TO DRESS MAKERS.—The Rooms, so long occupied by Miss Neil and others, over McArthur's store, in the dressmaking business, are now open to let at moderate rents. These are desirable rooms, and for years, as well as now, the best situated in town. Apply immediately to C. MCARTHUR. 47

The notice last week in regard to the Entertainment at Edge Hill S. School on Friday evening, was, we understand misleading in the name of the school. Though Miss Edge had the honor of conducting it in its early days, it is now run by united effort under the devoted superintendency of Mr. R. Meredith, of this town.

WIND, RAIN, SNOW AND TEMPEST.—These in a mixed up way have been our experience for a few days back. The great blow of Tuesday was the end of a storm which prevailed over the Northern Hemisphere doing great damage in Europe. In our own locality fences are down, and a few liberties taken with exposed places. Mr. Jas. Allan, Egremont, we hear had a shed unroofed.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning last Mr Lock, Elvidge had the misfortune to meet with an accident while loading hay at the station. While pulling a bundle the wire gave way, and he fell backward striking his head on some iron making a serious gash with a fracture of the outer table of the skull. Dr. Arthur Gun dressed the wounds and the patient at last reports is doing well.

The Dornoch correspondent of the Chatsworth News accuses Durham Merchants in rather intemperate language of a desire to keep "Grey's Yeomen beneath the dust" in the purchase of fodder. They form rings, he alleges and allow each other a share in exorbitant profits by taking turns in keeping asupply. This would be hard to prove. We know three vendors in town, and if they sometimes are found unsupplied it is because of the unfortunate demand which is greater than the supply.

MRS. THOS. BYERS.—This estimable lady died on Saturday last at the home of her father, Mr. Wm. Johnston, Sr., Normanby. Deceased past six years was afflicted with a painful dropsical complaint and other complications, yet in the midst of it all her Christian fortitude, her patience and her sunny disposition were a joy and a lesson to her friends and acquaintances. Her husband died seventeen years ago and an only daughter, who never knew her father's care has grown up to young womanhood the wiser and the better for the care and counsel of her mother. We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives. Rev. Mr. McVicar conducted the funeral services.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY TALKED UP.

Cheap Travelling.—One Cent a Mile.

On Monday last, Dr. Rolston, of Shelburne an intelligent, pleasant spoken gentleman, came to town in the interests of the promoters of the proposed Electric Road from Port Perry to Kincardine, and the scheme, does not suffer by his advocacy.

The railway is yet in the embryo stages. It must receive a certain amount of encouragement partly on faith, from the country traversed, (though not in the way of bonuses,) It has yet to be presented to Parliament, a charter obtained, and a company secured to operate it. The encouragement needed at present is subscriptions say from $10 to not more than $50 and amounting in all to $500, from each town crossed, these subscriptions to be half paid before Jan. 1st, the other half when Charter is granted. Moreover $20, stock will be alloted for every dollar subscribed, as an encouragement to early investors. If a charter is not granted then the subscribers will suffer a loss.

The great promoter of the road is Mr. E. A. C. Pew, a one time millionaire, an expert with big schemes generally, and electric railroads in particular, and a man in whom Dr. Rolston has implicit faith. The engineer is a son of the celebrated Brunel who built the Thames tunnel, and from a cursory survey, this engineer thinks the road highly practicable.

The preliminary expense consists of preparing maps, printing, deputations, and lobbying through Parliament.

The road follows the highways, goes up and down hills hence no deep cuttings to fill in with snow, and anyway an "Arctic Sweeper", an effective article, is used. Snow ploughs will be run at night, when necessary, freight of any kind will be taken and passengers carried for one cent a mile!

Messrs Parker and Campbell asked what guarantee early subscribers would have, and the only guarantee is the certain success of the road owing to the obvious nesessity for it. So obvious that the Standard Oil Company and other financial concerns are making advances to secure possession when the "promoters" are through.

Another question of Mr. Parker's elicited the fact that the G. T. R. is promoting the line, hoping it will put life in a decaying branch from P. Perry to Whitby.

Mr. G. McKechnie is the Railway King of the riding, and in a most able speech on the spur of the moment threw much light on the whole question. He showed the difference between the Dominion and the Provincial Acts, the former allowing such roads to carry both freight and passengers, while the local act excludes freight. He also showed conclusively the great advantage of the northern branch starting from Durham or near it. 1. It would parallel no near existing line, hence would not be likely to meet with opposition. 2. Power could easily be obtained at the confluence of the two Saugeens. 2. A large passenger traffic of jurymen, county councillors, litigants, &c., could be drawn from both sides on their way to the County town.

Dr. Rolston seemed impressed with the arguments and intends at an early date to introduce Mr. Pew to the town to still further advance the movement.

Meanwhile an effort is to be made to secure subscribers, a local treasurer is to be appointed, and every wellwisher of the town will desire the road to go on, and we trust our chief business men will find in the scheme a warranty for advancing $500 to pay the expenses of promoting. Shelburne has done it easily.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to Dr. Rolston for the able manner he had dealt with his subject and his affable and courteous demeanor.

The mayor acted as chairman and Mr. C. L. Grant as Secretary.

Since the foregoing was in type, the town has got down to business and over $400, has been subscribed and with others to call upon, so that the required initiatory aid from Durham will be forthcoming. This is as it should be, and we trust the confidence shown by this and other places will be backed up by persistent and successful effort on the part of the promoters.

GLENELG COUNCIL MEETING.

The Council met Nov. 11th pursuant to adjournment. All the members present. The Reeve in the chair. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed.

The Council adjourned to December 16th at 10 A. M.

J. S. BLACK,
Clerk.

ORCHARDVILLE.

Mr. Editor.—As I have not seen any news from this ambitious hamlet for a long while, I venture a few items.

Miss Patterson has been re-engaged as teacher with an increase of salary.

Miss Eva Walls has been very sick for the past two weeks, but under the care of Dr. Brown, of Holstein, is, we hope, on the way to recovery.

Mr. J. Douglas has moved into his new house.

A most disgraceful affair is reported to have taken place on the farm of Mr. Geo. Peters, where two neighbors met by agreement on Friday last to settle an old grudge by resort to pugilism. The affair is said to have been witnessed by several spectators, some say about fifty. We understand the matter is to receive a legal airing, which we trust will put a stop to such disreputable occurrences, in this neighborhood at least.

(Received late: remainder next week.)

A FAMOUS REFORMER.

REV. C. J. FREEMAN SPEAKS OF HIS LIFE AND WORK.

He Has Written and Preached on Both Sides of the Atlantic—Recently the Victim of a Peculiar Affliction from which He Was Released in a Marvellous Manner.

From the Boston Herald.

No. 157 Emerson St. South Boston, is the present home of Rev. C. J. Freeman, B. A., Ph. D., the recent rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church at Anaconda, Mont. During the reform movement which swept over Boston, Dr. Freeman has been frequently heard from though a resident of a comparatively recent date, he has exerted much public influence, which has been increased by the fact that he was ten years ago on a commission appointed in England to investigate the troublesome question of the vice of great cities.

He has preached before cultured audiences in the old world, as well as to the rough pioneers in the mining towns of the Rocky mountains, and his utterances as well as his writings have been in the line of progress and liberality well-seasoned with pratical common sense. Dr. Freeman has written this paper a letter which will be read with interest. He says:—

"Some five years since I found that deep study and excessive literary work, in addition to my ordinary ministerial duties, were undermining my health. I detected that I was unable to understand things as clearly as I usually did: that easier but little thought and study I suffered from a dull pain in the head and great weariness, and all thought and study became a trouble to me. I lost appetite, did not relish ordinary food, after eating, suffering acute pains in the chest and back. There was soreness of the stomach, and the most of my food seemed to turn to sour water, with most sickly and suffocating feeling in vomiting up such sour water.

REV. C. J. FREEMAN, B. A., PH. D.

At this time I consulted several physicians. One said I was run down, another said I had chronic indigestion; but this I do know, that with all the prescriptions which they gave me I was not improving; for in addition, I had pains in the regions of the kidneys, a very sluggish liver, so much so that I was very much like a yellow man, was depressed in spirits, imagined all sorts of things and was daily becoming worse and felt that I should soon become a confirmed invalid if I did not soon understand my complaints. I followed the advice of physicians most severely, but with all I was completely unable to do my ministerial duty, and all I could possibly do was to rest and try to be thankful. After eighteen months' treatment I found I was the victim of severe palpitation of the heart, and was almost afraid to walk across my room. Amid all this I was advised to take absolute rest from all mental work. In fact, I was already unable to take any duty for the reason that the feeling of complete prostration after the least exertion precluded me from any duty whatever, and it appeared to my mind that I was very near being a perfect wreck. As for taking absolute rest, I could not take more than I did unless it was so absolute as to rest in the grave. Then it would have been absolute enough.

"It is now quite three years since, in addition to all the pains and penalties which I endured, I found creeping upon me a peculiar numbness of the left limbs, and in fact could not walk about. If I tried to walk I had to drag the left foot along the ground. The power of locomotion seemed to be gone, and I was consoled with the information that it was partial paralysis. Whether it was or not I do not know, but this I do know, I could not walk about and I began to think my second childhood had commenced at the age of 44 years.

"Just about two years ago or a little more, a ministerial friend came to see me. I was sick in bed and could hardly move, and he was something like old Job's comforter, although not quite. He had much regret and commiseration which was a very poor balm for a sick man. But the best thing he did say was this: "Did you ever see Pink Pills?" I said, "Who in the world is here?" He said, "Why do you not try Pink Pills?" He said good bye very affectionately, so much so that doubtless he thought it was the last farewell. Nevertheless, after thinking a little, I just came to the conclusion that I would make an innovation and see what Pink Pills would do. I looked at them, and I said can any good possibly come out of those little pink things? Anyway, I would see. I was suspicious of Pink Pills, and I remembered the old proverb: "Sospetto licentia febe," "suspicion is the passport to faith." So Pink Pills I obtained, and Pink Pills I swallowed. But one box of them did not cure me, nor did I feel any difference. But after I had taken nine or ten boxes of pills I was decidedly better. Yes, I was certainly improving, and after eight months of Pink Pills I could get about. The numbness of the left limb was nearly gone, the pains in the head had entirely ceased, the appetite was better, I could enjoy food and I had a free, quiet action of the heart without palpitation. In fact, in twelve months I was a new creature, and to-day I can stand and speak over two hours without a rest. I can perform all my public duties which devolve upon me, without fatigue, and do all the walking which I have to do, and am thankful for it. I can safely say I was never in a better state of health than I am to-day, and that I attribute it to the patient persevering use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I fully, cordially and strong commend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all or any who suffer in a similar way, and feel sure that any one who adopts Pink Pills with perseverance and patience cannot find their expectations unrealized or their reasonable hopes blasted. But he will find that blessing which is the reward of a full trust in a true and reliable remedy. I shall always wish and desire the greatest success for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and always cherish a deep feeling of gratitude to the friend who first said to me buy Pink Pills. I have tried them and know their true value, and am truly glad I did, for I have found in them from a good experience to do more than is actually claimed for them."

Very faithfully yours,
C. J. FREEMAN, B. A., Ph. D.
Late rector of St. Mark's, Montana.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give a new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervousness, headache, the after effect of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male and female. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, (50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50—they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y.

PROF. CHAMBERLAIN.

DEAR SIR,

I am glad to say the glasses you fitted for me in September 1895 have proved satisfactory, and would recommend any one to you. Hoping a word may be of use.

Yours truly,
MRS. SARAH HERD.

Prof. Chamberlain, "Eye Specialist" of 87 King St. East, Toronto, Ont., will be at MacFarlanes' Drugstore, Durham, Ont., soon. Watch for date.

A cup of muddy coffee is not wholesome, neither is a bottle of muddy medicine. One way to know a reliable and skillfully-prepared blood-purifier is by its freedom from sediments. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is always bright and sparkling, because it is an extract and not a decoction.

BIRTHS.

Tired but Sleepless

Is a condition which gradually wears away the strength. Let the blood be purified and enriched by Hood's Sarsaparilla and this condition will cease.

"For two or three years I was subject to poor spells. I always felt tired, could not sleep at night and the little I could eat did not do me any good. I read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to try it. Before I had finished two bottles I began to feel better and in a short time I felt all right and had gained 21 pounds in weight. I am stronger and healthier than I have ever been in my life." JOHN W. COUGHLIN, Wallaceburg, Ontario.

CORRECTION.

In the Grey Review some six weeks ago there appeared an article which was not published as given by me. So an explanation of the matter is in place. Mr. Tucker came to my Cheese Factory, telling me he had been accused in the Church of having been guilty before this of tampering with his milk and as such was not the case I felt he ought to be freed from such blame and I gave him the following, viz:—I hereby state that such reports in regards to Mr. Tucker watering his milk is altogether a false one, as I have always found his milk free of water and he was fined for one offence only.

JAMES MARSHALL,
Cheesemaker. Booth ville.

[The foregoing advertisement in turn seems to call for explanation. We wrote the first advertisement—by request—from notes sent to us, and instructions furnished us through a third party, and while putting it in shape for the press was most careful to keep to the spirit of the original notes and instructions.—ED.]

A FIGHT!

Hard Times Versus Low Prices

With the odds very much in favor of the latter and no wonder when we get the prices down as low as we now have them. With the 1st of November we inaugurate

A 60 DAYS' CLEARING SALE

OF OUR STOCK OF HIGH CLASS

Dry Goods, Millinery, Clothing, Boots and Shoes and Groceries

Amounting to about $12,000.00. Now we are not going to tell you a lot of nonsense. We are not going to quote an article at a price and when you come for it be just "Sold Out." The Public know us better than that. They know that when we advertize an article at a price, just so surely will they get it here. A careful inspection of the prices below will convince the closest buyers that we mean business.
