Synopsis of Canadian Northwest

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-West Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

An application for entry or cancellation made personally at any sub-agent's office may be wired to the Agent by the Sub-agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land applied for is vacant on receipt of the telegram such application is to have priority and the land will be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

In case of "personation" or fraud the applicant will forfeit all priority of claim or if entry has been granted it will be summarily cancelled.

An application for cancellation must be made in person. The applicant must be eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for cancellation will be received from an individual until that application has been disposed of.

Where an entry is cancelled subsequent to institution of cancellation proceedings, the applicant for cancellation will be entitled to prior right of entry.

Applicant for cancellation must state in his particulars the homesteader is in default.

A homesteader whose entry is not the subject of cancellation proceedings may subject to the approval of Department, relinquish it in favor of father mother, son, daughter, brother or sister if eligible, but to no one else, on filing declaration of abandonment.

DUTIES—A settler is required to perform the duties under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother.)

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line exclusive of the width of road allowance crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

WAS A TOTAL WRECK FROM HEART FAILURE.

Heart disease is characterized by its stealthy approach and its variety of forms, yet in all its forms nature gives unmistakable signals which warn us of its presence.

One of the first danger signals announcing something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or, again there may be the most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries. You may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond all question, marvellous. They give such prompt relief, such speedy restoration to health that no one need suffer.

Mr. Darius Carr, Geary, N.B., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure I write you a few lines to let you know the great blessing your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been to me. I was a total wreck from heart failure, my wife advised me to take your pills, and, after using two boxes I was restored to perfect health. I am now sixty-two years old and feel almost as well as I did at twenty."

NEW BREAD BY-LAW

TO COME INTO EFFECT ON JULY 1ST NEXT

It Was Recently Passed By the Ontario Legislature—The Various Standards—The Penalties Imposed.

No person shall make bread for sale, or offer bread for sale outside of the municipality wherein the same was made, other than fancy bread, except in loaves weighing either one and one-half pounds or three pounds avoirdupois. Loaves of such weight shall be known as standard bread.

Any person using a label in connection with the sale of standard bread shall affix or attach such label to the bottom of each loaf before the baking of the same, and such label shall show the name of the maker of the loaf, its weight, and that the bread is standard bread.

Fancy bread shall mean any bread which, in addition to any ingredient in the flour, contains either an extra two per cent. or more of sugar with an extra two per cent. or more of shortening, or an extra two per cent. or more of the solids of milk, the percentage being in proportion to the weight of flour used therein.

No person shall make fancy bread for sale, or offer fancy bread for sale outside of the municipality wherein the same was made, except in loaves weighing either sixteen ounces or twenty ounces avoirdupois each, and every person making fancy bread for sale shall affix or attach to the bottom of each loaf before or during the baking of the same a label showing the name of the maker, the weight of the loaf, and that the bread is fancy bread.

Everyone who makes bread for sale shall keep in a conspicuous and convenient place in the building or other working premises, scales and weights suitable for weighing bread, and shall weigh the bread offered for sale by him at the request of any person desiring to purchase such bread, and shall, when requested, permit such scales to be used by the inspector or inspectors appointed as hereinafter provided.

No person making bread for sale shall use any adulterant or deleterious material therein, nor shall any person sell or offer for sale any bread containing any such adulterant or deleterious material.

The council of any municipality may appoint an inspector or inspectors who shall have power to enter any building or other premises where bread is made, and there to weigh the bread, and to inspect or test the bread for the purpose of discovering whether any adulterant or deleterious material has been used in the making thereof, and to seize or remove any bread which is lighter than the proper weight thereof as aforesaid, or which contains any adulterant or deleterious material, and to dispose of any bread so seized or removed as the said council may from time to time direct; provided that any bread made for sale which is sent outside of the municipality wherein the same was made may, wherever offered for sale, be weighed, inspected, tested and seized as hereinbefore provided by any officer of the municipality to whom the duty of inspection may be assigned.

Notwithstanding that any loaf weighing less than the proper weight thereof as aforesaid shall be subject to seizure, the person making the same shall not be liable to any other penalty under this act for short weight, unless any ten loaves made by him which the inspector may select when weighed together shall fall below the aggregate of the full weight required by the act.

The certificate of the secretary or of the analyst or the assistant analyst of the provincial board of health, given in writing, shall be prima facie evidence of the ingredients and quantities thereof contained in any bread submitted to the provincial board of health for analysis, and shall be receivable in evidence without proof of the signature or of the official character of the secretary or the analyst or assistant analyst of the provincial board of health appearing to have signed the same and without further proof thereof in all legal proceedings under this act.

Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this act shall incur a penalty not exceeding $5, besides costs, which shall include any expenses incurred in procuring an analysis, and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, unless such penalty and costs are sooner paid. The Ontario summary convictions act shall apply to prosecutions under this act.

This act shall come into force on the first day of July, 1908.

Point Road News.

Point Road, April 15.—It will be some time before the farmers start their seeding, if a change soon does not take place. Sugar and syrup-making is about over. The tappers had a fairly good run, although the weather was not favorable. P. Fowler sold his handsome whale bone colt for a handsome sum, to Rev. Father Grey, Toledo. There were a number of traps stolen down the Rideau, on Sunday afternoon; by a bunch of boys who are known, and it will be made hot for them if they do not return the stolen goods. Miss Eaton, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks, as the guest of Miss Hamilton, Gore. G. Walker, ill for some time, is fully recovered. A. Leheup is training his trotting horse for the May races. Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett spent Sunday in Glenburnie, visiting friends.

The Students Leaving.

Many of the examinations are now over and the students are leaving for their homes, but before doing so they are providing themselves with Campbell's nobby derbies. They realize that nowhere else can they choose from such a large, up-to-date stock and get such all round satisfaction as at Campbell Bros'.

The Ottawa police have taken into custody a girl sixteen years of age, who was caught stealing from the parlors of Bank Street Presbyterian church.

A PLEASANT CEILEIDH.

Fine Meetin' O' the Sons of Scotland.

Contributed.

Does the hairt o' a true Scot warm up wi' freendly glow tae that o' brither Scot? Does his bluid tingle an loup at the soun' o' the pibroch? And can "croonin' o'er some auld Scotch sonnet" rouse his "native feelings strong"? Ooch ay! Ah, weel! then ye can a' understan hoo the members o' Sir William Wallace Camp, Sons o' Scotland, felt on a Monday micht last, when a wheen o' their brethren frae Rob Roy camp, Belleville, made them arecht guid hairty ceileih. The veesiting deputation conseested o' the deputy grand maister, Mr. McIntosh (dinne mor an sin), his brither, the present chief of Rob Roy camp, wi' his pipes, and Messrs. Johnson, 'ain o' the latter also "squeezes in his oxster the blether o' a sheep." An ma conscience! ye ought tae hear the bletherin o't! Mr. Johnson hails from Dundee; alten bore the gree frae Wullie McLennan, Wullie Murray, late o' Edinborough and Dundee, and played before royalty. Then sure as daith! he's no sae hielant. Hoot mon! his vera instrument is a secht in itsel'—saxty pounds sterlin' was the tune for 'the piper tae play.! I'm no tellin' a lee!

"Oh my! Ye ought tae see McKay
And we, fon we were in our glory;
We would aboot thegither
Mang the bonny purple heather
Far ewa above the hills o' Tabermory."

The object, I may say, o' this sociable vessit was tae centerest the Celts o' Kingston in a gran' celebration at Belleville, in a momentous gaitherin' o' the clans, leevin' in Eastern Ontario. It's tae tak place some time in the latter pairt o' August. "Weil ye go, lassie go, tae the braes o' Balquidder?" Nae doot, Kingston, wull dae an excursion tae Belleville on the day appinted. Mind, I'm tellin' yo, this wull be an August assambly o' Scotsmen tae put the shot, toss the caber, dance the sean trews and a' that.

But wi my bletherskite, am no minin' tae tell ye the proceedins. Hoo prood we a' felt o' our chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Mackie! For he greeted sae kindly a welcome tae our guests; he thankit sae graceful the Rob Roy camp for a handsome giftie to the rebuildin' o' the auld cathedral o' Iona, o' whilk noble undertakin' oor worthy chaplain is a most airnest champion—naebody e'er speired the Belleville brethren for a wawbee mind, and above all, he was sae happy and four-square in his stan' towards such topics as sociable gaitherins, includin' even a herty, holesome Hieland reel. Oor ain worthy chief, H. Aitken, acqueeted himsel' creditably as director o' a' the dooin's. Speeches, a store o' them, seemply flowed frae Ald. Craig and Nickle and Mayor Ross. Ye see, they juist cam' in het foot frae sustainin' the brunt o' an attack upon the elm trees doon on George street. At ony rate, they were a' in guid fettle for a recetation frae Davie Scott on "a tree-bute to the bagpipes." Diana ye like tae land yer lug tae the music (I'm no alludin' tae the pipes) o' the braid Scots vooels.? I'm no vera fu' o' wunder at the wean wha wadna gang—coukna gang—tae sleep for listenin' tae the sweet saft voice o' her mither in the guid auld Scottish tongue. Brither Scott renders the Scotch in vera expressive style, (I wad like it if he could gar this goosequill o' mine tae speak recht on as glibly as his ain' tongue.)

I mauna forget to tell o' Brither Tammas McKenzie's recetation in the oreegnal man, Adam's, vernacular. Diana ask me the meanin' o't, for it seemed tae be done a'richt only that our Brither Tammas, maybe, stairted at the wrong end o't. Bheil thu' tigninn, mo ghradh? Brother J. F. Ramsay favored us wi' a medley made up o' nae less than saxteen sangs—the merry ones, shouter to shouter wi' the laments. Juist when we expeckit a last line o' some fine auld chorus, he wad "turn a corner jinkin'," and littin wi' a lass like Maggie Lauder or Kate Dalrumple! But, ye see, it was Ramsay's Tea Table Miscellany, dae ye ken! Brother Stuart, who juist jined oor thrang last nicht, sang a song on a Belleville police.

At the close o' this vera pleasant ceileidh, a' those present mairched tae a stirrin' tune down tae the station and bade the veesitors a' guid nicht and a guid bye.
