ASKS PERMIT FOR COMMISSION FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

Would Confer With Boers—Holland Announces in the Manifesto That It Possesses No Authorization From Leaders.

London, Jan. 30.—The Hague correspondent of the Daily Mail says he is able to announce on authority that the Dutch note to Great Britain after rehearsing the earnest concern of that government at the prolongation of hostilities in South Africa, offered its good offices in bringing them to a close.

To this end Holland asked whether Great Britain would be willing to permit a Dutch commission to proceed to South Africa to enlighten the Boer leaders in the field as to the real position of affairs, and more especially since it is understood that there is not the slightest chance of intervention on the part of any European power, and that the prolongation of hostilities is useless, if the brave struggle can serve no further good purpose.

The correspondent says the Dutch government expressly announces in this note that it possesses no authorization whatsoever from the Boer leaders, either in Europe or South Africa, to take this suggested step, but that it appeals to Great Britain on the ground of common humanity for military permission for the Dutch commission to accomplish its mission of peace.

Such permission would bind neither the British government to the discussion of terms or the initiation of any negotiations, nor pledge the Dutch government for the success of its self imposed task.

It is understood that Great Britain is awaiting the receipt of lord Kitchener's views on this suggestion, and is willing to grant the requested safe conduct to the Dutch commission if lord Kitchener offers no objections, though it is not hopeful of any practical result from the effort.

The second marriage took place at Alexandria Bay in 1889.

Crisis In A Church.

The people of the First Congregational church have reluctantly accepted the resignation of their pastor, who will retire from ministerial duties about the first of March. A member of the congregation stated this afternoon that the church affairs were in a most unsatisfactory condition, due to the decreased membership, but for this the pastor was not responsible. The church, he says, has not grown for years past, and it looks as though there would be a dissolution. A crisis has arrived, and the congregation will have to exert themselves if the church is to exist.

A Bright "At Home."

An "At Home" was given by the "Cactus Club," in the Whig hall, on Wednesday evening. About fifty couples were present, composed chiefly of the young people of the city and a number of other guests from a distance, who were in the city on the occasion of Queen's conversazione. The decorations were elaborate. The music supplied by Crosby and Thornton's orchestra was of the highest quality. The patronesses were Mrs. H. Nickle, and Mrs. (Capt.) Bogart. The event was regarded by all present as one of the brightest and most successful of the season.

Caused By Rough Streets.

Last evening as Edward Gardiner, Cataraqui, was coming down Princess street, he was obliged to turn in close to the pavement, near James Reid's furniture store, to allow another rig to pass him. As he did so, he was crowded into the ditch dug by corporation laborers to drain the street. His rig and horse were overturned, the shafts broken, and the animal somewhat cut. Other minor damage was also sustained.

ROADS CONVENTION

Will Be Held In Ottawa During March.

The most important roads convention ever held in Canada will be conducted in Ottawa on Thursday and Friday, March 13th and 14th by the Ontario good roads association. Every county and township council in the province is being invited to send delegates. All sides of the good roads question will be thoroughly discussed.

The dominion parliament will be in session at the time and invitations will be sent to all members. At one of the evening sessions speakers will be present from the United States, to describe what the national and state governments are doing for the cause. These speakers will include the Hon. Martin Dodge, director of public roads inquiry, Washington, and Col. W. Richardson, Chicago, president national good roads' association, of the United States.

The afternoon sessions will be devoted to ascertaining the cost of stone and gravel roads, their best methods of construction, how long it takes to build them and the best system of maintenance. The speakers on these subjects are being chosen from such counties as Hastings and Huron, which have several hundred miles of of stone roads already built. Hon. F. R. Latchford, minister of public works, will be invited to fully explain what the various counties of the province are to obtain with the $1,000,000 grant for good roads.

One of the morning sessions will be devoted to a thorough discussion of the statute labor question. Speakers will be present from a number of townships which have commuted statute labor who will describe how the new system their townships have adopted have succeeded. After every address the people present will be invited to ask questions so that thorough discussions may be held.

Last summer the good roads association operated a "good roads' train" among the Eastern Ontario counties, which did splendid educational work, building model stretches of stone road. A report of the work of this train will be presented by H. B. Cowan, secretary of the association. This train will resume operations next spring. It is to be hoped our local counties and townships will be well represented at the convention.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Cannot Be A Candidate.

Kingston, Jan. 30.—(To the Editor).—Some business negotiations which have been pending, and which have prevented an earlier decision, now indicate several absences from the city during the present year. Such being the case I could not properly discharge the duties of an alderman. I shall not, therefore, allow my name to go in nomination, on Monday, for the vacancy in Rideau ward. I appreciate very highly the kind words expressed in connection with the suggestion of my candidature for the position, as well as the numerous tenders of support which my old constituents have so widely extended.—N. C. POLSON.

Only One Escape.

A man may break away from prison but he cannot get away from the torture of rheumatism until he takes Dr. Hall's Rheumatic cure. It is the only reliable remedy on the market. Charles H. Clarke, Kingston, Ont., who for fifteen years in succession held the civic street watering contract could not put on his boots or walk for several weeks. He tried Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure, and three bottles, with the Climax Iron Tonic Pills, completely cured him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days' treatment. Price 50 cents, at Wade's drug store.

Looked Like A Local Man.

One of the characters in "Are You a Mason?" presented at the opera house last night, bore such a close resemblance to a local banker-horse-dealer-railroad magnate, that the audience received him with applause as he stepped on the stage. The only difference was the color of his hair, his being red, while that of the local character is dark brown. But the facial resemblance, nose, voice, etc., were fashioned closely after those of the Kingston man.

Want Better Support.

The fair directors deplore the lack of interest the citizens show in the work. Last night only twelve subscribers showed up, and it is a credit to the townships that three of these were county men. To use Col. Hunter's favorite quotation, "In the multitude of council there is wisdom." The directors would feel more encouraged and more confident of success were the citizens to give them more support.

"San Toy."

That brilliant musical comedy "San Toy," the success of the present season, will be at the Grand, February 5th. It will be presented as at Daly's in New York, with the same magnificent costumes and scenic environment, exceptionally strong company, and exceedingly clever comedian, Samuel Collins. The music of "San Toy," has been pronounced the most tuneful since that of the "Mikado."

Fine Winter In The Nor'-West.

BROUGHT BACK.

He Violated His Parole From Penitentiary.

Robert Young, aged twenty-two, of Hamilton, is back to the penitentiary because of the violation of his parole. He was brought to Kingston by detective Coulter, and will serve out the sentence of three years, which he received for burglary in Hamilton. He had put in nearly one year of it, when he was liberated on ticket-of-leave last summer, owing to ill-health. Since his return to Hamilton he had been associating with criminals, and had not shown signs of reform. He was up before the police magistrate once in the fall on a charge of vagrancy, and he has been awaiting trial before judge Snider on a charge of pocket-picking on October 14th, when the royal party were in the city. This trial was delayed, owing to the absence of a witness for the defence, Isaac Rooney, but the department of justice at Ottawa decided that the best thing to do with Young was to return him to the penitentiary.
