daughter there.

PRICEVILLE & GLENELG

'Twas a cold 24th of May and the stoves were kept agoing and all the winter clothes worn by travellers. However we look for warm weather soon. The orchards are all out in blossom but cannot tell yet the result of the frosty nights. Early sown grain is quite green looking but the meadows are at a standstill.

Heavy thunder on Friday night, the 22nd inst, but very little rain. Seeding is finished but some corn and buckwheat and potatoes to get in yet.

Good churchmen went to the various churches to worship on the 24th of May. Some took advantage of the holiday visiting friends for a day or two, and some longer.

Those appointed to prepare the history of Glenelg met at the Hall one afternoon lately. The chairman, ordered all to give their report to Miss Elizabeth Scott as she will prepare it all to send to headquarters. Miss Scott is a good historian herself as was seen of her history of S. S. No. 9 some time ago. Her father and the writer were born on each side of the 7th con. of the Township of Vaughan, Co. York, and both families moved to the Tp. of Glenelg. Miss Scott's father's family came about the year 1848 and the writer's father and family in the year 1851. So there is a kind of family bond existing between the two families, although one from the descendants of Ireland and the other from the highlands of Scotland and casting their lot in the newly settled Tp. of Glenelg, when almost a forest.

Mrs McPherson of Toronto, is visiting at her sister's, Mrs McCannel and Miss McLean on Lambton St. and intends staying a couple of weeks.

Fred Staples took a run to Markdale to see his mother who is not feeling very well.

Quite a large number attended the funeral of Mrs McGowan last Friday. Mrs McGowan saw the once forest blossom as the rose and during her long journey many changes have taken place and could the history of 92 years be recalled, it would make quite a volume.

The same day the death of the 7-year old son of Mr and Mrs Malcolm McLean of near Priceville, took place. What a contrast The dear young boy who a couple of weeks ago was merrily playing while returning from school and every prospect of living to a good age, was suddenly cut down, as one of the many frosts cut down the tender plants. The aged lady fought a good fight and finished her course but the young boy who naturally looked forward to many years in the future, was nipped in his innocency. To the bereaved family their many friends extend condolence. According to the natural course of life the aged must die while the youth may. Mrs McLean who mourns the death of her dear boy, is quite ill, but we hope by this time she is better. The death of her boy would be a severe shock to her while suffering in bed.

Glenelg has lost another of its business men in the person of Mr Ross of Traverston who was taken away suddenly in the prime of life. We hear Mr Ross' remains were taken down to Dundas for burial. The community sends condolence to Mrs Ross in her sad bereavement.)

The funeral of the late Mr McGrath passed our residence Monday of last week to St. John's cemetery, Glenelg and was largely attended. Mr McGrath was a resident of Glenelg for many years and was always an obliging neighbor while on the farm and in his business in town. Rev. Father Goey conducted the funeral obsequies at the church and graveyard. Another old resident of Flesherton who passed away, was Mr Jos. Blackburn, who was a faithful correspondent to many local papers in the community.

Road Conference Called.

Entire System to be Changed—Minister of Highways to Meet with Rural Representatives

Commencing Tuesday, Hon. Geo. S. Henry, Minister of Highways, will commence five days of conferences between departmental officials and county representatives from all over older Ontario, at which preliminaries will be mapped out for a realignment of the roads system of Ontario. The meetings, which will be private will be attended by Road Superintendents of the various Counties, Wardens and county engineers.

Deputy Minister of Highways S. L. Squire explained that the first hearing Tuesday would be that of six western counties, following which half a dozen counties will be dealt with daily until the completion of the conferences on Friday.

In the view of the department, the county systems have been built up in an irregular, spasmodic manner, and since the Government is giving 20 per cent to township roads, the belief is that it is time for a new alignment of the entire system of the counties. The bill passed last session only allows for one classification of county roads, and it is expected that some roads which are county roads will be changed back to township roads, while some township roads may be added to the counties. In addition, it is expected that some of the more important roads may be advanced to the status of Provincial Highways.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Lachlan McTaggart, who died May 28th, 1922.
In our heart your memory lingers,
As it draws another year,
In the lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are always near.
—Brothers and Sisters

Hanover's tax rate for 1925 is an even 50 mills on the dollar, two mills less than last year. Hanover recently issued $22,700 of bonds for extension of waterworks and sold them to a Toronto firm at $104.52, which means Hanover will get $1021 above par value, showing her credit to be good.

On the 1st of May, 4,182 mothers in Ontario received their monthly cheque from the Mothers' Allowance Commission. The aggregate amount thus distributed was $150,082. A very worthy recognition of the value of dependent mothers to our country. —Acton Free Press.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS WON FROM FLESHERTON

Flesherton High School boys and girls ball teams came over last Thursday afternoon for friendly games, both of which were won by Durham students, the boys 2—0 and girls 17—14.

In the boys' game Campbell McLean pitched air-tight ball for Durham and he had to, for Flesherton had a snappy team to back up their pitcher and held it close. Six innings were played, and McLean had 12 strike-outs to his credit.

Durham boys: C. McLean, p.; Clar. Noble, c.; W. Wilson, 1st; M. Lauder 2nd; N. Ritchie, s.s.; W. Vollett, 3rd; O. Moon, W.Dunbar, A. Snell, outfield.

Flesherton boys: Buchanan, p.; Aikens, c.; Boyd, 1st; McDonald, 2nd; McLeod, 3rd; —, s.s.; Watson, McDonald, —, outfield.

The girls played the full nine innings softball, and if scarcely as scientific, was more exciting, for hits, runs and errors were more frequent.

Durham Girls: Florence Kress, p.; Mary Beaton, c.: Ina Burnett, 1st; Lizzie Fairnie, 2nd: Hazel Beaton, s. s.: Jean Ledingham, 3rd: Marjorie Ritchie, Grace Baird, Lizzie Hind, outfield.

Flesherton Girls: H. Gibson, p.; L. Lever, c.; M. Parslow, 1st: E. Acheson, 2nd: M. Patton, s.s.; L. McDonald, 3rd; L. Boyd, I. Brown, M. Stinson, outfield.

IN DAYS OF YORE

25 YEARS AGO

From Review fyle of May 24, 1900

Married on 16th May, 1900, by the Rev. Wm. Farquharson, John McGillvray to Grace McNab, both of Glenelg.

Married at the Dunham House, St Ignace, Mich., on 24th April, Dan McLean, son of Neil McLean of Mull Corners, Bentinck, to Christina McEachern, both of Gould City, Mich.

Died at Priceville, 17th May, Flora McKinnon, wife of Allan McLean, after a lingering illness, at the age of 65 years.

A happy event took place at the residence of Hugh McInnes, Calgary, when his sister Maggie was united in matrimony to Joseph Shannon.

Mr Geo. C. Watson, formerly of N. Egremont leaves for Temiskaming where his brother Adam is. Mr and Mrs Matt. Hooper and family are also going and intend to make their home there, while Mr Jas. Hooper is also in the party.

Durham's busy corner is now pretty well crushed up and will be for the summer with the 3 frame buildings on the streets. It is passable and pardonable however for the sake of the grand new block now being excavated for.

Rev. Mr Stewart has been occupying the Baptist field at Orchardville for three or four weeks past, to the satisfaction of the congregation in that place and will continue to do so for a few weeks longer. What an example of vigor! This young man of nearly 90, who still presents the gospel story vigorously, will be relieved or reinforced by his grandson from Rochester in a few weeks. He is a young man studying for the ministry and a son of Dr Joseph Stewart who was born and brought up in Durham.

The relief of Mafeking last week after a 216 day siege makes Baden Powell famous and British pluck recognized the world over.

THREE YOUNG WOMEN BREAK JAIL

A shocking tragedy occurred at the Girls' Jail Farm, on Monday last. Three girl inmates, aged 21, 16 and 16 conspired to escape. One of them squeezed through the transom at night, managed to pick the lock of one of her mates in crime, and summoned the matron, telling a story of leaking pipes in the other confederate's cell. Unsuspecting the door was opened and the three young furies set upon the matron, choked her into insensibility, tied her arms to pipes in the corridor, stole her keys, and let themselves out to freedom. They did not likely intend murder, but murder it was, for the body of the matron was found in the morning, dead for hours. One of the trio has been caught and the others are being strenuously sought for, and discovery that they had male confederates outside. The incident seems to point to something loose in jail management or a slacking up of the vigilance that should ever be maintained. Later—All three are now behind bars.

What Our 6% Rate Can Do!

GREAT-WEST LIFE POLICY-HOLDERS have the option of leaving profits and policy proceeds with the Company to accumulate.

On all such funds the company has never paid less than 6%.

The effect of this High-Rate may be seen in every Great-West Policy.

For Example: Policy No. 23219, Issued 1905

PLAN—
Ordinary Life
Amount $2000.00
Age 30
Premium $47.40

Dividends Paid in Cash to Assured

1910	$ 48.00
1915	84.10
1920	89.70
1925	126.30
TOTAL	$348.10

Had these dividends been left with the Company to accumulate at 6% interest they would have amounted to $512.00—more than sufficient to prepay all future premiums.

And the policyholder would receive
(1) The Surplus in Cash. (2) A Fully Paid-up Policy.
(3) A Dividend Every Five Years Thereafter.

Let no one persuade you to forfeit your equity in such a policy
