LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A telegram from the Supreme Chief Ranger, Oronhyatekha announces that he will be here for sure. Friday next.

Six (6) bands will furnish music. Don't fail to be on hand.

Mrs. A. McDougall and Mrs. McIlwain of Williamsford were visiting friends in town Sunday last.

An interesting society event is on the tapis.

Mr. A. C. McKenzie from Montreal, brother of the Post Master's is at present on a visit to him and other friends.

Miss Mary Lenahan of Mildmay is at present visiting her brother Mr. James Lenahan of town.

Park lot No. 2, at present occupied by the Rev. Chas. Cameron is for sale. This is a very desirable location for a retired farmer. Apply to J. P. TELFORD.

Don't forget to attend the Hanover Agricultural Show, September 17th and 18th. They always have a good exhibition and this year the events in the horse ring promise to be of special interest.

DAWSON'S GOLDEN CHAFF.—The celebrated wheat, which, as could be seen by our last week's issue stood at the head of all the kinds tested by the Agriculture College tests can be had at Mr. Wm. Derby's, Tp. of Bentinck, who reports having a good crop.

Constable Catson in the discharge of his duty last week found the first occupants for the new cells. It was a case of tangle leg ending in a fracas. The combatants were brought before the Mayor and the younger man being the aggressor was made to pay a small fine.

GIANT CORN.—We have in our office this week a couple of corn stalks kindly brought us by Mr. Geo. Johnston as a sample of Normanby vegetation. It measures 11 ft. 6 inches to the top of the tassel but by straightening the leaves out will go several inches more. It was grown on the farm of Mr. Wm. Johnston, Sr., and as we saw the field a few days ago, we can bear testimony to the forest appearance of the whole of it.

HOW IS THIS FOR WHEAT?—In a communication from Mr. Wm. Davis, of High Bluff, Manitoba received last Friday, he informs us that he has just finished cutting his crop of 250 acres. The first round of the reaper was over 3 miles. The yield is good. He expects to have at least 4500 bushels of wheat and 2500 bushels of oats, and all this first class as the frost did no damage. We wonder how many Ontario farms unified could produce so much. We congratulate Mr. Davis on his prospects and himself and his staff on their "hustling" qualities, they being the first to finish on the plains.

Mr. A. Patton, of this town, arrived home yesterday with the noted imported stallion "Garfield 2nd" which he recently purchased.

GOOD SHOOTING.—A recent issue of a British Columbia paper contains the following: "A Nanaimo man in the first match came very near taking the cup presented by the Mayor and Corporation of New Westminister. He tied the winning score, each having 60, but his opponent Sharp had scored the higher at the longer range, so Watson was awarded second prize of $7.00 Sharpe getting $8.00." The Watson referred to is Mr. Robt. Watson, terfina, (third of the name) son of the well known Robt. Watson, Jr. whose father Robt. Sr. is still a vigorous young man of eighty years or so.

THE HEWSON GARDEN PARTY.—On Thursday of last week, a large number of pleasure seekers met under novel and agreeable circumstances at the residence of the Hewson Bros. The grounds were brilliantly lit with two arc lights, for the occasion, and the sound of waters and presence of several romantic-looking side show tents added interest to the scene. The supper was a superb affair and was partaken of by several hundreds we should say. The program was rendered from a platform just outside the parlor window. The Art Gallery was unique and moved many to tears. The Fortune teller tickled some of the men highly, and the little fairies with their flowers assisted the other institutions in netting the snug little sum of $70.00. Mr. Mockler acted as Chairman, and some very entertaining music was furnished Mr. L. Flannigan being vigorously enchored.

SUCCESS UNDER DIFFICULTIES.—The Tribune of a recent date gives a sketch of the life of Rev. Jno. McArthur, Beulah, Manitoba, well known in Saugeen and Port Elgin, and in our own South Grey, some of his relations living here. Believing he had a call to the ministry he left farming somewhat late and began the career of a student in Walkerton H. School, and after improving himself there went to the North West to engage in missionary work. Entering the Presbyterian College, Winnipeg, by "through" and duly ordained, and placed in charge of an important parish 70 miles from Brandon and is in receipt of a salary of $800 a year. His case is an example of what can be done without early advantages, and should be an incentive to others more highly favored.

SCOTTISH DEMONSTRATION.—The celebration under the auspices of the Sons of Scotland in Mt. Forest on Wednesday of last week was a great success from a pleasure-lover's point of view. A number of the brethren and others from Durham and neighborhood went down. All speak highly of the piper's band. The dancing was superb, but far too much of it. Seven events and numerous entries in each must have furnished plenty of the light fantastic. We cannot give the prize list but may mention that the longest standing jump was by one Scott 10 feet 4½ inches. Running Jump Watson, 20 feet 3 inches. High jump, Scott 4 feet 10½ inches. Running Hop Step and Jump, Watson 45 feet 8 inches. Vaulting, Moore 9 feet 10 inches. Putting stone (14 lb) Curry 48 feet 2 inches. Heavy Stone (21 lb) Curry 30 feet. Throwing heavy hammer, 16 lbs. Parry 104 feet 10 inches. Light hammer, 12 lbs. Parry, 126 feet 8 inches. 100 yards race, M. O'Neil, 11 seconds. 300 yards race, J. O'Neil, 36 seconds. Pitch and Kick, J. O'Neil 9 feet. The bicycle race was won by A. Profeit, of Arthur township. The tug of war went against the 10 Scotchmen.

BOOMING THE TOWN.—An Exchange of a recent date had an article which is going the rounds and is worth reading by all classes in every town. This town of ours has grown to what it is without booms, but not without enterprise, good words and good works. We can all say the good words, and if the works are forthcoming as well, there is vitality enough in Durham and neighborhood together with its natural advantages to make it and keep it a prosperous town:

"Men who are all the time trying to get out of town will never build up the town or their own business. One of these two things must be done—run the town for all it is worth, get up steam and keep up, or quit the whole thing, slide out and let nature take its course. Do you want trade? Bid for it. Do you want a prosperous town where people can come who are disposed to make homes? Then do away with personal feeling, bury from sight all spite work; work no more for a few individuals, but all work together for a mutual benefit. Wake up, rub your eyes, roll up your sleeves and go to work. Don't work with fear and trembling, but take it for granted that blood will tell. Leave results with themselves; borrow no trouble, but all unite to make the biggest kind of a town."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Miss Esther McCoskery left Tuesday morning for Toronto.

Miss Kate McDougall is visiting friends in Williamsford at present.

The Model School is in full blast this week, with 27 pupils in attendance and two more expected.

RE-OPENING.—We hear the drug store in Calder's block is to be opened in a few weeks with Mr. Jas. Gun in charge.

The Stock of drugs, etc., belonging to the Pharmacy Estate has been bought by Mr. R. McFarlane, jr., from Mr. Thos. Brown at a slight advance on previous purchase.

Miss Lizzie Lauder, of Kamloops, B. C., who has completed her course of study at the Hamilton Ladies' College, is rusticating for a few days at Dr. Gun's. Her brother Mr. Arthur Lauder has also received his diploma.

YOU ARE INTERESTED.— If not already a subscriber send us your name and address and value for 25 cents and we will be happy to send the Review on a trial trip to the end of the year, or for $1.50 we will send Review and Weekly Globe to Jan. 1st. 1897. Send now.

ROOTS.—The weather of late has been most favorable for all root crops, and where turnips grew at all they are very good. Certainly the best field of turnips we have seen this year is that of Mr. Arch. Hunter, who has 4 acres without a blank and all good.

We believe it is the intention of Mr. Wm. Ledingham, now of Portage La Prairie, and formerly of this place, to open up a drug store at some point in the west. We predict and wish Mr. Ledingham success.

Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life-long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former, certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength, and happiness.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last week an accident of a fatal nature happened to Mr. Robt. Taylor, Town line Bentinck and Sullivan. He was going over a fence gun in hand, and in some way his dog jumped against the gun, causing it to go off the content going through his lungs. He died the following day.

The preparations for ridFay next are completed. The eloquent Indian Dr. Oronhyateka has telegraphed that he will be on hand. The games are all provided for, six brass bands are coming, and a splendid concert in the evening will make a famous day. Excursion trains are being run on all lines, and the special train will reach Durham about 9.30. The Dr. will speak at the Town Hall in the forenoon.

The Sports for the afternoon are all arranged. Crack teams are engaged.

From the first of October postage rates by parcel post between Canada and the United Kingdom will be reduced to sixteen cents for the first pound and twelve cents for each additional pound. A parcel post will be established between Canada and New South Wales. The rate will be twenty cents for first pound and sixteen for each subsequent pound.

The mail will leave Vancouver the sixteenth of each month.

Oronhyatekha comes to Durham, tomorrow, Friday, almost direct from London.

NORMANBY.— The late election was really a "battle of the villages" of Ayton and Neustadt for their respective candidates. The result of the polls was as follows, taken from the Ayton Advance:

	Widmeyer.	Schenk.
1—Alsfeldt	29	31
2—Ayton	34	139
3—Neustadt	110	12
4—Hampden	23	55

6—Ryan's	19	1

OWEN SOUND EXHIBITION.—We notice by the large bills now being posted up that in addition to the attractions mentioned in our last issue the Directors have made arrangements for a genuine Indian War Dance including the Serpent Dance. This will be an interesting feature and will no doubt attract a crowd. Among the bands that will furnish music, we notice the Dundalk Silver Band, The Citizens Orn. of Owen Sound and the Indian Band of Cape Croker. We are informed by the Secretary that the entries in all branches of the Show are already very numerous, much more so than at the same time last year and all appearances point out that the Owen Sound Fair this Fall will be even greater than the one upon which the Directors had so much to congratulate themselves last year.

MARRIAGES.

CAIN—BALL—On Monday Sept. 2nd. 1895 at the Allan Park Methodist Church, by the Rev. E. L. Flagg. Mr John Cain of Listowel, Ont. to Sarah A. Ball, daughter of William Ball Esq. of Normandy.

THE LATE DUGALD McINNIS.

The late Mr. McInnis, of Bunessan, whose death on the 29th of August was chronicled in the REVIEW of last week, had attained to an age seldom reached by humanity; the ripe old age of ninety four years. He was born in the island of Iona, Scotland, in the first or second year of the century. Son of a farmer on that island his early years were spent in rural pursuits, and in securing an education at the parish school. At the age of 18 years he engaged in teaching in one of the parishes in the northern part of Scotland. Staying there for a time he then returned to his native island and was engaged as teacher in the school in which he spent his earlier years.

At the period known in Scotland as the time of the disruption, Mr. McInnis decided to "come out" from the Established Church and cast in his lot with the newly established Free Church, although to him, as to many others, it cost him his position and his means of livelihood. A sacrifice of worldly wealth and preferment for the sake of conscience and righteous principles which no true Scotchman would for a moment hesitate to make. He then went to the island of Tyree engaging in his profession there until he came to Canada in 1847. He was married in 1838 to Mary Campbell of Tyree, who has been a faithful and devoted helpmate to him during their long and happy married life.

Arriving in Canada Mr. McInnis lived in the township of King and Caledon for six years, then moved into Glenelg, which has been his home till the time of his death. He taught school fourteen years in Canada a good part of the time in Glenelg where there are a number of his pupils still living, and who revere his memory.

Mr. McInnis was a man of a quiet and unassuming disposition, always ready to perceive his own failings and always ready to forgive and forget the failings of others. He was a man too of a superior education. Besides being well advanced in all branches of education he was well up as a Latin Scholar. The writer has many a time seen him read a chapter in Gaelic from an English Bible which is perhaps a difficult thing to do, even by scholars of very much higher pretensions then Mr. McInnis.

In early years he came to a practical knowledge of the Gospel under the preaching of the renowned Leich Richmond who had been visiting and preaching in Iona, and his life and character all through his long career were perfectly consistent with the early professions he then made.

Born and brought up under the sacred shrine of St. Columba, its hallowed influence seemed to follow him all through life, and as far as possible he followed in the steps of the worthy Scottish Saint What a long life! What great changes have taken place in the world since the beginning of the century, fifteen years before the battle of Waterloo! The Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, were to Mr. McInnis incidents of recent date.

He saw the introduction of the Railway, the Steamboat, the electric telegraph and all other uses of electricity, the wonderful advance of agriculture, of arts, of science and of civilization over the whole world. In fact he has seen greater advance in all these things than had taken place for centuries before, and to us of a much younger generation men who have attained to the great age of the late Mr. McInnis should be held in very great respect and veneration if not mingled with awe COM.

About a week ago Mrs. Dugald McInnis, of Bunessan, fell upon the stair and severely injured her leg, besides being much shaken up generally. We are glad to hear she is on a fair way to recovery.

Mr. Donald McKinnon, Sr. who has been visiting his son, John McKinnon, on the Manitoulin Island, has returned home preparing to spend the remainder of his life on the old farm in Glenelg.

IN MEMORIAM—JNO. McKINNON.

From the Weekly Budget, Apollonia, Wis., we extract the following touching reference to the late Jno. McKinnon whose death we recorded two weeks ago. He had evidently filled a very large niche in the hearts of the community as the paper bears 5 or 6 references to him. The many friends of the deceased and his family in the township of Bentinck will read the following with a mournful interest:

"John McKinnon was born in the County of Grey, Ontario, in 1864, where he resided until 1884 or 1885, when he came to this country and has resided here since. He leaves a mother, three brothers and a sister in Ontario, and one brother that lives at Duluth, to mourn his death.

During his sickness he was taken care of by his brother Odd Fellows and friends, and everything was done for him that loving hands and hearts could do. He was sick but a short time and many thought he was on a fair way to recovery, when death came and took him from us. It was a sad blow to the community.

Mr. McKinnon was an Odd Fellow and Rebecca, being a charter member of both societies here, and well loved by his brothers and sisters. He was a man with exceptionally good habits, a loving heart and helping hand, and to know him was to love him—a man with all friends and no enemies.

He was buried under auspices of the Odd Fellows on Tuesday afternoon from the Bruce church; where in spite of the rain, a large concourse followed the remains from the Hall here and many more joined them there. There were beautiful floral emblems and the church, grave and casket were decorated with the choicest flowers and evergreens and nothing was spared to make this last sad rite impressive.

D. McKinnon, of Duluth, Mrs. McClarin and Dr. McCormick of Cartwright, were the relatives present from abroad at the funeral.

We give also the resolution passed by his Lodge:—

RESOLVED: That this Lodge is deeply sensitive of the fact that, in the death of Brother John McKinnon, this Lodge has lost one of its most earnest workers and active members, and that as a testimonial of our regret at the loss of so sterling a brother and friend, this preamble be spread upon the journal of this Lodge and a copy thereof be sent to his mother, also that it be published in The Weekly Budget of Apollonia, Wis.

Committee. { E. W. HILL, JOHN BATES, ED. J. HAYDEN.

A LONG LIFE.—In our obituary columns will be found a notice of the death of Mrs Jno. Aitchison. The deceased was a native of Haddingtonshire Scotland and in company with her husband, who died eight years ago, came to Canada in 1851, settling in Brant Co. After eight years there they moved into Sullivan and carved out a home for themselves in the pioneer fashion of those days. Their six children, 3 sons and three daughters all survive them, one of her sons is well known in Durham and neighborhood, Mr. Jas. Aitchison, of Aberdeen, while another son is still in Brant Co. The deceased's mother was one of 11 girls all with large families, but they and their descendants are all gone, Mrs. Aitchison being the last of her generation.

"The race of yore that danced our infancy upon their knee
How are they blotted from the things that be."

DORNOCH—INDIA.

From Dornoch to India is a far cry, yet on Tuesday of last week the two names were prominently associated. Not, let us hasten to say with any reference to famine, but from the fact that Dornoch, at least Presbyterian Dornoch, was all on the qui-vive over farewell services to one of her worthy sons, Rev. A. P. Ledingham.

He left last week for "India's Coral Strand,," in company with his young bride, who gives up her western home to share with Mr. Ledingham the responsibilities and duties of a Missionary life A large company gathered in the church regretting the absence of Missionary Smith of China, but soon to be intensely gratified on finding by telephone that Dr. Smith had arrived in Durham and would be there.

Rev. Mr. Thomson, of Chatsworth, addressed the Congregation very appropriately and acceptably. Rev. Mr. Little, we may almost say of course, also addressing earnest words of advice and farewell in his warm Christian manner. He was delighted as the meeting was half over to welcome Dr. Smith, who of course needed no introduction in his boyhood's home, and on such an occasion. He delineated, as only one who has trodden the missionary path could do, the difficulties, the disheartenings and the trials that fall to the lot of the pioneer missionary, from his ignorance of the language, the indifference of the natives, the apparently slow progress made, and many other points scarcely thought of till experienced, and showed how strong faith, and implicit reliance on God's grace was necessary to make one "sufficient for these things. We are sure Rev. Mr. Ledingham will long remember the earnest words of his more experienced fellow missionary. Mr. Ledingham's address followed. He claimed that though being sent out and supported by the Presbytery of Glengarry, he was still in the truest sense a representative of Dornoch Presbyterianism, and was not likely to forget the many warm friends of his early home, when under other skies.

After the benediction by Dr. Smith the large company adjourned to the Manse to enjoy a few social hours with Rev. Mr. Ledingham and his lovely and accomplished bride and partake of the abounding hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Little.

Our reporter, was not quite sure how many Mr. Little's were there, but there seemed to be five or six anyway. The large company spent several happy hours, chatting, swinging croquetting, singing, by torch-light or lamp-light, in doors and out of doors, till "elder's houre's" made them think of home.

A large number were present from the sister station at the Rocky, and utilized the opportunity to make the presentation recorded below. Mrs. Little was much surprized but replied briefly and neatly. Mr. Little at more length thanking the donors very warmly for their kindly thoughtfulness to his wife whose worth to him was invaluable. At this Mr. Putherbough very happily informed Mr. Little that he must consider the chair a gift to him also as "his jewel case." The articles were a handsome parlor rocker, a beautiful silver fruitdish and salt cellars.

Mr. S. Putherbough introduced the presentation business very neatly, while Miss C. Putherbough read the address.

The church is fast acquiring a record as a missionary recruiting ground, having in addition to Dr. Smith and Mr. Ledingham sent out Mr. A. Skene to the North West Mission field, and Mr. Little in his address hoped that many more would yet go forth bearing the gospel message.

The Ledingham—Smith family combinations were there in goodly numbers of course, and took a large share in promoting the evening's pleasure.

DEAR MRS. LITTLE,

We, the members of the Rocky Saugeen Bible Class and C. E. Society deem this a fitting opportunity to express, though in a faint manner, our appreciation of you and the esteem in which you are held by us since you have come among us.

During the period of your connection with our congregation, you have, by your consistent and earnest Christian life, and by your devotedness to the cause of the Master, ably seconded the efforts of your husband, our esteemed pastor, in working in this part of God's Vineyard. In your sphere of duty as Pastor's wife, there are many calls upon your time and labor, of which only those who occupy your position can know. In you, we believe, our worthy pastor has found a true help-mate, one who like Aaron and Hur of old will help to hold up holy hands. In the comparatively short time in which you have yet been with us you have, like our esteemed pastor, secured a sure place in our affection and regard; nor is this feeling confined to members of the Bible Class and C. E. Society, but is general throughout all classes in our Congregation. The cause of Christ has made great advancement here, since your coming among us and we believe the progress already made is but an earnest of what is yet to follow. As a slight expression of our goodwill we therefore, beg of you to accept these tokens which we know will be prized by you not for their real value, but for the spirit and motive prompting the givers.

In conclusion we trust that you may long be spared to be a blessing to your husband and family and to carry on your labor of love for the cause of the Master in our midst.

Signed on behalf of Members of Bible Class and C. E. Society.

MAPLE GROVE.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A gloom was cast over Stone's Line, also the Grove, when the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Hazard one of our most respected farmers, was passed from mouth to mouth. It seems Mr. Hazard who was literary inclined, was in the habit each day of going up into a hay loft, which was some 10 ft. high, to read. He went as usual Saturday last, and as far as can be ascertained lay down too near the entrance and fell asleep, it is thought that he fell through while partly asleep however he received such injuries that he died early Monday morning. He has been Tax Collector for a number of years and had again received appointment for this year. He was a successful farmer and widely and favorably known, he leaves a wife and family of three sons and three daughters to mourn his untimely end. The funeral which was a large one took place Tuesday to the Flesherton Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Hartley, of Priceville, conducting the services at home and grave. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

Prof. Conkey has given several exhibitions in Hypnotism, Mesmerism, Mind Reading, etc. in our midst, which go to show that he is indeed Master of Arts. The mind reading is also wonderful. He guarantees to teach it to any wishing to learn in one week or money refunded. Consultation free. Write him.

Mrs. Loomis, of Cleveland, is visiting the home of her father Mr. Allan McLean.

Mr. Duncan Sinclair has reshingled his large barn which adds much to its appearance.

PROF. CHAMBERLAIN,

"Eye Specialist,"

Will be at his own suite of Optical Parlors, to test Eyesight, 87 King St. E., Toronto, Ont.,

Sept. 2nd to 14th

DURING TORONTO EXHIBITION.

He is now Giving away a large and Valuable Book on the Eye, called "How to Preserve the Eyesight." ALL FREE.

Its a sight for sore eyes to see the turnip and carrot patch of Mr. Donald Kennedy, sr. They are really beautiful and very luxurant.

Our noted trio has taken a change of late, and have taken a liking for music. The whale is now taking lessons on the fiddle while the Mink "sings for ma," but the Goat is quite satisfied with the Binder's music when cutting for Jno. McL.

Mr. Jno. Warling of the Station paid Grove friends a visit last week.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Mike Henry intends leaving us shortly for Grand Rapids, Michigan. Mr. Henry will be much missed as he has often been the principal "comic" at most of our young peoples gatherings. Of course there may be one or two who have no great love for him, but they are those who like to see "fun" at others' expense, when their turn comes they take it like children and get "huffed."

Mr. Archie Stewart, of the Station, spent a few days assisting at the harvest with his brother.

NORMANBY NUGGETS.

Not having noticed Blossom's interesting budget for a few weeks perhaps I may be allowed to give a few notes.

Harvest is nearly over. Binders, good workers and good weather make quick work. Grain crops on a whole are not above the average.

This can not be said of a field of oats to be seen on Mr. Jas. Marshall's 'fifty' It is an extraordinary crop and proves the value of underdraining. His work and labor is twice repaid. Ist in satisfaction at seeing a rough field made productive. 2nd, in cash returns we hope.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall are looking forward with pleasure to occupying their new house soon. It has every modern convenience, a windmill furnishing the water supply as one of its useful applications.

Mrs. And. Marshall has bought the Whalen property in Durham and will move in about a month. She will be missed in the settlement.

Miss Mary Watson leaves shortly for Rochester. More than her home will miss her winning presence.

The choir on several occasions lately has had the able assistance of Mr. Wood of London. As a bass singer he has an extraordinary compass and power. He is visiting at Mr. Cornish's.

Mr. Wm. Marshall, Sr. has just completed a silo, 16x18 and 26 feet deep. Not many farmers can show a herd of 30 milking cows. Here they are. In fact this may be called the Marshall milk settlement. James and John Marshall each having 25 or more cows. And all face the winter without fear, each having a silo and from 10 to 15 acres of corn each to fill them.

Mr. And. McIlvride left ten days ago for an extended visit to his son Alex. in Brandon.

Mr. Wm. Marshall, Jr. has bought a property in Arthur and in a few weeks will move his family there. He intends to employ himself in Mason work.

Dep. Reeve Morice is out with his thresher once more. Jack Boakes still keeps the steam up and the men hustling.

Not the least improvement going on is the clearing of Mr. Jas. Watson's front field of boulders. He and his son, Robert, yes, occasionally his father Robert too, three generations, may be seen, blasting and removing rocks.

Anyone interested in hedge fencing should examine the vigorous young honey locust hedge flanking Mr. Watson's lane. It will be a thing of beauty by and bye, as well as useful.

The honored name of Wallace is now borne by a 3rd son to Mrs. and Mrs. Thos. Wallace. Congratulations.

Mr. Inkster, the young student, is being much appreciated.

On Tuesday, Sept. 10th, at 1 p. m., the Officers and Directors of the Dominion Sheep Breeders' Association will convene to consider the Report of the Committee appointed at the last meeting of the Association to consolidate the by-laws and re-vise the constitution of each Association. At 2.30 p. m., the members of this association, will convene to consider Reports of the Officers and Directors on said constitution and by-laws; and to re-consider their action at the last meeting in appointing delegates to meet the Honorable Minister of Agriculture to consider the Record question. The Minister informs me, that but two delegates are required for each Association. At our last meeting we elected seven, therefore, a new election must be held.

SWINE BREEDERS CONVENE.—On Tuesday, Sept. 10th, at 7 p. m., the Officers and Directors of the Dominion Swine Breeders' Association will convene to consider a similar report; and at 8 a. m., the members of this Association will convene to re-elect a Record Committee to meet the Minister as in the case of the Dominion Sheep Breeders' Association; and to consider the report of the Officers and Directors regarding the revision of the constitution and by-laws.

CATTLE BREEDERS CONVENE.—Wednesday, Sept. 11th, at 7 p. m. the members of the Dominion Cattle Breeders' Association will convene to consider the report of the Committee appointed to draft a new constitution and by-laws.

All interested parties are invited to attend these meetings, whether members of an Association or not.

BROWNSVILLE.

Everybody around here is busy with the harvest. Recent rains have improved everything. Straw is long and grain round and plump. No scarcity of feed here.

Mr. Sandy McLean is recovering nicely from a severe attack of malarial fever. Dr. Mitchell, of Dundalk, attended him.

Miss Edna Kennel is under Dr. Bird's care at present. We hope to soon see her around as usual.

Miss A. McFadden is home for the summer months. She is going back after harvest.

Miss S. McDonald paid her parents a flying visit last week from the Queen City. A. saw her started Monday early.

Mrs. A. Clark was visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. J. McMillan, last week.

Miss Flora Stewart, of Bentinck, is visiting at her uncle, Mr. N. Cameron.

Mr. A. Haw sent to the Central Prison for a load of binder twine for the good Grits around here. Sir Oliver has friends in Brownsville.

Mr. A. McDougall built a fine implement house. Every farmer should have one.

Mr. Malcolm McFadden framed and raised a fine stable that is a credit to the boy.

Mr. D. McCannel engaged Mr. P. Moody for the Harvest.

An interesting meeting of the Directors took place at the Boothville Factory on Saturday for the purpose of settling disputes between the patrons and secretary, as there was a number of the patrons complaining about the average being so high. The trouble is that the Secretary put on the envelopes 11,986 in the place of 11,098. However, the Directors feel satisfied that the patrons will be pleased to know that Messrs. J. Hastie and Wm. Ramage are to audit the work of the two last sales as Mr. Ramage was Secretary for the 3 last years and gave good satisfaction.

Did Herman get the fly nets yet?

A SABBATH EVE IN SUMMER TIME.

Is there a time when moments flow,
More lovelier than all beside?
It is of all the times below,
A Sabbath eve in summer tide.

Oh! then the setting sun smiles fair;
And all below, and all above,
The different forms of nature wears
One universal garb of love.

And then the peace that Jesus beams:
The life of grace, the death of sin,
With nature's placid woods and streams,
Is peace without, and peace within.

Delightful scene: a world at rest:
A God all love, no grief, no fear;
A heavenly hope, a peaceful breast,
A smile unsullied by a tear.

If heaven be ever felt below,
A scene so heavenly sure as this;
May cause a heart to know,
Some taste of celestial bliss.

Delightful hour! how soon will night
Spread her dark mantle o'er thy reign,
And morrow's quick returning light
Must bring us to the world again?

Yet there shall dawn another day:
A sun that never set shall rise,
Night will not veil her ceaseless ray:
The Heavenly Sabbath never dies.

The township council of Normanby at its last meeting ordered a copy of the following resolution to be sent to Mrs. Blyth, the widow of their late respected reeve:

"That we, the treasurer, clerk and council at our first meeting after the unexpected death of our lamented and respected reeve hereby sincerely tender to his bereaved widow and family our heartfelt sympathy in this sore affliction. We pray that the Great Ruler of the Universe, who is a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless, may pour the oil of his consolation into their wounded spirits and guide and protect them in the future. We desire to express our high appreciation of the labors of our leader in the management of our township affairs, he being a man of sound judgment and painstaking in the discharge of his duties. His cheerful and obliging disposition endeared him to all who came in contact with him. He will be long remembered."

The man that runs the local end of a country newspaper learns in due season that he must not expect even briefly expressed thanks for any of the pleasant things he may say about people, but he knows to a moral certainty that the slightest error will call down maledictions upon his head. He may give a complimentary notice in his paper hundreds of times and never hear of it, but let him just hint at some of the short comings of that same man and he will make a life-long enemy. The newspaper man learns not to expect thanks for the pleasant things he says about people, and he isn't disappointed.—Ex.
