MR. W. D. Connor, is already doing considerable business in his stand opposite the brick foundry in all kinds of pumps, Windmills, tanks etc.

"THE Outcast of Milan" our new story, has been pronounced by competent critics to be a good one. Look it up and secure it from the beginning.

We have placed on our exchange list the new paper in Ayton "The Independent." It is bright and newsy and seems to be getting a good advertising patronage.

J. A. HUNTER has just received 80 packages of choice new Japan Tea. They are imported direct and only weigh 20 lbs. each. Just the thing for a family to buy. Try one.

MESSRS A. Davidson and W. E. McAlister have our thanks for copies of ancient Durham newspapers. The former for a copy of the Standard of 1882, the latter for a Chronicle nineteen years old.

WE call attention to the advertisement of Macklin Bros. in this issue they show some wonderful reductions. We are sorry to have genial and capable business men leave town, but wish them success.

WE have to thank Mrs. J. Thompson, Flesherton, for some copies of the Priceville Courier. Our many Priceville readers and others, will appreciate the instalment we give them this week of "Priceville in ye olden time."

HURT.—Robert Colville while standing near the press in the cider mill last Monday received a blow on the head from a timber, which sprung out of position, that knocked him senseless. We are glad to hear he is recovering.

OTHERS may offer you cheap Tobaccos, but we offer you a bargain we do so with the best class of goods. For instance, T & B Tobacco 20c per plug—regular price 25c. Cheap grades at the lowest advertised prices, J. Woodland.

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "Sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the great four-day Fair they are inaugurating this year in O. Sound. It is now the terminus of the G. T. R. and we will likely soon see on Time Tables, "Parkhead and Wiarton Branch." Make ready to lift your hats to the City" of "O. Sound.

THE MODERN BEAUTY thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs.

THE electrice storm of last Saturday caused the destruction of Mr. B. Hartford's barn and contents. Some machinery is also gone. A loss like this is a serious one, when a season's work is destroyed. Another storm passed over our district on Sunday night doing considerable damage, and we see by our exchanges that the whole country has a similar tale.

THE Varney Methodist Church was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Friday evening of last week. The occasion was a reception and welcome to Rev. Mr. Flagg, who, for two months or so put a substitute in his place and crossed the ocean to secure his lady love. Mr. Flagg was accompanied by his bride who won golden opinions. After ample refreshments had been partaken of, Mr. Gilpin, Mr. Flagg's substitute, took the chair, and happily occupied that important place. Addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Pomeroy, Rev. Mr. Flagg and Mr. Wm. Allan, also by Mr Charter Smith, who represented the sister charge at Vickers. The musical part gave great satisfaction, Misses Orchard and Carson of Durham officiating. Fun, jokes and a high social feeling characterized the meeting.

TWENTY-EIGHT Modelites have pencil and note book in active use while Mr. Allan presents the foundations of pedagogical science. In a short time they will be teaching. As usual the ladies are in the majority as the following list will show:—

From Durham:—
May Hopkins, Ena Paterson, Maggie Weir, Annie McKenzie, Nellie Parker, Joseph Burnet, Robt. Holt, John Vollett.

From outside points:—
Lizzie Dargavel, Dornoch; Mary Delaney, Traverston; Lizzie Henderson, Wareham; Minnie Glazier, Wiarton; Emma Himmler, Neustadt; Mildred Leesion, Varney; Jennie Little, Hampden; Agnes Meagher, Lauriston; Jessie Miller, Wiarton; Tena McQuarrie, Ventry; Mary Robson, Traverston; Mary Scott, Dromore; Belle Skene, Dornoch; Jennie Treadgold, Lily Oak; Maggie Wallace, Chesley; Nellie McAsey, Traverston; Thos. Collinson, Aberdeen; Walter Nichol, Priceville; Hector McDonald, Priceville; Richard Waters, Priceville.

Only 15 pairs white blankets left at the woollen mill, going fast, call early, if you want a pair.—T. H. Watchorn.

AND now Orangeville has a ghost sensation, six to seven feet tall, black to the waist, then white to the knee, then black again. It hasn't the courage of the Glenelg ghost for it stalks about at night.

A letter from our Toronto correspondent intended for last week appears in this issue. As we publish a day earlier it is not altogether out dated. Dornoch correspondent was also too late. It appears this week.

THE balance of my stock at the Woollen Mill must be all cleared out within the next ten days. If you want a fine or coarse suit of clothes, blankets, flannels, sheeting or yarns, do not fail to call early and secure your share of the bargains.—T. H. WATCHORN.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.—South American Rheumatism Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by McFarlane & Co.

WOODLAND has always done the Millinery trade of the Town, and is better prepared, than ever this year, to meet all competition. And at their Millinery Opening you will see one of the finest displays of Millinery goods ever shown in the Town. Announcement of which will appear later on.

It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by McFarlane & Co., Druggists.

PERSONALS.

Miss Wood, of Flesherton Station, was in town last Sunday.

Dr. Brander, and Miss Bull, of Priceville, were in town Sunday last.

Miss Ada Middleton arrived home from Chicago for a few months visit on the 25th ult.

MR. John McLellan, at one time a clerk with McKechnie Bros, is home for a visit to friends. He has been in Cleveland for some time.

Rev. Mr. Gilpin, who has been acting as substitute for Mr. Flagg on the Varney Circuit for the past two months, left for his home in Stirton on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Thos. Donaghy, connected with the Prov. Building and Loan Assocation as General Agent, and Secy. Treas. of the Mt. Forest Local Board was in town on business last Friday.

Lieut. F. F. Hunter left Tuesday morning for the Royal Military College Kingston. In addition to his Military course he instends studying mining and electrical engineering.

Mr. Certus Anderson, who has been in Chicago for about four years, is at present spending a few weeks with his father and other friends here. The boys are all glad to see Cert. again.

C. B. Taylor, of the Guelph Mercury staff accompanied the officials on the late excursion to O. Sound. He writes to the Mercury a fine reminiscent letter on O. Sound 30 years ago, where he spent part of his boyhood on the Advertiser staff.

SCOTCH TOWN.

The rain on Friday and Saturday morning was thankfully received as it was much needed.

Mrs. Mike Henrick and her little daughter Mary of Toronto are at present visiting the former's sister, Miss F. McMillan.

Mr. John A. McLellan of Cleveland, Ohio arrived home last week for a few weeks holidays. Mac looks well and speaks highly of Yankee land.

Mr. John Black and stalwart gang Messrs D. Sinclair and A. McLauchlan are doing magnificent work with his new "Waterloo Champion" Thresher.

Where was Mr. Alex. C. of Artmesia on Sunday. Looking for strayed calves?

Misses Flora and Annie McQuarrie returned to the city last week, they will certainly be missed.

Mr. Angus McDonald of the 4th is home from Saginaw, Michigan, and is at present in the employ of his brother Dan and Captain R. in the threshing business. Angus has not forgotten his regular trips to friends at the corners. He gave a pleasant call on Messrs Lauchie McMillan and Hugh McArthur.

Misses Sadie C. Black and Catherine K. Morrison of this place were visiting friends at Balsam Valley Saturday and Sunday.

A rough and tumble scrap on Saturday evening resulted in black eyes for two young fellows. Some tall talk was indulged in.

Mrs. Duncan McIntyre is down sick at present and is under the treatment of Dr. Jamison. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Mrs. Muir is very sick at her brother's, A. Butters, of Priceville. Dr. Mary Brander is attending her and we hope she will soon be herself again.

BALSAM VALLEY

Harvesting is about over and the hum of the threshing machine can be heard all around us. Mr. Hugh McKenzie is engineering his gang of jolly threshers and a fine new engine. While James McDougall and Bob Fisher are doing big work down the line. We expect them in Balsam Valley next week.

Mr. George Preator has returned home from the lower settlements where he has been during the summer months. He is now a thorough fledged musician and can hang out his shingle next year and play against the best musicians of the day. I know one fair one that will be glad since George returned, don't you Ted?

Miss Mary Campbell, of Swinton Park, accompanied by Miss Kate Campbell were visiting Balsam Valley last week. We noticed one gentleman that was all over smiles for a week after.

Miss Kate McPhail, left for Toronto last week having spent a few months at her parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Ferguson have been on the sick list for a week, but are getting around again.

Mrs. Neil, of Galt, was visiting at D. McIntyre's and McKechnie's last week. She having been an old resident of this part before Balsam Valley was christened.

We understand Miss Annie McKechnie has a position in Toronto as clerk in one of the noted stores. Talk will quit now, and it is high time it should. Some of the people that were talking a little bit too fresh may get themselves in the sling yet and get thrown over.

As Well as Ever

After Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cured of a Serious Disease.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I was in bed for three weeks; during that time I had leeches applied and derived no benefit. Seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers I decided to try a bottle. I found

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. WOODSON, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminent over other medicines of the class."—Chas. "Have the assembled commoners for the prize?" asked the duke of one of the heralds who stood near him.

"Yes, my lord."

"Who won at wrestling?"

"Michael Totilla."

"And who bore off the palm at boxing?"

"The same, my lord."

"What—Michael Totilla again?"

"Yes."

"Do you mean the artizan who has taken Orlando Vendorme's shop?"

"Yes, my lord."

"I think he was a workman with Vendorme?"

"He was, my lord. He learned his trade with the elder Vendorme."

"By the mass!" muttered Manfred to himself, "this stout armorer may need looking after. His success may make him a hero; and if he begins to prate of his outcast master, his words may have some weight with the people."

The trumpets sound again; and now a score of knights enter the enclosure and approach the dais; and as they pass the canopied seats, they salute the duke, and make a low obeisance to the fair Princess of Bergamo. They are a noble train, and right bravely do they bear themselves in their saddles. The Prince Ludovico takes the lead. He is known by his crest. And Hugh de Castro comes next. He is known by the captain's baton, which he has retained in his hand. But who is that knight near the end of the train—he with the silver cross upon his breast-plate? The duke is eager to find him out; but no one can inform him. A herald is sent for, and Manfred asks who is the knight of the Silver Cross.

"I cannot tell you, my lord. I think he is from Modena; but further than that I know not."

"Hi—as I live, here comes Alfonso of Modena himself. He shall give me knowledge of the strange knight."

The Count of Modena had entered with the knights, some of whom were from his city, and while they rode around the list he ascended the dais, where he was warmly welcomed by the duke, and presented to Isabel.

"A noble company," said the count, as
