DOINGS AT DENBIGH.

No Teacher for School—Workmen Are Scarce.

Denbigh, Sept. 20.—Melbourne Rose, with his steam outfit, is threshing in this vicinity, while J. Vorin, of Griffith, with his horsepower, is threshing for the farmers in the Swamp Road and Slate Falls Settlement. A good yield of grain is reported, except of pease, which have been a very poor crop here this season. Most of the farmers have commenced plowing and a few have begun to dig potatoes, which are not near so prolific a crop as last season. Nevertheless, your correspondent was shown a monster potato, grown on E. Sallan's farm, which, with its protuberances, measured nineteen inches in circumference one way, and twenty-one inches another way.

The pupils of the village school are enjoying an extra vacation, much to the regret and dissatisfaction of their parents, because the trustees have as yet not succeeded in securing the services of a competent teacher, though they are offering a liberal increase to the salary heretofore paid.

Thomas Pringle, who has been home attending to his harvest, has returned to Temiskaming, and J. S. Lane left last Thursday, for North Bay, where he has some business interests to look after. David Youmans, Jr., of Cache Bay, has arrived on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Youmans, and is also trying to engage men to work in the bush. Workingmen are, however, getting scarce in the neighborhood, as several agents of other lumber firms have been through here already this fall, hiring men.

A political meeting in the interest of the conservative party, is to be held in Boths' hall, here, to-morrow evening, at which several prominent public speakers are expected.

IS MAKING ADVANCES

TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT IS SAID TO BE GAINING.

But Doctor Declares This Does Not Mean That Europeans Favor Prohibition.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Europe no longer is the haunt of the toper, according to Dr. Max Henius, of Chicago, who has returned from the first international congress of brewing at Brussels. "Signs of a powerful temperance movement in Europe were manifested by the attendance of 600 delegates to the convention." Dr. Henius said. "Denmark has taken the lead. There the government does not tax beverages, containing less than two and one-half per cent. alcohol, while it does tax, and heavily, too, all other drinks. The brewers, both here and abroad, will back temperance. There is no doubt that drunkenness is the world's greatest curse. On the other hand, however, they do not want prohibition because beer drunk in moderate quantities, they believe, is not harmful."

GANANOQUE GIRLS WED.

Two Went West to Meet Their Husbands-to-be.

Gananoque, Sept. 22.—The autumnal season was ushered in, yesterday, by a series of events of great importance to a goodly number of residents of this section. At 6 a.m., at St. John's Roman Catholic church, Mrs. Clement, widow of the late William Clement, of this town, was united in marriage to Michael Goodfriend, of Chaumont Bay, N.Y. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. P. Kehoe, a nuptial mass was celebrated, after which Mr. and Mrs. Goodfriend left for Kingston, and thence to Chaumont Bay, where they will take up their residence.

Miss Edythe Mae Berry, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Berry, Charles street, accompanied by her sister, left for Niagara Falls, yesterday morning, and on their arrival were met by Joseph G. Courtenay, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Courtenay, Princess street, in charge of the electrical plant at Niagara Falls, N.Y., where the bonds of holy matrimony were celebrated between them.

At Edmonton, Alta., Miss Elizabeth Edna Acton, daughter of James A. Acton, King street, Gananoque, was united in marriage to John McLaren, of the staff of the Edmonton Journal, and son of Rev. and Mrs. J. McLaren, of Montreal. The bride was formerly one of Gananoque's popular young ladies.

An interesting house wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. C. E. Beerman, King street, when her only daughter, Miss Lulu Mae Beerman, was united in marriage to Cecil Norris Palmer, superintendent of the J. D. McArthur company's works, of Brockville. The ceremony was performed in the parlor under a dainty arch of pink and white asters, and banked with ferns, before the immediate relatives and intimates of the contracting parties, by Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, pastor of Grace church. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. C. H. Hurd. The bride was gowned in an exquisite creation of white embroidered lace net over taffeta, and carried an elaborate bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, being assisted by her cousin, little Miss Jessie Gould, with her bouquet, and being otherwise unattended. A large number of handsome and valuable presents, in useful articles, and also cash, gave evidence of the bride's popularity among her large circle of friends. After the ceremony a dainty dinner was served. The bride's going-away gown was a handsome tailored blue broadcloth, with hat to match. At 7.30 Mr. and Mrs. Palmer took the eastbound train for Brockville, where they will make their home. The bride was an ex-pupil of Gananoque high school and also a graduate of Brockville Business College and a teacher in the primary department of Grace Sabbath school.

The steamer Missisquoi ran an excursion to Ogdensburg fair, yesterday, which was, however, rather lightly patronized. The summer resorts in this locality have been emptied rapidly during the past few days. The coal schooner Horace Taber arrived, yesterday, from Oswego, with a cargo of coal.

Eagle Hill Echoes.

Eagle Hill, Sept. 21.—School opened, Monday last, with a good attendance, the teacher, Miss Banford, being much improved in health. Mrs. H. Pettefer spent Saturday at Myer's Cave. H. Pettefer returned home with her on Sunday to take charge of his thresher. W. Thompson, Slate Falls, purchased a fine lot of calves from S. Drysdale. Max Muske made a trip to Cloyne, Saturday last, accompanied by his two sons, Eugene and Leopolt. N. Ready is shingling his new grapary. T. Lindsay purchased a fine cow from D. Cliem, Denbigh; Miss Frieda Mieske is on the sick list. Visitors: Mrs. Reid at James Irvine's; Miss F. Banford and Miss C. Armstrong at M. Ready's; Mrs. M. Ready at W. John's; I. Thompson, Slate Falls, at H. Pettifer's; Mrs. Robert Slater, Slate Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Lindsay at A. Armstrong's.
