HENDERSON'S BAKERY

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

Mr Alfred Hincks motored to Hamilton and spent the week end.

Mr and Mrs A. L. Hincks with Mrs R. McDonald and son and Mr J. McConnell, visited at Mr Colin McMillan's, Holstein, first of the week.

Mr Sandy Stonehouse had his barn burned on Sunday evening. The cause is unknown. It's a big loss at this time of the year, with the season's crop in it.

While Mr Donald Reiley and sister Alice were driving to Flesherton High School on Monday morning, a truck load of gravel passed them on the road, and it was dumped a short piece ahead of them. This frightened the horse and it ran away. The occupants were thrown out of the buggy, but not badly injured. Donald had his eye hurt.

Miss Phoebe Livingstone spent a few days visiting at Mr Hector McLean's.

The W.M.S. and W.H. held their monthly meeting Friday afternoon with a good attendance. Miss May Stewart presided over the W.M.S. meeting, which was opened with a hymn, followed by prayer. Mrs Jno. Nichol read the scripture lesson, Mrs Dan. Campbell gave a splendid paper on "Thanksgiving." It was decided to have a Thanksgiving offering in November. Mrs Rev. Sutherland gave an interesting address on her trip to Scotland, and told of how they kept the Sabbath day holy. It was much appreciated. The meeting closed with a hymn and the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs J. Nichol then presided over the W.H. meeting. After the usual opening exercises, considerable business was done, and it was decided to hold a fowl supper in the near future. The ladies served a dainty lunch.

Mr and Mrs Wm. McMillan and family, visited friends in Shelburne and Corbetton the first of the week.

At St Columba United Church, a fine sermon was preached by Rev F. Sullivan on Sunday night last. his text, 'Curse ye Meros, saith the Lord, curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof, because they came not up to the help of the Lord against the mighty.' An earnest temperance sermon. He took issue with those who say that politics should not be mixed up with religion or religion with politics. The latter required the earnest thought and prayers of all Christians. The mere profession of Christianity never made a martyr but sometimes made a traitor.

It is not the right kind of religion to pray for direction and go and act opposite. He could not see eye to eye with ministers who favor the L. Control Act. Vote as you pray and pray as you vote was the fervent admonition.

Misses Little of O. Sound, (one of them Minnie, one time a teacher here, spent over the week end at the home of Mr and Mrs F P Reiley and other town friends.

We were indeed pleased to meet with Mrs R LaForge, Lansing, Mich. and Mrs E. Myer, (Jessie) of Battle Creek, Mich. daughters of Jessie Black, an old time Bunessan friend, which awakened many old time memories in the heart. They are musical, attractive and pleasant to a degree.

Quite an alarm was felt Sunday night with a glare in the sky, caused by the burning of Sandy Stoneouse's barn. Cause so far unknown.

Mrs Linn, Hamilton, one time resident here, renewed acquaintanceship in town, radiating from the home of Misses James.

Mr and Mrs Arrowsmith, Ceylon, and other friends, visited friends on Sunday last here.

Mr Ernest Brawley, Beeton, whom we were pleased to welcome a week ago, was a pleasaant visitor to this part.

PRICEVULLE & GLENELG

It rained mostly all day Monday and the ground needed a good soaking. Monday's rain hadn't much effect on clay land. Winter is fast approaching and necessary preparations must be made to give it a good reception. Not much fall plowing done in general but hopes are that November will favor all in the necessary work to be done. Threshing is about done and this week will finish.

The barn and contents of Alex. Stoneouse on the Durham Road, was burned last Sunday evening, also a log cedar stable near by was consumed and as well timber in stable, which if manufactured, was worth considerable. It was all first class cedar put up some 65 years ago by the proprietor then Robert McDonald. The cause of fire is unknown.

The communion held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday was largely attended, 8 new members joining. The pastor gave a good sermon on the duties connected with observing the command "Do this in remembrance of me."

Mr John McLean visited his friends the McDonald's at Edge Hill one afternoon. We were pleased to have a call from Mr and Mrs David Nichol and some memers of family, one evening recently. Mr and Mrs Nichol also visited friends at Lamlash.

A number of the ratepayers attended the nomination Saturday last, in the Rink, which was well filled, and heard good speeches from both candidates.

The call extended to a minister by the Priceville Presbyterians, was not accepted and another call will be extended soon.

Glad to hear little Jean Brown is home from the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, where she was a patient for quite a time. She is fairly well now.

We were pleased to have a visit latel; from Mr and Mrs Thos McDougall, S. Line, also from Mr Norman McIntyre and Miss Mary McKechnie. We also had visitors last week in Mr and Mrs Gordon Geddes and Mrs McCannel. Mr Geddes is now a prosperous Bentinck farmer and a good churchman.

When in Durham last Saturday we met the venerable James Burt. He greeted us and compared ages but found a difference in the passing of our years. He said he had passed 92 and can step along on the sidewalk smarter than some grasshoppers. We hope he will reach the century mark.

Dr Jamieson when a young man of 35 years ago, was attending an old Scot down near Hampden, Normanby. The Dr jokingly said to the veteran that he would probably make out the 100 mark. The old veteran, who was highly pleased with the Drs remark, said 'Dr Jamieson telt me I might reach the 100 mark and he ought to know.' But alas! poor Scot, he passed away before the end of the year.

When in church last Sunday we had the pleasure of conversing in the old language with a few, Mr McDougall, Mr D. McArthur, Gillen Boyd and others.

If Ramsay McDonald visited Durham we would make an endeavor to have a shake hand with him. The name is quite familiar to us and as he is a good highlander he might be a forty second cousin. We are not sure whether he was born in the Isle of Mull or Tyree. As there will be a lot of the name in both Islands bearing this name, many of the aged have passed away.

Among the Churches

Queen St. Church. W.M.S.

The October meeting of the W.M.S. of Queen St. Church was held in the church basement Thursday, with a good attendance. Mrs B M Wilson presided. The opening hymn 'We've a story to tell' was followed by prayer by Mrs Fiddes. Mrs Glass was appointed Temperance Sec'y : Mrs. Groves had charge of program. The devotional leaflet 'He shall reign from sea to sea' was read by Mrs. Yiirs. The Heralds responding in the Watch Tower were Mrs Wiggins, Mrs Gagnon, Mrs Fiddes Mrs Groves.

Mrs Padfield gave a beautifully rendered piano solo 'Nocturne'; followed by a reading by Mrs Chapman. The topic 'A bird's eye view of the home field" was taken by Mrs Groves. in which she sketched the work being done by various departments. viz : Stranger, Supply, Boarding Schools and Homes, Community Missions East and West, Oriental, Indian and Medical work. Each department revealed the far reaching and needful work that is being carried on by our self sacrificing missionaries. Singing and prayer closed the meeting.

MISSION CIRCLES OF KNOX CH , HEAR MRS MORDEN. MEAFORD

Their Annual Thankoffering

The Young Ladies Auxiliary and Girls' Mission Circle of Knox United Church, went together in holding their annual Thankoffering meeting on Monday night last. Despite the rainy night. the attendance was encouraging.

The speaker for the evening was Mrs (Rev) Morden, Meaford, Sec'y for Grey United Presbyterial on the Young People's work. She chose as the theme for thought "The Orientals in Canada" and asked the question. "Do we live our Christianity in regards our attitude to these people from Eastern lands?" There were serious problems to be considered in adopting them into our citizenship. such as the Educatonal. Language, Economic and Social side of their habitation among us. The speaker claimed that as to the Social problem, the Government tolerated acts of the Orientals. that they would not allow of a Canadian. The only solution, she thought, in lifting them to higher standards of thought and living, was for the Canadian born and educated to extend to them a more spmpathetic outlook and not regard them as 'foreigners.'

At the close of her address. Misses Margaret Lennox and Jean Grant, representing both societies. extended to the speaker a vote of thanks for her informative address. The President, Mrs R. Catton presided and piano solos were rendered by Mrs R. MacFarlane and Miss Elsie Kearney and vocal solos by Mrs (Rev.) Smith and Miss Winnie Blyth.

Light refreshments were served at the close.

QUEEN ST. MISSION CIRCLE

The Misses Smith entertained the Queen St. Mission Circle at their home on Tuesday, Oct. 15th, when 25 members and two visitors were present. Mrs Padfield presided over the meeting which opened with hymn 269 'I lay my sins on Jesus', followed by the Lord's Prayer. The Sec'y, Miss Mary Metcalfe then read minutes of previous meeting which were adopted. Those present answered the Roll Call. Mrs Fiddes gave the Devotional Reading and led in prayer. Hymn 334, 'I love to tell the story' was sung by all. Miss E. Hutton read a leaflet entitled 'The Chinese woman of Yesterday and To-day', the contrast of these two plainly showing the progress that Chinese women are making. The outstanding fact was the unbinding of their feet and the large number now receiving a good education.

Miss Norma Gagnon delighted her audience with a charming solo 'My Sunrise.' Miss Etta Twamley gave part of the last chapter of the study book, The clash of Colors.' This was in an interesting way. Mrs H. Kress played a choice piano selection. At an appropriate time Misses Norma Gagnon and W. Smith entered the room with a gaily decorated basket, placing it in front of the bride, Mrs. Noel Falkingham, (nee Miss Marie Gibson). Unwrapping the parcels for her, the bride read the names of the donors and the wonderful poems, which caused much laughter. The many gifts were useful and pretty, and testified to the popularity of the recipient. Mrs Falkingham thanked the Circle for their gifts and invited them all to visit her in her new home.

Mrs Smith and daughters served a dainty lunch, while Mrs Earl McDonald and sister Wilma Smith entertained the Circle with song and music on piano and banjo. All were unanimous in declaring it was a most profitable evening.

Rev. J. W. Greenwood Remembered by his Flock

Rev. J. W. Greenwood on his birthday a few weeks ago was taken by surprise, when the Ladies' Aid of his church at Grayling, Mich., got up for him a supper in honor of the anniversary of his birthday. Five long tables were filled for the pot luck supper and in front of the guest of honor was a beautiful pink and white cake adorned with many candles. A copy of the Grayling Avalanche has the following to say of the proceedings:

"Charles Hill in behalf of the Ladies' Aid, presented Mr Greenwood with a purse of gold in appreciation of his splendid service to the church and society. Immediately following Dr Keyport rose and as a representative of the Masonic Lodge, gave him a beautiful ring as a token of esteem and fraternal affection.

It was significant that the occasion should take place the evening before Mr Greenwood left for the annual conference at Ann Arbor and it left no doubt in the mind of our friend and pastor that his return was universally desired in this community.

At this writing it is expected Rev. Mr Greenwood will return to Grayling for another year as pastor of Michelson Memorial Church which has enjoyed a healthy and prosperous growth for three years under his regime."

We congratulate our friend on the appreciation shown him. In the same issue a sermon by Mr Greenwood is given at length.
