Kinsmen Girls' Softball holds Champs Day

Sunrise Acres finished their season the same way they started it, with a win. The team's big bats helped them to clinch the championship title.

Emma Keefe was the leader of the bats, going 2-for-2 with a home run and a huge grand slam. In all, she brought in six RBI and scored three runs for her team. Sarah-Jane Vezina and Eliza Lanneval continued the homerun parade. Vezina hit a solo shot in the first inning to score her team's first run, while Lanneval hit a two-run blast in the third.

Meanwhile, Maddie Wilson went 2-for-3 with two big singles.

Delrex's leadoff batter Kylie Ricciardi led the bats for her team, going 2-for-3 with two solo home-runs and three runs scored.

Amy McVittie also hit a solo blast in the final game. Cara Brown scored her team's other run in the third inning.

Semifinal
Delrex Variety 22, Dunlop Insurance 3

Delrex Variety's leadoff batter Kylie Ricciardi set the bar high, going 5-for-5 with two home runs and four runs scored.

Amy McVittie matched Ricciardi's home runs, going 4-for-4 with two round-trippers of her own. Cara Brown and Rebecca Dipede kept up the strong offence, going 3-for-3 and scoring three runs each.

Senior Final
DDH Distribution 7, Atlantis Athletics 6

Atlantis Athletics and DDH Distribution were tied going into the bottom of the last inning. Both teams played strong offence and defence during the game, with DDH coming out ahead in the end. Kaylynn Pshyk was the hero of DDH. She went 2-for-2 with two singles and brought in the game-winning RBI.
