INSTANT RELIEF FROM PILES

Thorough Cure Obtained By The Use of One Box of

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Persons who have suffered from piles realize best the kindly feeling one has for a preparation which brings quick relief and ultimate cure of this distressing ailment.

James Elliott, Gananoque, Ont., states: "My wife was greatly troubled with piles, and put in an awful time of it. She could not get relief from the terrible itching and burning sensations. I bought a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and on the first application she obtained relief. After using the one box she was cured of piles, and I can fully and heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to all who suffer from piles."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, has a record of cures unparalleled in the history of medicine; 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Window-Smashing Again.

Barriefield, Sept. 13.—Nearly all the harvest of the village gardens has been gathered, apples being the only fruit still on the trees. A gun is the only thing that will induce the small boys to leave the apple trees alone. The school opened with usual oversupply of pupils. Purdy, New York, Miss Edith Byrnes, Rochester, Mrs. Pettit, Rochester, Miss Burns, Syracuse, have been visiting Mrs. Miles Byrnes. Mrs. James Orr, New York, and daughters, Miss Mabel and Miss Pearl, have been visiting old friends. Barwick Festivity.

The new summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Shannon, Barwick, Algoma, held a festive gathering on Monday evening, September 5th, when friends turned out in force to do honor to Cornett Shannon, who was booked for the west early on Tuesday, in company with J. Esson and W. Shaw. Ice cream was served on the lawn by the hostess and games indulged in with gusto. A tall staff, surmounted by the Stars and Stripes, did duty for the Maypole erected by Nelson Pettyplace, who had surreptitiously "snivelled" it from the tall pine in front of Gilmockee castle, where, for five months it had goaded to desperation the patriotic spirit of William John Armstrong. A mock trial of James Esson, for snivelling one of the Westover pigs while in transit to the teacher and substituting therefor a wooden pig, conducted by Rev. Mr. Cousins and Harry Shaw, K.C., with Miss Olson as judge, resulted in the discharge of the prisoner on the Scottish verdict "not proven." A rich repast was served at midnight, for Mrs. Shannon is past mistress of the culinary art and could fry a soul leather to taste like a surloin steak. Messrs. Cousins, Westover, K. Ruttan, Misses Flossie Shannon, Myrtle Kerr and Miss Maude Cameron entertained with song and recitation. "Auld Lang Syne" was sung in true Highland style, ere the guests escorted the departing friends to the railway station.

And many are the good wishes
That go the way they went,
And tearful are the visits that
Lonely maidens spent.
