ALTONA

This community of Whitevale was shocked to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Fred J. McKay, at his home there, being a brother of our Wm. McKay. A few days previously he had a heart attack from which, however, he quickly rallied, and appeared to be quite recovering from its effects until Thursday of last week, when, while conversing with his wife, a recurrence of the malady resulted in almost instant death. Mr. McKay was born near Whitevale about 65 years ago and until a oung man had his home near Port Perry. Then for 20 years or more he was a resident of North Dakota, where he was engaged in farming. About 20 years ago and until a young man had his came to Whitevale to reside, and with his family has been a resident of the vale and vicinity ever since. He was a genial, public spirited citizen. He is survived by his widow and three children: Two brothers, Wm., of of this place, and John of Bottineau, N.D. also survive him.
