Late Warren Rae

Remembered for kindness

STOUFFVILLE — Warren Rae never spoke an unkind word against anyone. This memory was uppermost in the minds of more than 200 attending the funeral service, Saturday, in Springvale Baptist Church.

Mr Rae passed away June 27 at Parkview Home, Stouffville, where he'd been a resident almost three years. He was 86.

Born in Uxbridge Twp., the son of Newton and Eunice Rae, he moved with his parents to a farm east of Hwy. 48 in Whitchurch Township, while still quite young. His father served as reeve of the municipality.

Fifty-six years ago, he married Mabel Hall who survives along with three sons, Garnet of Dickson's Hill; Ivan of Gormley; Harry, R.R. 2, Stouffville; one daughter, Jean, (Mrs Glenn Wideman), R.R. 1, Gormley; 17 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

He was predeceased by a daughter Rita and a brother Stewart. A sister Beatrice (Lowe) resides in Toronto.

Mr Rae was a member in the congregation at Bloomington Christian Gospel Church. He also attended at McCormack Memorial Church, Vivian.

He showed great love for his children, his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren.

Rev. Bob Flemming of Springvale Baptist Church conducted the funeral service assisted by Rev. Norman Rowan and Dr. W.S. Whitcombe. Pall-bearers were six grandsons-James Wideman, Calvin Rae, Ryan DeBoer, Eric, Sheldon and Marlin Rae.

Honor 29 graduates

WHITCHURCH — Twenty-nine students of Whitchurch-Highlands Public School received diplomas, Thursday, at an impressive Grade 8 Graduation Ceremony.

Several were singled out for special awards.

Thirteen-year-old Nicole Ireland, R.R. 4, Stouffville, was named the Outstanding Student from the "Class of '85." She received the Board of Education Award.

The All-Round Student Award, presented by the staff, went to Renee Gibson, 13, Vivian Road, R.R. 3, Newmarket.

Ralph Toninger received the Most Improved Student Award, presented by Pauline Hirsch of the Bethesda Women's Institute.

Top athletic awards were received by Byron Baranieski and Tracy Viggeers.

The master of ceremonies was Chris Murray. Tanis Gornall delivered the valedictory address.

Seven students were honored for having achieved averages of 80 percent or over in nine subjects. These were-Paul Adams, Tanis Gornall, Chris Murray, Nicole Ireland, Russell Thirgood, Renee Gibson and Kim Murray.

Valedictorian Tanis Gornall moved her audience to tears as she compared the dreams of firemen and cowboys to the realities of teachers and computer scientists within the short space of nine years.

Members of the "Class of '85" follow: Paul Adams, Byron Baranieski, Bonnie Barron, Chris Burkholder, Todd Campbell, Jason Derrick, Anne Garrett, Renee Gibson, Tanis Gornall, Clinton Graham, Christopher Hackwood, Nicole Ireland, Sonja Kidd, Tier Lendury, Sean McLaughlin, Holly McNamara, Cindy Morton, Christopher Murray, Kim Murray, Deanna Naylor, Linda Preston, Debbie Rauwerda, Angela Richardson, Lisa Richardson, Erica Roseblade, Russell Thirgood, Ralph Toninger, Tracy Viggers and Heather Wideman.

Twenty-nine Grade 8 students graduated from Whitchurch-Highlands School at a ceremony, June 26. Nicole Ireland, (left), was named top student in the "Class of '85". She received the York Region Board of Education Award. The class valedictorian was Tanis Gornall, (centre), and the master of ceremonies was Chris Murray, all of R.R. 4, Stouffville.
