There is great excitement today (Tuesday) as children start off to school again. Goodwood's new school room is almost ready and contractors hope they can have it ready for next Monday. Builders are so dependent on so many others when a construction job is undertaken that often much time is lost through no one's fault locally. Once again, may we remind motorists and children alike to be careful. We want our children all in schools, not hospitals through careless accidents.

Last Sunday was a special day at the Baptist Church when Rev. Filyer brought along Rev. Ivor Powel who spoke so well on the vision of the Blind Beggar. Lorraine Morrison sang 2 beautiful solos. Next Sunday we expect the Irish Male Quartette. This is only a taste of what Uxbridge Baptist church has each night. Do try to go to Uxbridge during their campaign.
