PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE

Top Cliff school children, under the tutelage of Miss Jessie Nichol were taken on Saturday on a trip to Eugenia Falls, in the commodious truck operated by its careful driver, Mr Dan McArthur of the Glen. There were 42 in number with a sprinkling of 3 or 4 mothers and the teacher included. It made a tidy load of school kids, described by Artemus Ward as "all legs and arms and yells." They certainly were hilarious when passing through the village. A pleasant outing was spent from 11.30 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Another fine trip was had by the members of the U.F.O. Club, Bunessan, a week or so previous, to Owen Sound by the same driver, some 21 in number. A very sociable time was spent. A musical Mr Weppler invested in a new fiddle and played all the way home. This is a fine way to enjoy an outing, altogether from first to last.

The play "The Eyes of Love", to have been given last Thursday at the garden party here, had perforce to be postponed as Jupiter Pluvius reigned or rained supreme that day.

Congratulations to those who passed with honors into Sr III,— Ilene Karstedt, Alexis McVicar, Alick Weir and Noreen McInnis. Both teachers have been re-engaged satisfactorily to all concerned, Mr Shackleton and Miss McHugh.

Mr Henry Watson, chartered accountant of Ottawa, visited his mother and brother here last week, returning, he took with him his sister Martha, for a fine well-deserved visit to the Capital.

Rev. Thos. McAffee, Qu'Appele, Sask., supplied the pulpit in the Presbyterian Hall and Swinton Park, on Sunday, while Rev R G Stewart dispensed communion at Maple Valley and adjoining points.

Mr Elroy McLean was a visitor at his home during the week end.

Miss Alma McKerrol, Owen Sound, who attended the wedding of Miss Esther McLean, returned home on Monday.

Mr Bobby Pearson, Toronto, is visiting at McCuaig's and other friends.

A party of 19 Holstein Trail Rang-Rangers and their mentors motored to Muskoka last Saturday and returned Sunday evening. Messrs Alfred and Clifford Hincks and Alex Sim each took a car load. The points of interest visited were Camp Borden, Gravenhurst, Bracebridge, Midland, the martyr's shrine at St Marie, the new co-operative abattoir at Barrie, elevators at Port McNicoll, a boat trip thru Lake Couchiching into Lake Simcoe. The tents were pitched for the night at Cedar Lodge, five miles from Bracebridge and there the boys encountered a species of mosquito hitherto unheard of.

After attending church at Port McNicoll the party motored to Wasaga Beach and thence to Holstein, —330 miles. It's a trip the boys will never forget.

HYMENEAL

NORMAN — McLEAN

A lovely wedding took place at Priceville, when Esther Christena, daughter of Mr and Mrs Colin McLean, became the bride of Mr Neil E. Norman, son of Mr and Mrs W. J. Norman, Badjeros. Rev R. G. Stewart officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette over crepe, made on long, simple lines and a band of orange blossoms adorned her hair. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and fern. Miss Alma McKerroll played the wedding march and also during the signing of the register.

A buffet luncheon was served on the lawn, after which the happy couple left for points east, the bride travelling in a very becoming dark beige suit with hat, shoes and gloves to match and wore a red fox fur, the gift of the groom.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

On their return they will reside in Dundalk.
