HIS INAUGURAL

REV. R. S. FORNERI PREACHES IN ST. LUKE'S.

He Testifies to the Loyalty of His Previous Congregations — Makes an Eloquent Reference to Bishop Worrell.

In St. Luke's church on Sunday morning, the new rector, Rev. R. S. Forneri, preached his inaugural sermon before a large congregation. His text was I Thess. v., 12-13. Mr. Forneri said that of the evils which have afflicted the church of God and the schisms which have divided it in the course of its chequered history, from a failure to observe the apostolic precept, it is not my present purpose to speak, nor to enquire whether these ills and divisions have been due more to a lack of love and appreciation on the part of the laity, than to an abuse of confidence, carelessness, priestly assumption and pride on the part of their spiritual rulers. It is, however, simple justice to the laity of the church in Canada to say, that the severest testimony of the clergy is, that, as a rule, there is no lack of respect and regard on the people's part towards any minister, who is striving with ordinary fidelity and sincerity to fulfil the duties and labors of his sacred office among them.

"My own experience," the preacher said, "has not been dissimilar to this. In the parishes I have held during a ministry of no inconsiderable length, and in which I have labored with many short-comings, I have uniformly received that respectful and considerate treatment, which, from the apostle's language, would seem to be due from a Christian congregation to their pastor. Ever while I live shall I cherish a grateful remembrance of all the evidences and tokens of their good-will and affection bestowed upon me by my parishioners, wherever I have been.

"In coming among you, my brethren, as I do to-day, I anticipate no other treatment than that which I have elsewhere received; and I have all the more confidence that my expectations will be realized, as I know how well you fulfilled your duty to my distinguished predecessor in the pastorate of this church. I know, indeed, that he was worthy of your heart's loyal and affectionate devotion, both for his own and for his work's sake. For many years I have had the privilege of being intimately acquainted with Bishop Worrell, and of observing his career in the church; and never did any workingman of God labour at his post of duty, whatever it might be, more conscientiously or more successfully than your late honored rector. The surprising growth and prosperity of this parish was owing under God to his zealous and capable leadership, the loss of which I make no pretence of, being able, except very imperfectly to supply.

"But what has been the loss of a single congregation is the gain of a whole diocese, and doubtless, therein you greatly rejoice; nay, I am sure that it must be a matter of pride to you all that your rector had by his antecedents proved himself to be so worthy of a higher degree, that he was chosen, as we believe by the great head of the church, and by the churchmen of Nova Scotia, to preside over their diocese, a diocese which possesses the proud distinction of being the first colonial see. And of this we may be confident, that under his presidency the best interests of the church in that maritime province will be in safe keeping.

"These remarks, brethren, are, I am sure, quite congenial to your feelings at this times, for I can well believe that my presence here to-day, as I stand in your midst, and speak to you from the very place from which your late beloved rector used to address you, must awaken in your breasts affecting memories of him, and that your hearts are even at this moment, at the beginning of this New Year, going out to him and his, as mine is going out, in kind, good wishes, and going up to Almighty God that he may long be spared to accomplish the work, whether it be of planting or watering in that portion of the great field of Christ's husbandry to which, at his appointed interval of labor, he has been called."

OPERATIONS NOT ALWAYS NECESSARY.

Doctors Frequently Mistaken.

"I suffered untold agony with piles for over three years. Two doctors told me nothing but an operation would cure me. I tried different remedies, but nothing did me any good until I used Pyramid Pile Cure. I bought six fifty cent boxes at the drug store, and now I can do my work and go out, where before I spent most of my time lying down. I thank God for giving the discoverer the knowledge to make such a cure. I recommend it to all my friends, and if I ever have piles again will certainly use this remarkable remedy. You can use this in any way you wish to make known the wonderful merit of Pyramid Pile Cure." Mrs. William Mucky, 81 Marshall street, Elizabeth, N.J.

The experience of this lady is that of thousands of others who have been assured that nothing short of an operation would rid them of this distressing complaint. On the face of it, it appears as if too many surgeons operate in order that they may keep their hand in, and lose no portion of their skill; then, again, too many surgeons are anxious to experiment (like the scientific man in Mark Twain's pathetic story of the dog and her little puppy), and do not have proper regard for a patient's physical welfare or condition.

We advise every sufferer to think twice before submitting to an operation for piles, and suggest that those interested write to the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their little book on the causes and cure of piles, which is sent free for the asking.

Picton Pointers.

Picton, Jan. 2.—The Bank of Montreal was the scene of a pretty tea, Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. D. M. Farmer had a large number of her friends in to see Mrs. A. Bog and Miss Bog, of Toronto. Those from town who attended the Brighton ball were: Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hepburn, Miss Gena Hepburn, and her guest, Miss Johnson, of Belleville; Messrs. J. Widdifield and R. Leslie. The Christmas tree in the Parish house on Friday evening was well attended. The cantata "A Bundle of Sticks" was given by the younger members of the Sunday school.

Miss Walker, Toronto, is visiting in town. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright, Mrs. Gearing and Miss Mary Wright spent the holiday in Toronto. George Fraser, Montreal, is in town for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, Belleville, were in town on Saturday. Rev. W. L. Armitage left today for a week's visit at his home, Kincardine. T. Morton has returned from Tweed. Miss M. B. Reyner returned Monday from a week spent in Cobourg. Miss Mazie, Colbourne, who has been spending a week in town, returned to-day to Trenton.

Married In Ottawa.

There was a pleasing ceremony at 370 Slater street, Ottawa, on Wednesday night last, when Miss Blanche Putnam, daughter of C. W. Putnam, Ottawa, was united in marriage to Edward Chapman, formerly of Kingston. Rev. G. F. Salton officiated and only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present. The bride was dressed in a handsome tailor made mauve gown and carried a bouquet of roses. Her travelling suit was made of brown and she wore a red velvet hat. Both young people are popular in Ottawa. The groom came here a little over a year ago, and has worked for the Canadian Pacific Telegraph company, both at their main office and at the House of Commons. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left the same evening for Kingston, Toronto and other points. When they return they will reside at 370 Slater street, Ottawa.

Eighteen Hundred Farewells.

The Rev. Stephen Gladstone, who is retiring from the rectorship of Hawarden, has a farewell letter in his parish magazine. He says that he has visited every one of the 1,800 homes of his parishioners to say good-bye, but after thirty-two years the parting is very hard. He thanks the Nonconformists for much kindness, and all for the sympathy shown him and his family on the break-up of their home. Mr. Gladstone will for a few weeks take charge of the poor London parish where, under the present Dean of St. Paul's, he was for four years curate. Thus the eldest surviving son of the great Prime Minister passes from the ken of the Cheshire village which his father's zeal made famous through the English-speaking, church-going world. Keen and earnest in his work, he was content with his little parish as his working place, where he will long be remembered and sorely missed.

Comforting the Curate.

A very nervous young curate who as a rule always shaved himself once found himself compelled to patronize a barber, having while from home forgotten his shaving tackle.

"I hope you can shave me without cutting me. I am—er—I mean I have a very nervous—er—that is, sensitive skin," stammered the curate.

"Cut you, sir," repeated the juvenile looking operator reassuringly, flourishing his gleaming razor round the shrinking throat of the curate. "If I so much as nick you once I'll—I'll—I'll cut your 'ead off, sir, and my own arterwards. I can't say fairer'n that."—Liverpool Globe.

Playing Down to Him.

Young couple (who expect the visit of a very miserly relative, from whom they have expectations) are clearing the room of every sign of luxury. Wife (earnestly)—We must do all we can to make uncle feel at home. Husband (caustically)—Then we had better let the fire out.—Punch.

An Easy Way to Cure Splitting Headaches.

If headache sufferers would do a little hard thinking, they would surely learn that headaches of all kinds are simply results—warning signals—of far more serious trouble. Usually headache means that the blood and nerves are poisoned by an inactive and sluggish liver. Don't become one of the habitual headache sufferers, who explain their condition by saying, "Oh, I am subject to headaches. I always get headache if I get excited, or it is too noisy." There is no need of it, either. Stop taking headache powders and powerful drugs that may relieve, but leave you in worse condition in the end. Put your liver in good shape, so that it will carry off foul secretions and remove properly the bile elements from the blood. Use Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills and you won't have headache. Why? Just because these little pills are Nature's true laxative, and a positive cure for a torpid liver. They assist digestion, unload the bile ducts and cure headache by first removing the cause. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure headache, constipation and biliousness in one night. Price 25 cents at dealers.

PHILLIPSVILLE NEWS.

Temperance People Should Support Rev. Mr. Chisholm.

Phillipsville, Jan. 2.—Farmers are not going to be caught this year with their wood yards empty. They are taking advantage of the snow. R. C. Haskin's mill yard is fast filling up with cheese box material. The Christmas entertainments in both churches here were well patronized by the holiday-loving public. The dialogues, recitations, and drills were well rendered. The Baptist people have had their church painted and decorated; the artistic work is a credit to the contractor. Miss Ethel Brown, after spending a few weeks in Westport, visiting friends, has returned home. George Brown, wife and baby, of Lyndhurst, spent Christmas with his mother.

Rev. F. Chisholm has been selected by the reformers as their standard bearer in the coming election on January 25th. If the temperance people want to send a temperance man to parliament now is their time. A very little effort on their part will put Rev. F. Chisholm at the head of the poll on the night of the 25th. South Leeds gave a large majority on the referendum. As the conservative party, or much of it, is death against prohibition, or temperance in any form, it stands the electors in hand to send men to parliament who will support the temperance cause.

Mrs. Lackebery is very low and there are no hopes of her recovery. Chester Haskin, confined to his bed the most of the time, is very weak. F. S. Harrison is leasing his general store in this place. A. E. Whitmore, manager of Harrison's store, will open out a general store in this town in the near future. Mrs. J. Downey is spending a few weeks in Elgin. Mrs. H. C. Davison and Master Glen are spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Philps. Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Lena and Master J. C. Laishley spent Christmas at the home of Mrs. Laishley's parents.

Morton Tidings.

Morton, Dec. 31.—A number from here attended to-day at Lyndhurst, the funeral of the late Calvin Struthers, of Brockville. Mr. Struthers was for some years a resident of this place. On the evening of the 22nd inst., the Morton Sabbath school held their annual Christmas tree and entertainment. Everything passed off very successfully, the bright programme provided being enjoyed by all present. H. W. Young attended the funeral of his brother, the late Benjamin Young of Caintown. Mrs. S. C. Purcell, of Ottawa, spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. D. H. Manuel. H. Hogan, of Bay City, Mich., is the guest of his brother-in-law, R. H. Somerville. John Ward, of Brockville, is the guest of J. C. Judd for a few days.

A Lamented Death.

Pleasant Valley, Dec. 27.—We are having very good sleighing in these parts at present. The neighborhood was startled by the news of the death of Mrs. Kerr, wife of the late William Kerr. The funeral, which took place at the house, was well attended. Much sympathy is felt for the family in their bereavement. Wilmot Sigsworth left to-day for Lockport, N.Y., where he intends spending the winter. Charles Ellerbeck, Oxbow, Man., is visiting his father, R. Ellerbeck, who has been ill for some time. The Christmas entertainments in this past were well attended by our young people. Misses Grace and Myrtle Hughes spent Thursday at S. Sigsworth's.

Verona Items.

Verona, Dec. 31.—Mrs. A. W. Stewart and daughter Muriel, of Lanark, spent Christmas holidays with her parents at the parsonage. Dr. D. J. Smith paid a short visit to his sister's, Mrs. (Rev.) J. Ferguson, before going to Florida to spend the winter. On the 21st, Rev. J. Ferguson united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage, Charlie Hamilton, and Miss Alena Scales, both of Hinchinbrook. T. F. Vanluven, of Moscow, spent Monday at the parsonage.
