DISOBEDIENT DOG?

Phone "Forget-me-not" Kennels for Obedience Training Classes beginning APRIL 19 Highway 7, Locust Hill 297-1363

MY NAME IS LADY

I'm a 1 year old border collie spayed. My folks have to go the city so I need another good home. I'm prepared to love and obey and need room to run - a farm would be good, because I'd like to learn how to bring in the cows and sheep. If interested call 640-3747 evenings. You will have to qualify I'm not going to just anybody!

PER MARE— PER TERRAM
The Royal Marines Association (Ont.) is celebrating its third birthday this year.

One of the highlights will be a dinner at the Holiday Inn, Hwy. 27, on April 24, 1976, to remember two of the Memorial Dates of the Corps "ZEEBRGGE (1918) & WALCHEREN (1944). The big date however, will be a block booking for the CNE, when the Massed Bands of the Royal Marines, some 200 Musicians will head the Grandstand Show, this year. The Association meets regularly on the 2nd Friday of each month aboard H.M.C.S. York, Toronto, and offers a warm welcome to all former "Royals" who may not have been aware an Association does exist for them, and is very strong. Why not call the Chairman, Gavin McMichael at 447-6372, he'll tell you if they have someone with whom you've shared "mess-tins". Come on "bootnecks" let's have you!!

Squash exhibition match in Markham

MARKHAM — The Markham Fitness and Racquet Club will host the last squash exhibition in Canada by Geoff Hunt and Ken Hiscoe on Saturday, April 10, at 2:30 p.m.

Hunt is the number one ranking soft ball player in the world having just won the British Open title. His travelling partner, Hiscoe, is fifth ranked in world professional play. The Australian pair have been in Canada for the past month and have just completed sell out exhibition matches in Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. They will leave for Pakistan after the Markham exhibition for the Pakistan World Tournament next month.

Host pro at the MFRC, Gulmast Khan will also play an exhibition match against Barry Taylor of Toronto. Khan and Taylor will play the American Hard Ball game. Viewers at the match will therefore have a chance to compare both the hard and softball games.

Reserved seats have been allocated for the tournament and one need not be a club member to apply for tickets. Prices are $15 for reserved seats or $10 for standing room. A wine and cheese reception will follow. Further information can be obtained by phoning the Markham Fitness and Racquet.

TOPS Queen Freda Murray of Claremont is the proud loser of 25 pounds.
