FIRE IN SARAWAK.—Shortly after five o'clock on Tuesday morning last, our citizens were aroused by the fire alarm, and many of them wended their way towards the northern part of the town till they discovered that the fire was in the township of Sarawak, several miles off. The light proceeded from the barn and stables of Mr. Wm. Johnston which were totally consumed. Besides the buildings, Mr. Johnston lost a valuable horse, a considerable portion of his crop, and a number of valuable implements. We understand he was insured, but the amount will not nearly cover his loss, which is heavy. There seems little doubt but the fire was the work of an incendiary, as tracks were discovered around the barn, and traced to the bush, some distance off.—Owen Sound Times.

FIRE.—On Friday morning last, about three o'clock, a stable to the rear of Ward's Fish Depot, Poulett Street, was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was at once given, and the Fire Brigade was soon on the scene. Fortunately everything being covered with snow kept the fire from gaining rapidly, and when the engine came it was soon extinguished, leaving the stable partially consumed. Had the fire reached the block of wooden buildings on Poulett Street, to which the stable is attached by sheds, there won'd have been one of the largest conflagrations we have yet had in our town. It is not known whether the origin of the fire was accidental, or whether it was the work of an incendiary. After the fire, Mr. G. M. Butchart, the owner of the block saved, took the Brigade to his house and treated them to refreshments, his kindness being much appreciated.—Owen Sound Times.

THE LINCOLN CASE.—A judgement of the Ontario Court of Appeal given on Monday of last week in the Lincoln local election case, on reserved points, adds twenty-two votes to the respondent's previous majority, making it three more than declared by the returning officer three years ago. The votes had all been struck off by the registrar, against whose rulings the appeal was taken. This virtually decides the case in Mr. Rykert's favor, but as he resigned his claim two years ago to the seat, all it does now is to keep Mr. Neelon out. Mr. Hodgins has several appeals to be heard against the registrar's ruling, but at the most these can only amount to half a dozen, and cannot, therefore, reverse the main result. The question of costs will likely take some time to decide, so that it may be a twelvemonth yet before this most remarkable case in finally disposed of. The cost in witnesses fees, &c. up to the present, is said to amount to $17,000.

FIRING OF A LARGE GUN.—Admiral Hornby reports Lieutenants Coker and Daniel, two petty officers, four seamen and a marine killed by the bursting of the thirty-eight ton gun on board the Thunderer. The gun burst just in front of trunnion's muzzle, blowing overboard. The gun had just been fired with a battering charge, but when it burst was loaded with a full charge and empty shell. The boatswain and thirty-two men were wounded—twelve very badly. The turret is disabled. The ship is otherwise uninjured.

SERIOUS FIRE IN DOON.—A serious fire broke out in the building used for a scutching mill in connection with Messrs. Perrine's flax mills, near Doon, about ten o'clock on Tuesday morning last. The Galt Reporter says:—The origin of the fire is now known, but it is believed to have originated from the machinery in the building. It spread so rapidly that the hands employed had to save themselves by jumping from the windows, one poor fellow getting himself badly burned. Very fortunately the factory itself escaped. The loss is put by rumor at $10,000 on stock and $5,000 on buildings and machinery. The building burned is on the other side of the road from the main building.

The Stratford Beacon says:—Nothing can show more clearly the dishonesty as well as the deceptive nature of Tory warfare than the method in which they are dealing with the expenditure of the Government on public improvements. Take, for example, the subsidy to railways. The people of certain localities need, or imagine they need, a railway. Tories and Reformers unite in petitioning the Government for a grant to assist in building the road. After due consideration the grant is made and voted by Parliament, perhaps without a dissenting voice. The road is built, and the people, Tory and Reform alike, are benefitted by its construction. Election time comes around, and the very Tories who begged the Government for aid will wheel about and howl about the increased expenditure!

The Napanee Standard says:—About a week previous to Sunday last a young man named George Petter, well known in Napanee as an incorrigible vagabond, had been staying at John Galbraith's, Colebrook. He stated that he came from the States, but the fact is he had only recently been liberated from the penitentiary. All went well until Sunday night. He retired to bed in a room adjoining that in which Mr. Galbraith slept, but got up about 12 o'clock, went into Mr. Galbraith's bedroom, where he and his wife were sleeping, took a pair of pants off the foot of the bed and relieved the pockets of their contents, between $35 and $50 in money, some notes and receipts. He then took a watch and chain from the pocket of a vest which hung on the bedpost, and quietly left the house. Mrs. Galbraith heard the door of the house close, and mistrusted something was wrong. They got up and discovered their boarder had left with the articles mentioned. Mr. Galbraith tracked him to Yarker, where it was found he had stolen a horse and turned back to Harrowsmith and Murvale. Telegrams have been sent in every direction.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN GALT.—On Monday afternoon an old man, Frank Black, aged about sixty years, while crossing the new iron bridge on the main street, almost completed, accidentally fell through an unfinished part of the bridge on to the ice below, a distance of about twenty-five feet, receiving injuries which caused his death about two hours afterwards. The deceased has been a resident of that town for upwards of twenty years, and until lately carried on the business of a general blacksmith. He leaves a wife and two children.

Says the Peterboro' Examiner:—Let's see? Wasn't it Sir John Macdonald who occupied the same platform with Phipps on one occasion, and introduced him to the assembled faithful as the man who had done more for protection than any other six? Phipps has at least sense enough to see that he has been a fool, and there are more sensible men than he in the Dominion—aye, hundreds of them—who have already realized that they, too, were fooled out of their votes on the 17th of last September by a specious and insincere cry.

Mr. James Allan, of Dereham, was visiting Tillsonburg on the 23rd ult., and tied his team to a post. Another horse was hitched to the same post, and the animals began biting each other. Suddenly one of Mr. Allan's gave a leap and came down with its whole weight on the post, which passed through the abdomen. The poor, agonized brute remained fixed in this position until at length it was released by raising it up with a plank. It had to be shot.

THE WITNESS

33rd Year.

One of the most important features of the Witness during the year 1879, will be its course of free lectures on agriculture, by W. F. Clarke, of Lindenbank, Guelph, late editor of the "Canada Farmer." Those lectures already delivered by Mr. Clarke have been met with the greatest approval everywhere. The lectures will be reported in the Witness, whose value as an agricultural paper has within the past few months been greatly enhanced.

The Witness is devoted to temperance, being the principal organ of that cause in Canada, and to all other sanitary and moral reforms as well as to the furtherance of Evangelical religion.

Another special feature of the Witness during 1879, will be the attention paid to its engravings, which already are numerous and important. Portraits of the prominent men throughout the world will be given, and the paper will contain numerous illustrated articles of much interest and value, as well as selections from the humorous art of the day.

The fullest attention will be paid to news, so that the Witness may retain its present reputation as a newspaper.

The household and general literary departments of the Witness have always been a prominent feature of the paper, and they will be continued on the same plan as heretofore, giving to the ladies much valuable information about everything necessary to make the household bright, pleasant, and prosperous.

The price of the different editions of the Witness is as follows, per year, post paid:—

Daily Witness, $3.00, circulation, 14,899.
Weekly Witness, $1.10, circulation, 28,000.

In addition to these, the publishers of the Witness issue the Northern Messenger, a semi-monthly illustrated family journal, which is regarded with great favor all over North America, as its circulation of over 50,000 testifies. In homes remote from postal accommodation, it supplies the whole family reading, while in cities, towns, and villages everywhere, it is the favorite of the young people, who find it an endless source of enlightenment and enjoyment. Its price is but 30 cents a year, including postage. To Sunday-schools and clubs it is sent at the following rates:—

10 copies to one address...$ 2.50 per an.
25 copies to one address... 6.00 "
50 copies to one address... 11.50 "
100 copies to one address... 22.00 "

All persons desiring to interest themselves in obtaining subscriptions for the Witness, will receive sample copies and terms on application.

That Bar of Iron.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the people of Dundalk and vicinity, that he is still carrying on the Trade of Blacksmithing, and is prepared to put A BAR OF IRON into any shape that Fancy or Necessity may demand.

From early morn till dewy eve,
John Norval's door is ajar,
And if you want a Needle made,
He'll form it from a Bar.

For favors past, to Patrons he Holds thankfulness at Par;
And hopes they ever will believe
He'll suit them from a Bar.

When Suns were rough and days were dull,
John Norval, like a Tar,
Stood many a blast and held his post
And made things from a Bar.

And when the times were out of joint,
And cash as scarce as spar,
He never failed to strike a Nail,
And form things from a Bar.

But times anon began to mend:
His Iron came in a Car;
Yet still without advance in price,
John Norval struck the Bar.

And when Dundalk began to strive
So like the Morning Star,
His Hammers with redoubled force,
Came down upon the Bar.

And now within that lively Town,
He has Declared a War;
And set the hammer, vice and file,
To fight against the Bar.

To suit all Grades and Ranks of men,
No matter who they are,
That want a job made strong with Iron,
He'll bind it with a Bar.

A Bar of Iron in Norval's hands,
Will shine to please the Czar
So if you want an anchor made,
He'll form it from a Bar.

JOHN NORVAL.
Blacksmith, DUNDALK.
