MCDONALD, Gladys (nee Tetley)

It is with heavy hearts that we, her family, announce the passing our beloved Mum, Grandma and Great-Grandma. She succumbed to a lengthy illness at her home, surrounded by, and held in the arms of her family, on Thursday, July 5th, 2007, in her 84th year, exactly twenty years to the day that she lost her beloved husband, of 43 years, Douglas McDonald (July 5th, 1987). Born in Bradford, England, Gladys was the last surviving member of her immediate family, and had the distinction of being one of ninety-nine War Brides who travelled to Canada aboard the Louis Pasteur, docking in Halifax in March of 1945.

She will live on in the lives of her daughters Margaret White (late Joseph), Ann Campagnio (Tom), and Colleen Ntarelli, and also, her former son-in-law, Rick Finoro. Left to mourn her loss are her grandchildren, Kim McDonald (Jamie), Brian White (Anna), Nadine Campagnio, Heidi Lindsay (Judson), Katrina Whitfield (Bill), and Tasha Johnston (Rob). Gladys adored her great-grandchildren, Shelby McDonald, Brittany Lindsay, Madison Farrell, and Aislyn White, and was thrilled with the arrival of her first great-great-grandson Dominic Johnston, just three months ago. At this time, we would like to extend to Anne Marie our most heartfelt appreciation for her compassion, love, understanding, and humour during these last few years.

There is a sacredness in tears. They are not the mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are messengers of overwhelming grief... and unspeakable love."

IN MEMORIAM

McCRACKEN, Joe - In loving memory February 28th, 1970 - July 15th, 2003

The blow was great, the shock severe, We never thought the end was near, And only those who have lost can tell, The pain of parting without farewell. Friends may think the wound is healed, But do not know the sorrow concealed, But someday we will meet again, Someday we know not when, To see your smile and clasp your hand, And never part again.
Love Mom, Jim, Kelly, Samantha and Taylor
