In Memory of our Dad

*If we could have a lifetime wish and one dream that could come true
We would pray to God with all our hearts just to see and speak to you A thousand words won't bring you back
We know because we've tried
And neither will a million tears
We know because we've cried You've left behind our broken hearts and precious memories too
But we've never wanted memories.
We only wanted you.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory Of
ROY SIDHU
Feb. 2, 1989 - August 26, 2005

I am a Father

I am a father, I've always been No greater joy I've ever seen
I held him young,
I made him strong
I taught him love
And right from wrong.

I bandaged well
his scraped up knees
And called him down from many a tree
I cared for him through fevered nights
We wrestled,
and I held him tight.

For there was no effort that ever went undone
No time spent in vain,
if it was for my son
No pain I'd not suffer, nothing I'd not give No deed he could do that I could not forgive

So for the part of my life
I remember the best
With all of these chores, was I truly blessed Yes, I am a father,
it's here inside
No less a father, though my son has died.

For I can still see him,
hough not as he stands
And I can still feel him, though not with my hands
For he's made of me and I'm made of him
We have parts of each other we carry within

A bond sealed with kisses and scraped knees and pride That nothing as simple as death can divide
No, he is not gone,
not ever to me
For I am a father
And always I'll be.

*Mera dil,
but miss you every day still.
Dad, Sandy
and the Sidhu Family*

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of Gary Munday
June 7, 1946 - August 22, 2006

*I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new I thought about you yesterday and days before that too.
I think of you in silence
I often speak your name
All I have are memories and your picture in a frame Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part God has you in his keeping
I have you in my heart
Love Cathy*
