SDSS win

STOUFFVILLE — The SDSS senior basketball team didn't win the Ninth Annual Referee's Tournament in their official opening over the weekend, but they played an excellent first game.

Friday evening the Stouffville Spartans took on King City, one of the powers of the league, and won 54-45.

In the first half, King City's foul shooting and rebounding carried them to a half-time lead of nine points. However, in the second half, continuing pressure by the SDSS defense and fine shooting by Bruce Rodin and Jeremy Williamson brought the Spartans into the game, and finally the victory.

Rodin led the scoring with 24 points while Williamson added 17. Second half rebounding by Sal Bevan and Barry Doner helped give the Spartans control of the game.

In the semi-final game Saturday, SDSS dropped the contest 41-37 to Woodbridge. Top Stouffville scorer was Rodin with 15.

In the championship game, Bayview defeated Woodbridge.
