Dear Mother:

Your very welcome and interesting letter reached me yesterday morning, and was highly enjoyed. I preached at Galt this a.m. It was probably my last Sunday there, as my Bridgeport people are rather restive over having all evening services and my first obligation is to them. I made no announcements as to services next Sunday at Galt, but left the matter in the hands of the president of their conference. I will be at Bridgeport to-night and thereafter every Sunday morning. Prof. Sandrock arrived in Kitchener at his home Thursday evening of last week. He began unpacking his household effects Friday, and had Arthur helping him all day Saturday. They will still have another day's work Monday before everything is put to rights. Prof. and Mrs. Sandrock will live in the Neudoerffer house adjoining the seminary. I have no doubt that you enjoyed Billie's visit very much and that it was an equal pleasure to him, the flying trip being an additional agreeable experience. In your letter you said "The Woolwing folks left us etc." Bonnie
