'After Four' sweetheart

STOUFFVILLE — Sixteen year old Heike Schroeder, Stouffville, R.R.4, has been selected as The Telegram's 'After Four Sweetheart of the Week'.

Heike is a Grade 12 student at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School and the first 'sweetheart' selection for 1970.

Born in Austria, the vivacious brunette came to Canada with her parents at the age of only 4. Her ambition is to become an airline stewardess.

Active in sports, she holds a yellow in judo. She also enjoys drama, swimming, track and field and writing poetry. Last summer, she served as a lifeguard at a Boy Scout Camp. Some guys have all the luck.

Describes life among the Eskimos

By Jean Leaf

BUTTONVILLE — Following a luncheon, presented by the U.C.W. of Brown's Corners United Church, congregation members remained to hear Doug and Jean Denby describe their life among the Eskimos. Doug and Jean spent two years in an area above Hudson's Bay where Mr. Denby served as community teacher and welfare administrator for the Federal Government. Mrs. Denby was an area nurse. Both are connected with Unionville families.

Janet Craig has returned to work after an extended European trip. Janet is a member of the nursing staff at Wellesley Hospital.

Ken and Connie Stephenson have left for Florida.

More weddings in the offing. Bob Wilkins and his fiance plan to be married in May. And Roy Robinson and Debbie Holman became engaged over the holidays.

Friday is euchre series night at Buttonville W.I. Hall. At the first game, Jan. 3, there were twenty-four tables of players.

Signs are posted around the Buttonville Golf and Country Club prohibiting snowmobiling on the course. It harms the greens. Farmers are protesting against snowmobiles on wheat fields where young shoots are injured. And forestry officials claim young seedlings are being destroyed where snowmobiles are used in woodland trails.

At the January meeting of the Buttonville Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary, chairman Mrs. Reg. Allen asked for members willing to donate time and talent as sewers in the hospital work room.

Wayne Stiver is excelling at bowling again this year. Recently at Bramalea, he received high score and won a polaroid camera.
