A Story For Friday Afternoon.

The great Duke of Wellington was one day taking his usual country when he heard a cry of distress. He walked to the spot, and found a chubby, rosy-faced boy lying on the ground, bending his head over a tame toad, and crying as if his heart would break. "What's the matter, my lad?" said the duke. "Oh, please, sir, my poor toad!—I bring it something to eat every morning. But they are going to send me ever so far away to school; nobody will bring it anything to eat when I am gone, and I'm afraid it will die." "Never mind, don't cry, my lad; I'll see that the toad is well fed, and you shall hear about it when you are at school." The boy thanked the gentleman heartily, dried up his tears and went home. During the time he was at school, he received several letters about his toad, and when he returned for his Christmas holidays, the toad was as the duke had said, "alive and well," but in his winter's sleep, in which he remained until the spring and genial weather brought him from his hole in the ground. The noble duke had, however, kept his word.

Oso Station Wedding.

Oso Station, June 13.—The ballast train is doing a rushing business. Frank Barnes has returned from New Ontario. Christ church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 5th, when Miss Mary Pelow and Robert Francis were united in marriage. The bride was attended by Miss Ella Bourk, while Frank Barnes was groomsman. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the groom where a reception was held and a pleasant evening was spent. Much sympathy is expressed to Campbell Greer, over the death of his little girl, aged two years. Frederick Moore, of Perth, spent Sunday, at Mrs. Daniel Hughes.

He Has One.

Youth's Companion.

The agent stepped briskly up to Bronson Howard's desk and laid a small article down close to his busy right hand.

"I have here a new letter-opener," he said, "a handsome article, to be put on the table in your library, and"—

"I have the best letter-opener and the quickest," interrupted Mr. Howard, without turning his head.

"How long have you had it?" persisted the agent. "You know there are constant improvements."

"There's no need for improving mine," responded the writer. "I've had her about two years—anniversary comes next month."

About The Eyes.

Wide open eyes are indicative of rashness.

Small eyes are commonly supposed to indicate cunning.

Side-glancing eyes are always to be distrusted.

An eye, the upper part of which passes horizontally across the pupil indicates mental ability.

Eyes of any color, with weak brows and long, concave lashes, are indicative of a feeble constitution.

Eyes that are wide apart, are said by physiognomists to indicate great intelligence and tenacious memory.

A Summer Costume.

A charming design for a summer costume is here pictured, made of checked French gingham. The V-shaped yoke is the becoming feature; the extension shoulders are also attractive. Tucks are placed in the blouse to give fullness. The sleeves are made three-quarter length, having an embroidered cuff. The skirt is particularly graceful, having nine gores which flare, and two very deep tucks in the bottom. The back is finished with an inverted box pleat.

News From Athens.

Athens, June 13.—The body of the late W. G. McLaughlin, Brockville, formerly of this place, was brought here for burial Tuesday morning last. Ridiculous reports are in circulation regarding the extent and character of the disease, here, called smallpox. Only five house have been quarantined, and in those the so-called patients are about, scarcely knowing they are sick. Until the visit of Dr. Bell, provincial medical health officer, it was thought to be chickenpox, but if smallpox it be, it certainly is of a very mild type, and the people here do not seem to be at all alarmed.

Bread has been reduced in price to five cents a loaf. Sim Manhardt left on Tuesday for military camp at Petawawa.
