Queen Quality

THE FAMOUS SHOE FOR WOMEN

$3.75, 4.00, 4.50, 5.00.

It is natural for the intelligent purchaser to depend more and more upon big trade mark names for security. Take "Queen Quality" Shoes. The reputation of that name has cost a million dollars, and it is worth that to-day. Can the makers afford to stamp that name upon any shoe that didn't deserve it? Can they afford to sacrifice quality? You know it stands for our protection. That's why it easily leads all other Women's Shoes in the world. Just try one pair.

FLINTON NOTES.

Visitor to Old Home After Long Absence.

Flinton, Oct. 2.—A sad death took place at the home of Thomas A. Freeburn, when Jessie McLuckie, wife of Charles Freeburn, passed away, aged twenty-nine years, and leaving two small children and a sorrowing husband. Mrs. Freeburn was taken ill with tonsilitis about eight days ago, and on September 30th, diphtheria set in and she only lived about twelve hours.

Baby girls have arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sedore. Cora Sedore and Mary I. Bryden are on the sick list. Mrs. Joseph Demore, of North Bay, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Fortier. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kirkpatrick and family have left for their home at Battle Creek, Mich. This is Mr. Kirkpatrick's first visit to Ka'adar in thirteen years, to parents, sisters and brother. Walter Thompson, of Dresden, who visited relatives in and around Flinton for two weeks, left for his home on September 23rd. Several of our young men left for Sudbury and Peterboro, to work in lumber woods. Almonte Hasler has gone to Sault Ste. Marie on a visit. Benjamin Clarke, of Lost Channel, is visiting James Maurisett.

The death occurred at Flinton September 27th, of Susanna Vanalstine, wife of Leonard Clark, aged eighty years. She had been for some time feeling the weight of age, enduring her sickness with patience and heavenly hope. Though of a retiring nature she was always pleased to see her friends of which she had many. The funeral was largely attended. Left mourning are eight children, Finley and Manley, of Michigan; Richard of Newmarket; Philip of Tweed; Frank and Malcolm, of Kaladar; Mrs. Haight, of Boston; Mrs. Edward Grove, of Chaumont, N.Y.; Mrs. James Maurisett, of Flinton. She was born in Prince Edward county and was married there sixty years ago, to Leonard Clark, moving to Kaladar in her early married life, and raising her large family in the pine forest. A God-fearing mother, having children who honored her. Her husband is very ill of cancer, bearing nobly the pain and fatigue, yet longing to be at rest.

Ladies' Blouse.

Useful and pretty is this simple blouse, which is made of cashmere with braiding used as an embroidery, which is one of the new features of the season. The blouse can be made plain and the braid put on to form the jumper, or a jumper can be made and trimmed with braid. The jumper worn over a fine lingerie waist makes a handsome blouse.

An Exile's Toast.

C. Leland Armstrong, in Canadian Magazine.

Here's a toast to Canada,
From across the line,
Drunk in pure cold water,
Better, far, than wine;
Sing me not of other climes;
'Till my voice be done,
I will sing her winter snow;
Sing her summer sun,
Fertile field and bulging sheaf
And hearts to guard the Maple Leaf.

Here's a toast to Canada:
May the kindest sky
Smile upon her golden fields,
Smile eternally.
Loving hearts to guide her,
Loyal hearts to guard;
Know she nought of war-cloud,
Nought of iron shard;
But by the good that's in her
Make friend instead of foe,
Our little baby nation—
God teach her how to grow,

That's my toast to Canada—
Weak her smile to share.
But deepest songs oft choke the voice
When all the soul is there.
That's my toast to Canada,
From here across the line,
Drunk in pure cold water,
Better, far, than wine
Sing me not of other climes;
'Till my breath be done,
I will sing her winter snow;
Sing her summer sun,
Fertile field and bulging sheaf
And hearts to guard the Maple Leaf.
