Cruise Of Motor Boats.

Brooklyn Eagle.

Motor boat talk at the yacht clubs along the Sound and river is centered on the cruise of the American Power Boat Association, which starts August 17th for the Thousand Islands. As this is the first cruise of the kind attempted in this country, it calls forth more than usual interest. The distance from New York to the Thousand Islands is four hundred miles by way of the Hudson river to Albany, Erie canal to Oswego, and across the lake to Cape Vincent, the route selected for the trip. The Oswego Yacht Club has arranged a royal welcome and when the St. Lawrence is reached a round of entertainments will be given. The Frontenac Yacht Club, in the Thousand Islands, announces, in honor of the members of the cruise, a water carnival on the evening of August 25th.

A NARROW ESCAPE

JAMES BROWN IN A BAD ACCIDENT.

Building a New Wharf at Picton—Many Visitors Coming and Going—Services Conducted by a Trinity College Student.

Picton, Aug. 15.—Saturday James Brown, a shoemaker in P. A. Williams shoeshop, while driving home to supper, was thrown from his buggy on the cement walk in front of the office of J. F. Beringer, American consul, and suffered serious injury. Brown, while driving, lost a rein; the horse backed, hit a post and fell on the walk, throwing Brown, with much force, out of the rig. His shoulder was badly crushed and some inward injury sustained by his head. The doctor thinks it remarkable that no bones were broken, and has hopes of his recovery.

Mr. Cooke, Kingston, a Trinity student, conducted services in St. Mary Magdalene's church on Sunday. A gang of men are at work off the sloop Madcap, driving piles in the harbor, opposite Hepburn's coal shed, where a new wharf is to be built. The steambarge W. J. Carter, of Cleveland, is unloading coal for the Cleveland Seed house; "Jim" Shannon, Picton, has been engaged as fireman. The yacht Allie Dale, owned by Mr. O'Flynn, barrister, Belleville, came in to-day from Glen Island, with a party of resorters. The schooners W. J. Suffel and A. Minnes are in port.

Canon E. Loucks, Kingston, was in town Friday and Saturday, the guest of J. F. Beringer, on his way to Belleville, where he conducted Sunday services in Christ church. Mrs. W. L. Ward, Rochester, is entertaining a house party of ten young people at her summer cottage, "The Cedars," Lake Ontario shore. J. Freleigh, traveller for Tooke Bros., Montreal, leaves his home in Bloomfield this week for a trip to Rochester, Pittsburgh, and Philadelphia. After a two weeks' visit in town, Miss Grace Loucks returned to-day to Kingston.

E. A. Bog, assistant inspector of the Standard bank, who, with Mrs. and Miss Bog, has been spending his holiday in town, returned to-day to Toronto. A. W. Hepburn and three children are at the Sand Banks. Frank Carter, of the Michigan Invester, Detroit, is in town on an auto tour. Blake Storttz, Rochester, is in town. Dr. Hermiston, Detroit, is spending a few days here on business. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, Oil City, Pa., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. de C. Hepburn.

Miss Ruby Jellett, Montreal, and Mr. Wilson, Brandon, both of whom are visiting in Kingston, were in town over Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Barker. Miss Julia Horsey, Kingston, visited Miss K. Despard last week. Charles McConnell, Rochester, is spending a week with Judge and Mrs. C. H. Widdifield. Miss Vernon, after a three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Despard, has returned to Toronto. C. M. Shadbolt, accountant, Bank of Montreal, left, Saturday, on a vacation to his home in St. John, N.B. N. B. Allan, Montreal Bank, has returned from Goderich.

Attended Gananoque Races.

Plum Hollow, Aug. 12.—The heavy rains have put the farmers behind in their work. Mr. and Mrs. Sliter have returned to their home in Delta after staying several weeks with their daughters, Mrs. Kilborn and Mrs. L. Chapman. George Tackaberry's new house is advancing rapidly. Miss Hattie Bullis spent last week the guest of Jennie Percival. Several from here attended the races held at Gananoque on the 8th. Mrs. N. Benedict is ill. Rev. L. M. Weeks again occupied the pulpit on Sunday last, after spending a pleasant holiday at Cornwall. T. H. Percival is adding greatly to the appearance of his house by building a verandah. A number from here "took in" the searchlight excursion, Saturday night and report having a good time.

Fine Fishing Grounds.

Chaffey's Lock, Aug. 12.—The proprietor of Idylwild has procured several sleeping tents to furnish accommodation to many tourists. The largest and best show of bass fishing here, were on exhibition Wednesday evening last. Some of them tipped the scales at six and one-quarter pounds. Miss Margaret Fleming entertained a few friends in honor of her guests, Misses O'Brien, Martin and Donnelly, Tuesday evening. Everett Howard, of Kingston, is spending a few days with his parents. R. Hannah and family, Delta, are guests of N. H. Howard. A bad electrical storm passed over this vicinity Sunday, but no particular damage was reported. Misses Cassie and Nellie O'Brien, Montreal, left for home yesterday morning. A picnic party from Westport, by steamer Jopi, passed through here yesterday for Jones' Falls.

Eva, aged over eight years, daughter of F. Dransfield, Almonte, is dead, of brain fever.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Aged Man Exposed All Night in a Cemetery.

Napanee, Aug. 15.—Friday last William Allen suffered a stroke of paralysis. In the afternoon he decided to take a walk to the cemetery, and while there he was stricken down. He lay all night in the graveyard, unable to move or speak, to make anyone hear him. He was missed from his home, but nothing was thought of it, as it was supposed he stayed with some friends. He is about eighty-five years of age, and although smart and active for his years, the stroke has left him in a very weak condition. The doctors say no ill effects were caused by his long exposure, as the night was mild. No decided improvement can be seen in his case since Saturday and grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert English left yesterday for Indian Head, Assa., where Mr. English has purchased a business. Mrs. E. L. Brown, Buffalo, is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gordanier. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hardy and son, Heber, left to-day to spend a couple of weeks in the rear of the county, fishing and resting. Sunday was decoration day with the Oddfellows. A large turn-out of members and visiting brethren from Deseronto, Picton and Kingston were in attendance. The services at cemetery were witnessed by a large crowd.

Miss Hattie M. Fox has accepted a school at Copper Cliff, Ont., for the balance of the year. W. C. Scott met with a painful injury, Sunday, at the G.T.R. station. He went to meet his son, Harry, and walking along the platform he stepped on a broken plank, which threw him to the walk. Although no bones were broken, he wrenched his side and bruised himself considerably. He will be confined to the house for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Perry and family left Saturday for Toronto, where they will reside. Miss Annie Mastin accompanied them to Toronto to spend some months.

The funeral of the late Mrs. H. M. Peroche took place, Saturday, and was largely attended. The casket was covered with floral tributes from friends and relatives.

The Dead Priest.

Father Ryan.

A shadow slept folded in vestments,
The dream of a smile on its face.
Dim, soft as the gleam after sunset
That hangs like a halo of grace
Where the daylight hath died in the valley
And the twilight hath taken its place—
A shadow! But still on the mortal
There rested the tremulous trace
Of the joy of a spirit immortal
Passed up to its God in His grace.

A shadow! Hast seen in the summer
A cloud wear the smile of the sun?
On the shadow of death there is flashing
The glory of noble deeds done;
On the face of the dead there is glowing
The light of a holy race run,
And the smile of the face is reflecting
The gleam of the crown he has won.
Still, shadow, sleep on in the vestments
Unstained by the priest who has worn them.

Yea, sorrow weeps over the shadow,
But faith looks aloft to the skies,
And hope, like a rainbow, is flashing
O'er the tears that rain down from their eyes.
They murmur on earth, "De profundis;"
The low chant is mingled with sighs;
"Laudate" rings out through the heavens—
The dead priest hath won his faith's prize.

The Demand Increasing.

Like the proof of the pudding, the proof of Toye's bread is in the eating. Every day more and more of it is eaten by the people of Kingston. Its sale shows a steady increase each year, a proof of its genuine excellence and unvarying goodness. Those who once use Toye's bread always want it. All of which goes to show that the people always know a good thing when they see it.

A Valued Possession.

Mrs. William Derry, Barrie street, has in her possession a copy of the New Year's address of the Whig to its patrons on January 1st, 1846. The address was printed on thin white silk. It was found among the effects of Mrs. Derry's mother, the late Mrs. George McMahon, and is in almost as good condition as when issued nearly sixty years ago.

FREE OF CHARGE

WIFE-HUNTING MINISTER IS READY TO HELP LOVERS.

Too Few People Wed, is Doctrine of Rev. George W. Brownback—He Removes Barrier of Expense.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 15.—Rev. George W. Brownback announces that hereafter he will perform all marriages free of charge. In giving his reasons for this step he says:

"Too few people are getting married. One of the hindrances is the expense of having the knot tied. I am willing to make people happy for nothing.

"I know of many people who can't afford to give more than a dollar or two, but feel ashamed to give less than $5. They delay the wedding until they can afford to pay the latter price.

"Young people needn't pay a minister anything in this state if they don't wish to. Thanks is all a minister has a right to expect. But many of the young folks are not aware of this fact. Lots of people condemn old folks for getting married. People are never too old to get married in my opinion."

Mr. Brownback achieved notoriety several years ago by travelling over the country in search of a wife.

SPORT REVIEW.

Notes On Baseball, Lacrosse And Other Sports.

W. C. Baber, H. C. Hill and T. S. Saunders of the McGill Club, Montreal, are given places on the international eleven to meet Philadelphia.

H. Chandler Egan successfully defended his title of National golf champion in the eleventh annual tourney at the Chicago Gold Club links at Wheaton, defeating D. E. Sawyer, of Wheaton, (1 up 5 to play, in the finals.

F. J. Marshall, the American chess player, has won the first prize in the international chess tournament, which has been in progress in Holland during the last fortnight. Marshall was one of the three masters invited to participate, the rest being amateurs.

In the National Regatta at Baltimore, last week, the Argonauts of Toronto, the only Canadian entries, competed in three events and won only one, the intermediate eight. This race was protested by the Ariel Club, the Argos' only competitors, the locals claiming that the men from the north failed to row in the course buoyed out for them.

Although the Boston Americans have offered him a good salary, Clarence Barnes, the centre fielder of the Yale 'varsity nine, has declined the offer. He has decided not to play professional ball at all, but to devote his entire time to his law practice. Barnes has been for the past two years rated as one of the best outfielders among the big college teams, and Billy Lush of Cleveland recommended him to the attention of the major leagues.

Lyon's powerful swiping and accurate work in the long iron strokes were counted upon to carry him well along in the tourney, and had his putting been proportionatily good he doubtless would have lasted. The champion was 3 up at the turn, and 4 up at the tenth, having won the first, second, fourth, and fifth holes and allowing Martin the sixth, the rest being halved. Three puts on the eleventh, twelfth, and fourteenth and a bunker at the fifteenth, with his only hole won on the incoming journey, the thirteenth, brought the men all square when the home tee was reached. Lyon sent out a terrific ball, but poor short work gave Martin hole and match.

Bedtime.

Last year my bedtime was at eight,
And every single night
I used to wish the clock would wait,
Or else stay out of sight.
It always seemed to me
The next half-hour I'd be
The nicest time of all the day
If mother would agree,
But she always shook her head,
And she sort of jumped, and said,
Why, it's late—after eight—
And it's time you were in bed!

That clock would always do its best
To sit all quiet there,
Until I was my comfyest
In some big easy chair.
Then its striking would begin,
And I'd tell my motherkin
How I'd just begun a chapter, and
It was so int'restin',—
And the end was just ahead,—
But she usually said,
No, it's late—after eight—
And it's time to go to bed.

And now my bedtime is ha'-past,
But yet that old clock does
The same mean tricks—it's just as fast,
Or faster than it was.
Last night it seemed to me
The next half-hour 'd be
The nicest time of all the day
If mother would agree.
But she smiled and shook her head,
And she kissed me while she said,
Why, it's late—ha'-past eight—
And it's time you went to bed!

Respected Farmer's Death.

Lansdowne, Aug. 12.—Surprise and sorrow was expressed here, when it was learned that Amos McNeil had passed away early this morning. He had been ill for some weeks with a peculiar disease in his foot, but was not considered in danger. Deceased was one of the most prosperous farmers around here, and very highly esteemed for his honesty, and sincerity; a good friend and neighbor; he will be greatly missed. His wife and one son survive. Gordon Peck lost a valuable horse lately from blood poisoning. This is the second he has lost since he started in the livery business last fall.

IMPRISONED AS MUTINEERS.

British Seamen Who Refuse to Run the Risks of War.

Dozens of British seamen are continually arriving at Liverpool from the far east, where they have been imprisoned for long terms in solitary confinement at Hong Kong, and Singapore for refusing to run the blockade to Vladivostok or carry contraband of war to the Japanese ports, after having signed for ordinary voyages only.

Over 500 men have already been sent to London by the Sailors' National Union, and claims for arrears of wages and damages for false imprisonment will be made against the owners on their account.

A typical case was related at Liverpool by an Irishman, who has just come from Hong Kong on the steamer Laertes. He says that he signed as A.B. at Cardiff last December for the voyage to Hong Kong on a collier.

The crew of twenty learned at Hong Kong for the first time that the vessel's real destination was a Japanese port. When they saw the harbourmaster he admitted that coal was contraband of war, but in addition to their ordinary pay of £3 15s. a month nothing was offered them as compensation for the risk of capture by the Russian cruisers.

Nineteen of the men refused to proceed, and were sentenced by the harbourmaster to ten weeks' imprisonment as mutineers.

They lived on prison fare, and had to pick two pounds of oakum daily, and when taken out for exercise were handcuffed and treated exactly as criminals.

Temagami.

Nimrod was a mighty hunter, but had he hunted in the "Temagami" region he would have been a mightier one. Nimrod hunted for glory but Temagamians hunt for game. Those Indians who made the first canoe of birch bark long ago, were our greatest benefactors. The children of these Indians know the canoe, and they know how to use it, and if you go to Temagami this summer they will paddle your canoe in their own superb way. They will be the best guides you ever had, and they will take you through the rivers, lakes, forests and hunting grounds their forefathers once called home, they will tell you of the tricks and habits of the bears, beavers, moose, caribou and deer. Ah! the Indians know, for once they were mightier hunters than ancient Nimrod. Students who camp in summer along the Temagami lakes are able to do two years' work in one. Business men who camp under Temagami skies never stop at the hospital or go into bankruptcy. Easy of access by the Grand Trunk Railway system. For information, address J. P. Quinlan, District passenger agent, Grand Trunk Railway, Montreal.

THE MICROSCOPE.

Proves That Parasites Cause Hair Loss.

Nine-tenths of the diseases of the scalp and hair are caused by parasitic germs. The importance of this discovery by Professor Unna, of the Charity Hospital, Hamburg, Germany, can not be over-estimated. It explains why ordinary hair preparations, even of the most expensive character fail to cure dandruff; because they do not, and they can not kill the dandruff germ. The only hair preparation in the world that positively destroys the dandruff parasites that burrow up the scalp into scales called scurf or dandruff, is Newbro's Herpicide. In addition to its destroying the dandruff germ Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. G. W. TO REDUCE OUTPUT.

Down to Demand Now That Bounty is Abolished.

Sydney, N.S., Aug. 15.—One effect of the order-in-council passed by the government with respect to the bounty on steel rails will be the curtailment of the output of the Dominion Iron and Steel company to the actual demand, which is, however, very considerable. The company was preparing to increase its output of 350 tons per day this week, but, under the circumstances, this will not be undertaken for the present. The company is affected to the extent of over a thousand dollars a day by the order in question.

Walter Weir, the thirty-five-year-old man, found guilty of abducting fourteen-year-old Florence Mowers from her home in Port Bruce, was sentenced by County Magistrate Hunt, St. Thomas, to one year in Central prison.
