

Region Job Fair Oct. 15

Halton Region will be hosting its annual job fair on Thursday, October 15, from 12 to 5 at the Burlington Convention Centre, 1120 Burloak Drive, Burlington. The job fair is open to the public and will include many employers from across Halton. Admission is free.

"The annual job fair is one of the ways we connect job seekers and employers in Halton," said Halton Regional Chair Gary Carr. "We encourage those of you interested in finding employment or exploring new job opportunities to take advantage of the opportunity to meet one-on-one with the many employers participating in this year's job fair."

In 2008, over 1,200 skilled and motivated job seekers networked with over 60 employers from across Halton at the job fair. It is anticipated that the number of job seekers and employers attending this year's job fair will far exceed the numbers set last year. In addition to the opportunity to meet with employers in Halton, job seekers attending the job fair can have their résumés assessed for free.

Among the employers that have registered for the event are: Avon Canada, Blockbuster Canada, Cogeco Cable LP, Conservation Halton, Community Living Oakville, Evertz Microsystems Ltd, First Student Canada, Fortinos (South Oakville and Burlington), GoodLife Fitness, Halton Region, Halton Regional Police, HomeWell Senior Care, idig Marketing, Ippolito Group, Joanne Fabrics Inc., Laura Canada, National Wireless-Bell World, Participation House - Hamilton & District, Primerica Financial Services, Sun Life Financial, The Bay (Burlington), The TDL Group Corp., Tim Horton Children's Foundation, YMCA of Hamilton/Burlington/Brantford, and Vector Marketing.
