Almost 100 people enjoyed the British social evening at the Acton Seniors Centre

last Tuesday. Kent Tocher provided great music and during a lull in the evening several members got up and did an energetic "Knees up Mother Brown," much to the amusement of the crowd. No, the sherry in the trifle didn't affect the dancing! The door prizes carried on the British theme, and were purchased at the recently opened British store in Acton named Sweet

Molly's. Ann Anderson-

Wilcox won her dinner ticket at our new member's tea, and it certainly was lucky, as she won the first door prize drawn at the dinner. Other winners were Joyce Erskine, Frances Hogenbirk, Dorothy Rognv-aldson, Catherine Hunt, Nina

Palichuk, Kris Bruce, Helen

Jocque, Maureen Krasznai,

Siena Ancker, and the 50/50 little later due to a trip to the Seneca Casino, Niagara Falls,

U.S.A. Luckily, there were no hold ups even though they were "strip searched" and had to get off the coach and go through customs going and returning, so they arrived shortly after the meal was be-

I understand there were several people with large smiles, especially one gentle man who had to leave some of his winnings at the Casino (taxes). Everyone enjoyed the day, and I understand the ing served.

Green's word not mine).

Our next social dinner will be the Christmas Lunch and will be held at Blue Springs Golf Course. Everyone is looking forward to that. Tickets are on sale at the front desk. Thinking of tickets, have you purchased yours for the beautiful painting by Maria Sallay? The winning ticket will be drawn at the Christmas lunch. Last Thursday afternoon at Last Thursday afternoon at Bid Euchre, Mae Milton and Ruth Burke had two mooners and Shirley Hunter one.

Next time you are in, don't forget to buy some penny table tickets and double your chances of winning one of the beautiful prizes, which will be on display at the Bazaar on Saturday November 27.

Thinking of events that are taking place in December reminds me that many of our members will be taking off for warmer climates shortly. Don't forget that membership should be renewed before the end of December.

We received a beautiful hand crafted Remembrance Day card signed by the 2nd Acton Sparks last week. We have it on display for everyone to enjoy. What a lovely thought. Thank you Sparks and your thoughtful leaders.

Thinking of Remembrance Day, I was honoured again this year to lay the Acton Seniors Recreation Centre's wreath as our President Mary Walsma had other commitments. It was inspiring to see so many people, and children taking time out of their busy lives to honour our veterans in this way.

This year Acton High School student Kaylee Kearns was the worthy recipient of the Acton Seniors Recreational Centre's award for the student achieving the most volunteer hours. (Over 100 hours). Kaylee wasn't able to attend the presentation due to mid terms, but will receive the award shortly.

There will be no movie this Tuesday due to a SALT meeting in the morning, and a SALT (Seniors and the Law Together) presentation in the afternoon at 1 p.m. This presentation is about using medications correctly, the latest Government available programs, driving information that may shock you and from the Halton Regional Police an update on the latest scams. SALT presentations are always very informative.

The following week November 30, the movie will be The Bishops Wife, starting at 10 a.m.

On Friday evening, 19 members and one grand-daughter enjoyed the dinner theatre at Mohawk. The play was very funny, and everyone enjoyed the show. Everyone is looking forward to the next visit in early March to see "Naughty Knickers."

The 50/50 was won for the third week in a row. Betty Holmes will have an extra $70 to spend on Christmas gifts this year.
