'Girl Next Door'

Best in business

By JIM THOMAS

WHITCHURCH — Tammy Blasco is seeking office work this summer.

Any manager would be well advised to have Tammy on staff.

Immaculate appearance, expertly organized and extremely efficient, she'd boost the fortunes of any business. And that's what she hopes to do following graduation from Stouffville High — manage her own business.

She's our 'Girl Next Door'.

Born in Toronto, Tammy lived twelve of her seventeen years on the Bethesda Sideroad, east of Hwy. 48. She's a student in Grade 11.

Tammy has a passion for work. At one time, she held down two part-time jobs, one at Parkview Home and the other at Green Gables. She has a sporty 1985 Honda Accord to show for her efforts.

Through the school's Co-op Education Program, she assists with secretarial work at Gallo Real Estate, Ringwood.

She enjoys it there.

Tammy speaks in glowing terms of staff teachers Mrs. Stamation and Mr. Rehill. By no coincidence, their subjects, Theatre Arts and English are also her favorites.

Tammy was a dance choreographer in Variety Show '87. She hopes to rejoin the cast in '89.

While Tammy appreciates the friendly atmosphere for which Stouffville High is known, she feels activities are too sports oriented. Because of this, other students' interests are sometimes overlooked, she says.

On three occasions, Tammy's been to Florida, twice to Disney World. Hawaii and Jamaica are high on her travel wish list.

Tammy says she owes a lot to her parents. "They've stood by me all the way," she claims.

Yes, Tammy has a steady boyfriend. She first met Ron Leonard five years ago at a Grade 7 Summitview dance.

Since then, their respect for each other has grown.

While Tammy feels the call of the business world, she's also interested in the work of the Children's Aid Society. A definite career decision is still two years away.

Seventeen-year-old Tammy Blasco is a Grade 11 student attending Stouffville High. Some day she hopes to have a business of her own. She's our 'Girl Next Door'.
