COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

That Is Going On In the Business World—The Markets.

A Montreal despatch says:—The C.P.R. Co. state officially that they will issue no new stock for a year at least. It is not but that they want to, but they cannot spend the money. They cannot get equipment or men to lay rails, and, in fact, have not spent nearly all of last year's estimate.

According to an authority the world's wine production in 1906 is estimated at 3,775,000,000. Europe furnished more than 15 per cent of the total, and north and South America about 4 per cent. France holds first place among the wine producing countries, the United States ranks twelfth.

The Hudson's Bay company's sales of farm lands and town lots for the nine months ended December 31st last amounted approximately to £250,000, payable over a term of years, and cash receipts to £241,900, as compared with sales for £320,800 and cash receipts for £213,500 for the corresponding period of 1905.

A Peterboro despatch announces that owing to the remarkable electrical development in Canada the Canadian General Electric company has found it necessary to erect still another large machine shop, which will mean that between three and four acres of floor space will be occupied by this department. At present this department of the vast electrical works occupies 75,000 square feet of floor area. Contracts have been let, and the work is vigorously proceeded.

A Big Proposition.

This afternoon, at two o'clock, the board of works visited the O'Kill street sewer outlet, where its chairman, Ald. Gaskin, pointed out to them the dangers that would result from laying an unprotected extension pipe out into the little bay at that point. City Engineer Beckwith was also present with Ald. Gaskin's "freshmen class." The object of the little conference was to show the worst conditions of the locality. Ald. Gaskin declared that if the pipe had been laid, there, Saturday night's tremendous ice shove would have put it high on the banks of Macdonald Park. The board of works has a big proposition on hand, this year, in the laying of this extension. It is no easy matter to decide.

Held A "Smoker."

The members of the Masters and Mates Association held a smoker, in their rooms, on Princess street, Saturday night, and the affair was a most pleasant one. There was a good attendance, and Capt. Doyle, master of the association, presided. Refreshments were served, and a programme of songs and recitations was carried out.

To Settle In The West.

Samuel Marshall, for years accountant for R. Waldron & Co., left, this afternoon, for the west, in company with E. W. Day, a well-known real estate man. Mr. Marshall intends opening up a business in one of the far western towns, probably in Edmonton. He will first look over the ground.

WERE FOUND FROZEN

WHOLE FAMILY AFFECTED—THREE DEAD; TWO DYING.

Calgary Household, Partially Asphyxiated, Were Unable to Protect Themselves From the Cold.

Calgary, Alta., Jan. 21.—Their frozen bodies lying in their house within a stone's throw of the fashionable residential quarter of this city was the gruesome discovery made by the police on Saturday. John Ferdinand, proprietor, his wife, and a new born child are dead, and the other children, aged two and four years, are in the hospital so severely frozen that they cannot recover.

None of the family had been seen for the past week, and neighbors enquiring into the circumstances finding the house suspiciously silent, notified the police, who broke into the premises and were confronted with the sight of Mrs. Ferdinand's body, partly dressed lying dead on the kitchen floor.

Further search revealed Ferdinand also dead in bed with his two-year-old son alive, but unconscious, his arm around his dead parent's neck. The boy was barely alive, but his legs were frozen to the waist. A new-born baby also dead was lying on the bed, while in a nearby cot the four-year-old son was almost dead, his feet, legs and hands being horribly frozen. No hopes are entertained for the recovery of the two children.

The whole tragedy is still shrouded in mystery, but it appears to be first a case of partial asphyxiation by gas, followed by death due to the intense cold experienced in this section during the past fortnight.

Mrs. Ferdinand had partly robed herself and evidently attempted to light the kitchen fire when the fumes from the coal fire overcame her. When the search party broke into the house there was still a smell of coal gas, which had probably overcome the rest of the family while sleeping, and they froze before aid could reach them.

A YANKEE STORY

About the Weeping Over Marines Going.

Guantanamo, Cuba, Jan. 21.—The United States battleship Missouri has arrived here from Kingston. It was stated, to-day, that Governor Sweettenham held up Saturday night's despatches, from Kingston, regarding his letter requesting Rear-Admiral Davis to re-embark the American marines. Just previous to the departure of the American warships, the mayor and city council of Kingston sent a petition to the admiral begging the latter to remain and the relief committee, headed by Archbishop Nutall, threatened to resign. When the American surgeons left the hospital the patients wept and begged that they and the American warships would stay, and the Red Cross nurses declared that the governor's action in causing the Americans to withdraw was nothing short of criminal.

DECAPITATED IN WINCH.

Well-Known Stevedore Meets Horrible Death.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 21.—A terrible death was met by Wallace Brown, a well-known stevedore, on Saturday morning. He was caught in a winch on the Donaldson liner Athenia and crushed to death. As soon as his perilous position was noticed, word was sent to stop the engine, but before the machine had been brought to a standstill Brown has been twisted around and killed. The body of the unfortunate man was terribly mutilated. Both arms were taken off and also the head. Mr. Brown was one of the best known stevedores in St. John, about thirty-three years of age, and married.

COLE, A FARMER'S BOY.

A Chauffeur Wins An Heiress' Hand.

Syracuse, N.Y., Jan. 21.—Miss Edith Wilber, a wealthy heiress of Oneonta, has been secretly married to her chauffeur, Herbert Cole. Miss Wilber is a graduate of Keble school and Syracuse University, and is worth nearly $1,000,000.

The automobile was bought, last summer, from a Syracuse firm and young Cole, a farmer's boy, with a taste for mechanics, was engaged as chauffeur. With her mother, Miss Wilber took a trip through Southern Europe and the two young persons fell in love. The wedding was a complete surprise to their friends.

THE CASE BEGUN.

Bridant on Trial at Toronto Assizes.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—Edmund Bridant was placed on trial, in the assized, today, on the charge of the murder of his wife, in July last. The woman died, as a result of pills taken by her and the crown will attempt to prove thatthe pills were administered by Bridant. The only witness called, this morning, was Mrs. Collan, a sister of the dead woman, who told of altercations between the husband and wife when the former wanted Mrs. Bridant to take pills.

One trainman was killed and a number of passengers were injured when an east-bound Lake Shore railway passenger train ran into an open switch, late last night, at Riga, Mich., and collided with a freight train, derailing and overturning all of the coaches.

Col. Paskewisky, chief of police, at Lozzna, and formerly chief at Lodz, was assassinated to-day.

At New York, the trial of Harry K. Thaw was, to-day, postponed until Wednesday morning. Thaw was not brought into the court.

The letter of Governor Sweettenham is regarded by the British morning papers as an inexcusable blunder.

Walls Fell In.

Kingstonians who were in Belleville, Sunday, report that the wind storm there was very severe. The walls of the Quinte hotel, destroyed by fire recently, fell in as a result of the wind storm. H. Corby is still absent from Belleville, and it is not known yet whether the hotel will be rebuilt.

Same As Last Year.

Following the idea, so successfully carried out, last year, a series of missionary study classes will be held weekly, during Lent, under the supervision of the officers of the board of W.A. of the diocese of Ontario. The meetings will be in St. George's hall, and will be open to everyone.

Team Ran Away.

A farmer's team ran away on Princess street, near Barrie street, late Saturday night, and created some excitement. The horses had been left standing for considerable time, and wanted to make for home at too lively a pace to suit the driver. They were brought to time before any damage was done.

Died At Hotel Dieu.

Isaac Lipman, son of B. Lipman, University avenue, died, on Saturday night, at the Hotel Dieu, after an illness of three months' duration. The boy was thirteen years of age and death came after a long period of suffering. Deceased was a bright and clever youth and a pupil of the K.C.I. The funeral took place, this morning, from his father's residence to Cataraqui cemetery.

Robinson-Patterson.

The marriage took place, at Rome, N.Y., on January 15th, of Miss Caroline, daughter of John Patterson, formerly of Kingston, and Alexander Robinson. The ceremony was performed in the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. E. B. Topping officiating. The bride was attired in a suit of white Persian lawn, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Jessie Patterson, who was dressed in white organdie, and carried pink carnations.

Useless Smoke Consumer.

Superintendent Hewitt, of the waterworks, has little faith in the smoke consumers on the market, even with all the testimonials they have. One was given several trials at the waterworks' pump house last year, and instead of saving fuel as guaranteed, resulted in more fuel being burned. Within the past month another fuel consumer was tried by the waterworks, and the result was the same—more fuel was consumed. Several of the same smoke consumers are in use in Kingston, and Superintendent Hewitt cannot understand why they are retained, as the waterworks finds them useless.

Is Making Good.

John Ballantyne, janitor, city hall, has received a letter from his brother, William Ballantyne, a former Kingstonian, who has located at Goldfield, Nevada, and who is vice-president of the Goldfield Bank Mining company. Mr. Ballantyne likes it very much there, and is doing well. He expects to realize $100,000 as the result of a deal he has just completed. He says that things are booming there now, and that $5 a day is being paid to every class of labor. Mr. Ballantyne has only been at Goldfield a short time, removing there from Denver. It is twenty-five years since he left Kingston. When here he was employed as a clerk in the grocery store of J. Y. Parkhill.

Had A Fine Time.

The Macdonald Band of Hope held its annual tea and concert Saturday evening, there being present about sixty children. After tea had been served the children gave a concert, and prizes were distributed by Canon Starr, who kindly consented to act as chairman. The prizes distributed were for regular attendance, the winners being Frona Gimblett, Mildred Donaldson, Ira Jarrell, William Jarrell, Louis Smith and Norman Wilson. The prize winners for nominating new members were Hazel Kidd, Mildred Donaldson, Frona Gimblett, Robert Kidd and Katie Carr. Mr. Angrove added greatly to the pleasure of the evening by giving a few selections on his phonograph.

Real Estate Transfers.

Although this is, as a rule, a quiet season in real estate lines, yet there have been quite a number of transfers. Mr. McCann reports the following recent sales:

THE GREAT STORM

MADE BIG WRECKAGE AT NIAGARA FALLS.

The Gorge Railway Will Have to Be Closed For Six Weeks For Repairs—Big Power Plants Not Damaged.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Jan. 21.—The high wind of Saturday night, and yesterday, abated about midnight. This morning's daybreak laid bare the destruction of the high water torrent rushing through the gorge. The double track roadbed of the Gorge route, for about a mile, between the G.T.R. bridge and the whirlpool, has been almost washed out into the river. The total loss will reach $10,000 and the line will have to be closed for traffic for at least six weeks. The loss to the Maid of the Mist docks and buildings, on both sides of the river, will reach $5,000 and to the Hydraulic Power company and electric railway incline, at the falls, another $5,000. The loss to the big power companies will be small, the heavy stone water walls of the intakes and forebays having withstood the strain of the torrents of water that passed out and over the Falls to do the greatest damage in the river below.

Handy For The Iceman.

To-day, some dealers took advantage of the huge pile of ice which the wind drove upon the shore of Macdonald Park, and carted much of it away. It can be used for vat or refrigerator purposes, and will save much money to those who were wise enough in getting a move on and taking a share of it.

We Are Going to Let You In On a Trade Secret

Every Underwear manufacturer in this country has been reluctantly compelled to raise his price this season. Cottons are dearer. Laces are dearer. Embroideries are dearer. Labor is dearer, and there was no other alternative but to raise prices all around. We placed our orders last August before the bigger advances went into effect, consequently we bought at pretty near last year's prices.

You can buy here to the same advantage. That's the secret.

DR. FOOT'S VENTILATED ARCH SUPPORT

AN EXCELLENT APPARATUS FOR A BROKEN DOWN ARCH.

Flat-foot is a scource of misery. When the natural arch is lost, progress becomes difficult and painful, and the sufferer is more or less crippled. The tendency of the defect is, unfortunately, to go from bad to worse as the afflicted person grows in years. In serious cases an actual deformity is produced. The affection is not infrequently brought to the attention of the general practitioner. Both physicians and patients will be glad to learn that in the Ventilated Arch Support mechanical principles have been successfully applied to correct the depression of the arch and to restore an important member to usefulness.

By this device, the sole of the foot is firmly supported, and the arch of bones is gradually raised.
