THE REVIEW

Durham, Jan. 3rd, 1895.

—Premier Bowell received the honor of knighthood on Jan. 1. He is now Sir Mackenzie Bowell.

—The warship Blenheim with the remains of Sir John Thompson on board arrived in Halifax on Jan. 1, about noon. The rain fell in torrents yet thousands viewed the disembarking of the body. The sons of the deceased together with the local clergy, were the first to get on board. Yesterday, the members of the government took turns in watching by the bier. To-day the solemn and imposing state funeral is expected to take place.

—The storms of last week have been wide-spread and severe. At Niagara Falls the wind blew such a hurricane that the waters of Lake Erie were dammed back so much that rocks in the bed of the Niagara river above the Falls came to view, which old residents have not seen in twenty years. Snow also fell to the depth of two feet, and in consequence, the railroad traffic has been much hindered. At Montreal and Quebec snow fell also very heavily in places drifting to the depth of fifteen feet, while at times the wind attained a velocity of sixty miles an hour. In New York State, and along the Atlantic coast especially the storm raged with fierceness doing great damage to the shipping along the coast. At sea also there was no lessening of the force of the hurricane.

—Mr. Gladstone celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday on Saturday last. In the forenoon he drove through the village of Hawarden, and in the afternoon he received a deputation of Armenian Christians from Paris and London. His reply was delivered with great animation. The hon. gentleman spoke for fifteen minutes, among much else, he said, that if the allegations are true, it is time that there should be one general shout of execration against these deeds of wickedness from outraged humanity, and that the Government which could cover up such atrocities was a disgrace to Mahomet, a disgrace to civilization at large, and a disgrace to mankind. Mr. Gladstone's health is perfect, and, barring the defects in seeing and hearing, he is as able to lead the House of Commons to day as he was twenty years ago. That he is the greatest character of the age, taking him all in all, physically, and intellectually, is readily admitted, and that the world-wide interest in him has not abated is shown by the hundreds of letters and telegrams of congratulations and birthday gifts received by him on Saturday.

The reports which have come lately to hand, show very clearly that the story of the atrocities committed by the Turkish soldiery upon defenceless Christians in Armenia has not been exaggerated. The Sultan has indeed expressed His horrors at the outrage, and at the cold-blooded murder committed by his troops in his name and has even appointed a commission to investigate the whole matter. But little confidence is placed in his profession. He has been proverbially ready to promise anything and then do nothing, although Mr. Gladstone, who has always had a warm side to Turkey, expresses the hope that the Ottoman Porte for its own honor will do its duty. However the recent outrages have roused a strong feeling throughout Europe. Russia and France, Germany and Italy are jointly arranging a thorough enquiry. The Americans have also taken the question up and have petitioned President Cleveland to seek some method which will bring the facts to the light of day. No doubt something will be done, but, the Eastern question is a very complicated one. Mohammedans are not only in Turkey, but in India and in Africa and elsewhere, and what touches one, touches all.

THE NOMINATIONS.

DURHAM.

For Mayor—W. Laidlaw, by accln.

For Reeve—John H. Brown and W. Gorsline.

North Ward—For Councillors—A. S. Hunter, R. McFarlane, sr., C. McKinnon, John Robertson, sr., Geo. Sparling. For Trustee.—C. L. Grant.

East Ward—For Councillors—Geo. Moore, Dr. Park, H. Rose, B. F. Warner, Whitmore. For Trustee—A. W. Paterson.

West Ward—For Councillors—R. Bell, Wm. Calder, Jas. Falkingham, D. Kinnee, J. Kress, S. McCracken, N. McIntyre, A. McLachlan. For Trustee—Jas. Carson, John Livingstone.

The foregoing reads quietly but does not by any means represent the interest and excitement of the meeting where freemen met to choose their local rulers.

The Lower Hall was filled with ratepayers who waited not very patiently for the two hours to elapse during which to receive nominations. If this two hours is legal it is scarcely common sense for no justice can be done to speakers or their topics after 2.30 p. m. Fancy, 32 nominees for the 14 vacant positions in the gift of their fellow electors!!

We congratulate Mayor Laidlaw on his reappointment by acclamation to the civic chair. This has been certain for some time.

Reeve Brown has again to defend his position, and will likely be successful, though Mr. Gorsline's charges against him and the council generally were numerous and vigorously made. If Mr. Gorsline would enter the list as a councillman, he would be sure to get "there," but is his chances are not the best, but he is a fighter.

Meckler, Kilmer, Williams, Robertson, J. A. Hunter of the old council were in the running. Messrs. Meckler, Brown and Calder spoke in defence of the council of last year. Mr. Laidlaw thanked the electors for the position he found himself in and justified the Council of which he was last a member for having no low a rate, &c. Mr. Calder spoke at some length on his attitude on the fire engine question and other matters, and in such a way as to command respect for his motives, though some might question his judgment. He should be in the council of '95.

Mr. Crawford was nominated for both reeve and councillor, but could not stand. Mr. J. W. Crawford is one of the most popular men in town and were he desirous of office, might just walk in.

The west ward is to have a contest for trusteeship, Mr. Carson being opposed by Mr. John Livingstone. The vote will be close.

Great regret is expressed at Dr. Gunn's retirement from the School board. No man in town ever did so much for the best interests as Dr. Gunn. He has been chairman of the board for many years and was always progressive and broad-minded. Mr. Grant is thus elected without a contest.

We hear Mr. McKelvey brought him in. He expresses his thanks for the nomination, and while urging Mr. Calder to stand feeled to take the advice himself and retired.

BENTINCK.

Reeve—Jacob Messenger, A. Brigham.

1st Deputy—Moses Jacklin, Geo. Ries.

2nd Deputy—Samuel Dickson, John Sumpton.

Councillors—Sam. Putorbough, John Brown, M. Cameron, R. Leslie.

Bentinck perhaps will show the hottest all-round fight of the surrounding municipalities. With every position contested, in almost all cases by men of experience, it is a battle of Titans. Monday night will be a safe time to prophesy.

GLENELG.

Reeve—Geo. Binnie, acclamation.

Dep. Reeve—Jas. Staples, Mal. Beeton.

Councillors—Thos. McFadden, Geo. E. Arrowsmith, Thos. Sullivan, Geo. Lamb, Pat. Neil.

Reeve Binnie, of Glenelg, has achieved his greatest triumph. Congratulations. Elected four years ago by a majority of two, he has steadily increased his figure until now he walks in unopposed. The interest in the election centres in the deputy reeveship, where Mr. Jas. Staples, the present reeve, is opposed by Mr. M. K. Beaton. The result is an uncertain quantity as both are popular and have experience. Two of the five candidates for councillmen will be left at home and it is safe to say Mr. T. McFadden will not be one of the two.

EGREMONT.

Reeve—P. Dickson, Jas. Murdoch.

1st Deputy—Jas. Swanston, S. Queen.

2nd Deputy—Jas. Allan, W. Fraser.

Councillors—W. McFadden, D. Leith, D. Hunter, Thos. Phelp, R. Bye.

Mr. James Murdoch is before the electors of Egremont for the position of Reeve. He made a fine resume of township affairs, and his able speech well known abilities and long experience will place him, it is almost certain, at the head of the poll. The Rustell bridge was the all absorbing topic, and Reeve Dickson brought in as an offset the Sangeen Mutual transaction of his opponent long since passed and settled, but this was promptly hooted down. Mr. Queen showed himself a clever speaker, eliciting hearty approval in strongly advocating retrenchment in Co. expenses. Mr. Jas. Allan gave a clear and concise account of his Stewardship, the councillors all promised faithfully to perform their duties. Wm. McFadden the old councillor had no political sins to answer for. David Leith, a new man fills a long felt want in the N. E. Ward, unrepresented since D. McCormick retires. D. Hunter, another new man, showed considerable ability. T. Phelps spoke briefly and wished them all a Happy New Year. R. Bye, of the present council spoke at length, convincingly and with much humor. We would venture on a prophecy (we can only fail) that the next council will be Murdoch, Swanston, Allan, Leith and Bye. Com.

NORMANBY.

Reeve—John Blyth, acclamation.

1st Deputy—Schenk, Widmeyer and Morice.

2nd Deputy—Koeing, acclamation.

Councillors—David Grier, John Drier, acclamation.

In Normanby it is a contest for 1st deputy-reeveship only. Mr. Blyth, as was fully expected, having no opposition. It is peculiar though to find only two aspirants for two positions in the council and these both green men. Mr. Morice stands to win between his two opponents.

[Morice we hear has been allowed to walk in, Schenk and Widmeyer having retired. Congratulations Bob.]

The South Grey Farmers' Institute will be held in Durham, on Wednesday Jan. 9th, at 10 a.m., and in Ayton on Jan. 10th. Concert in the evening. See bills.

ORCHARDVILLE.

Anniversay services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday 16th inst. but owing to the bad roads, there were not so many in attendance as there probably would have been had the roads been in better condition. Rev. B. L Hutton, of Ripley, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and preached two excellent sermons. Tea was served in the drill barracks on the following Monday evening after which an intellectual feast was dispensed in the church Three good addresses were delivered by Revs. Flagg, of Varney, McVicar, of Proton and Hutton, of Ripley. As to the singing it is only necessary to say that it was furnished by the Durham Presbyterian choir, and was such that any one who heard it could not but appreciate and enjoy it. Proceeds of collection and tea $36. A social was held on the following Thursday evening at which $5.10 were realized for Sunday School expenses. Children of School free.

Mr. Walls, who has been our school teacher during the last four years, has been engaged in the adjoining S. S. No. 2, Normanby, for 1895. On the afternoon of his closing day he was the recipient of an address and easy chair from his pupils although he did not have a very comfortable room in which to labour while here, he can now enjoy as he reclines in his easy chair, the comfort which has come to him on account of his sojourn amongst us. The following address was read by Miss Lizzie Hoy:—

To Mr. Jno. Walls.

DEAR TEACHER:

As you are about to separate from us to pursue your labors elsewhere, we feel it our duty before parting to express to you in some tangible manner our appreciation of your labours amongst us, and the deep interest you have always taken in our welfare.

In presenting you with this easy chair it is our earnest wish that you may be long spared to use it.

Signed on behalf of the pupils.

WORD. HACKMAN. LORNE BRADLEY.
JOHN BROWN. LIZZIE HOY.

The chair was presented by Miss Mary Bradley. Mr. Walls addressed a few remarks to the children in reply, treated them and the friends, who had gathered to oranges, and then wishing all a Merry Xmas and Happy New Year bade them good bye.

VIOLET.

GLASCOTT.

(Intended for last week.)

Times very dull owing to the want of snow, as no team-work can be done.

Messrs. Neil Livingston, George Craig and Dan Kennedy are engaged now for a length of time taking out square timber for N. McIntyre, of Durham.

Although the night was extremely dark and roads bad, the entertainment held on the 21st Dec. in the Baptist church on the tenth con. was a grand success. Mr. Jas. Staples presided in his usual jocial way. Short addresses were given by Messrs. G. Binnie, E. Hunt, J. Baines G. Lamb, M. K. Beaton and pastor. Recitations and fine singing were also dispensed, altogether a pleasant evening was spent. Proceeds $28.00.

Wonder if all the young men got their best girl safe home in the darkness?

Mr. Wm. Sourby is at present in a critical state of health. Hope he will soon be brought back to his usual vigor and strength.

Mr. Jas. Boyle met with a bad accident lately, while assisting to cut off a fyi g tree in the bush with a spring in it. It gave way sooner then expected. Striking Mr. B. a severe blow across the temple inflicting a severe cut besides. The eye was dressed by Dr. Smith. It was a narrow escape from being fatal.

Mr. Wm. Williamson has had an attack of pleurisy last week but is, we understand, on the mend.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Coffey, who died on the 16th inst., was largely attended. The remains being entered in the R. C. Cemetery at Dornoch.

Mr. R. L. Purvis is a proud man at present, having lately become Daddy of another fine boy.

PRICEVILLE.

Mr. James McDougall, of South Line, Glenelg, and Miss Fanny Charlton, of Toronto, were united in the holy bans of of matrimony, on Wednesday, 25th Dec. (Christmas Day) at Toronto. On the following evening a large company was invited by the groom to meet at his new residence, Priceville, where a fine table of the richest of the season was prepared by the Misses McDougall, sister of the groom. The presents received by the young couple were both costly and numerous. After spending the night in a becoming manner on the occasion all went home, pleasantly speaking in high terms of the treatment received and wishing the young couple prosperity.

Miss Maggie McCannel is home after spending the last few months attending the Normal School at Ottawa. She speaks well of the treatment received from friends there.

At the school meeting held in section 10, Glenelg, last Wednesday in the new school house, there were two ratepayers present besides the officials. This shows that there is a lack of interest taken in school matters and leaves a more burdensome task on trustees to perform when they are not backed by the presence of the rate-payers at such meetings as these. Mr. Hugh McKinnon was again appointed trustee for the coming term.

The school meeting, at Priceville, was largely attended. Dr. Hutton was elected trustee for the coming year. We may say that it would be hard to find one more capable of the capacity then the Dr.

Mr. Neil McCannel has been on the sick list for the last few weeks from the effects of a cold. We are pleased to find him able to be around again and able to attend to his duties.

The family of Mr. Wm. Watson jr. are laid up with Diptheria. Under the cautious treatment of Dr. Hutton we hope the epidemic will not spread. We are happy to learn that they are getting better.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McLeod, Sunnidale were visiting Mrs. McLeod's brother Mr. N. McCannel last week and returned on Saturday last.

The A. O. U. W. Lodge 140, Priceville, elected the following officers for the year 1891; Michael Reiley, Master workman; John McDonald, Foreman; C. C. James, Recorder; Wm. Watson, Financier; Joseph Auburn, Receiver; John McArthur, Overseer; Donald McCormick, Watch; N. McKinnon, Guard; John Campbell, Sentinel; and Dr. Hutton, Past Master. We have no doubt but the constitution of the order will be adhered to in the year 1895 unper the leadership of Mr. Reiley.

IRISH LAKE.

The following is a list of the events which transpired around the Lake Christmas times:

Mr. and Mrs. James Kerley, partook of Christmas turkey with Mr. Andrew Fogarty, Markdale.

Mr. T. Moran, jr., of Glascott, spent Xmas with Mr. Jno. Ryan's family.

A welcome acquisition to our neighborhood is Miss Lizzie McRae, who returned home from Toronto, Saturday last.

Miss Eliza Quinlivan, of Toronto, is spending a two weeks' vacation at the old homestead.

On Christmas night, a jolly crowd from Pomona, whiled away a few pleasant hours at the home of Mr. Thos Sullivan.

Mr. Jas. Butler, had the misfortune to lose one of his driving horses, recently.

Mr. Patrick Martin recently came home from Brock, and on his arrival home found to his utter dismay, he had lost quite a sum of money in or around Markdale. He is completely mystified as to its whereabouts. VIOLET.

We are doing the business and with health and success we intend to do even better. but we must have the support of every man, woman and child in and around Durham who buys their goods for Cash. We can give you cash prices of goods in this column and say what they used to be when we sold for credit but we find the only genuine way and the true way is to call at this Store yourself and examine the Goods.

We have made a tremendous slaughter of prices in Men's Overcoats, Suits, Pants and Vests, and Boys' Clothing.

A large crowd enjoyed the Christmas entertainment at the Methodist church last Thursday. The chief feature of the evening being a large boat load of presents and things sent by Santa Claus to the Sunday School children. Where all did so well, it could it be otherwise with Mr. Pope and Miss Orchard at the helm. It is not the right so particular, but the little girls sang and looked like angels while the boys rendered their part well. A good dialogue with a number of four ladies was well done. Mr. Pope filled the chair very acceptably.

Mr. John A. Conkey the popular clerk of the McFarlane & Co. staff left this week for a few days at his old home stead, in Artemesia. On Monday next he will leave for Toronto to take the final six months course at the Ontario College of Pharmacy. It is needless to say that Mr. Conkey's always pleasant and winning manner will be missed from behind the counter where so long and faithfully served as well from the Church choir and Christian Endeavor of which he was an active member and worker. Our readers will remember his success in the first course of study and the REVIEW joins with his numerous friends wishing him similar success in the future and that he will yet again return to the midst. We understand Mr. Harry Glencoe is his successor.

Flagg, pastor occupied the chair. The singing rendered by the McCochrane & Co., of Durham was highly appreciated. Also the singing, recitations and dialogues by the children of the school were bright, appropriate and well rendered. The calisthenic exercises of the children, under the leadership of Mrs. Flagg, were an interesting feature of the program. Wm. Allan Esq. delivered a suitable address. The tree of the Xmas tree were then handed and put away for next year. The proceeds, to benevolent S. S. purposes amounted to about $3[illegible].

OBITUARY.—There died in the township of Durham on the 26th of Dec. 1894, Christina Cameron, widow of the late Malcolm McQuarrie at the good old age of [illegible] years. The deceased, who was the surviving member of a family of 9, was born in the Ross of Mull Scotland in 1797 and emigrated to Canada in 1820 to the township Vaughan where she married to the late Malcolm McQuarrie. They then moved to Bentinck in 1851 where she continued to live till a few years ago. After her husband's death she removed to Durham, where she died. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Janson both at house and grave and she was buried at the Rocky Saugeen Cemetery. She leaves one son, who resides at Vernore, Wisconsin.

The Chesley Enterprise in a recent issue tells an amusing and sharp trick played by M. Jacklin, 1st dep. Reeve of Bentinck, on the Tp. of Normanby. It is as follows: an old, dejected and worn-out horse lay near death's door as well as Mr. J's. and to save his township the expense of a funeral paid a boy 50 cts. to drive it into Normanby to die. The Normanby Council, on finding it killed and buried at a cost of $8, were shortly afterwards informed by Mr. J. that they had rendered themselves liable to an action should the owner appear, as the proper course was to impound it. "No owner has appeared however and an expense of four shillings and two badly-frightened representatives was the only result of Mr. J. (Moses') trick. No other man would think of saving money for a municipality at that kind of summer work, as a reward for his astuteness, the first deputy should be returned by acclamation.

Mr. Robert Austin was born in Morayshire, Scotland, in 1822. He emigrated to Brantford in 1851, and after a few years spent there as a miller, he moved to Fergus in 1855, and became owner of the mills there, operating them very well on in the sixties. In 1856, he married Miss Mary Milne whose name and character is still remembered in Durham with affectionate love. All his children were born in Fergus but one. The family consists of four sons and four girls. Mrs. Raymond, (Maggie) of Emerado, N. Dakota, is the oldest. Robert, is a carriage builder in Bolton Centre, and learnt his trade in this town. Mrs. Jamieson, (Mary) of Durham. Alexander and John are successful blacksmiths at Reynolds, N. Dakota. James, the youngest son, is at present a student in McCormick Theological Seminary of the Pres Church, Chicago. The other surviving daughter, is Maggie Austin, who is well known in Durham, but makes her home with her sister Jamieson, of Galt. One girl, Mary, died in youth. Mr. Austin came to Durham 18 years ago, and was for a time engaged in McKechnie's Mills. Failing eyesight compelled him to give up milling, and since then he has occupied his time in gardening for which he has both taste and aptitude.
