Emma joins National Ballet School

After a month-long audition, Emma Smith of Georgetown was accepted into Canada's National Ballet School on a full-time basis in their Professional Ballet Program. More than 1,000 dancers auditioned across Canada and of that, approximately 180, including Emma, were accepted into the summer program. Following the month-long evaluation approximately 50 dancers were accepted into their full-time program. Emma was a dance student of Kelly Paddle and Claudia Lopez-Caicedo at the Center Stage School of the Arts in Georgetown. Above, Emma is congratulated by her National Ballet School teacher, Ilze Titova.

TVCOGECO to launch new season Monday

Building on the success of past seasons, TVCOGECO will launch a new season of community television the week of September 15th.

"The success of our two anchor programs, TVCOGECO News and Your Lifestyle has really boosted the audience watching TVCOGECO in north Halton. Building on this foundation, we've added some exciting new shows to our line-up," says TVCOGECO producer, Sandy French. "Along with our staple coverage of local councils and sports, cable customers can also watch volunteer produced programs such as Seniors Showcase, Haunted Halton, MotorCycleLife and With Good Taste. This is truly local television!"

Also returning this season are live programs SportsZONE Live, Auto Experts and Optimist TV Bingo. Other productions in the works include candidate meetings for the federal election, our annual Christmas special, parades and coverage of regional sports.

"Volunteers are the backbone of community television" says Frank Myers, manager of Programming & Community Relations, "without their talent and dedication, programming of this calibre wouldn't be possible. In return, our volunteers and students gain valuable experience in television. Many have gone on to successful careers in the industry."

The complete TVCOGECO schedule is available at www.tvcogeco.com.
