ONLY MONEY WILL INDUCE HER TO WED.

Ohio Woman Once Jilted Says She Will Marry Man With the Most Cash.

Zanesville, Ohio, Nov. 21.—"Money is the only thing that will induce me to marry," is a remark which Miss Lorette Roberts is said, to have made ten years ago, after her $20,000 breach of promise suit against former County Auditor James L. Starkey. While the jury returned a verdict of $10,000 in Miss Roberts' favor, Starkey departed the night before the verdict was returned and has never been seen in Zanesville since.

At that time Miss Roberts, an artist, was one of the city's most popular young society women. As a result of the sensational developments of that trial, she has lived a secluded life. Now, however, she is a principal in another romance and is going to California for the express purpose of becoming the wife of H. A. Welty, a wealthy land owner of Grenalis, Cal.

William Moore, a Crooksville electrician whom she is said to have been engaged to, and who had even gone so far as to have his wedding suit made and many household furnishings purchased, is also speeding toward the Golden Gate, not, however, in pursuit of Miss Roberts, but to find solace for an aching heart.

The first that Moore knew of Miss Robert's departure was when he, with two friends, drove to her country home to see her, and there learned that she had suddenly changed her mind.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Young Lady Expires at Social Gathering.

Brockville, Nov. 21.—Miss Margaret Thorpe, a popular young resident of Throoptown, while attending a party at Garreton, on Friday night, was taken suddenly ill and died before a doctor could be called. The deceased was in her usual good health up to the time of the fatal attack and entered into the spirit of the gathering with hearty enthusiasm.

Miss Thorpe was a daughter of the late James Thorpe and was about twenty-five years of age. Besides her mother she leaves one brother, George Thorpe, a sailor on the upper lakes. Miss Thorpe was to have been married shortly.

Wilson, B.A., pastor of the Lindsay church, has accepted an invitation to Napanee. Dr. Shorey is very popular with his congregation here, where he is completing his fourth year's pastorate.

BOOK BARES LOVE'S DREAM.

Gets Tender Epistle After Hidden Twelve Years.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 21.—That there are many rare things in old books has been proved to the satisfaction of Miss Julia Emery, now a teacher in the public schools, and Alfred E. Kent, deputy county treasurer.

Twelve years ago Mr. Kent, with other youths, was in love with Miss Emery, who, as the story goes, "loved" another. While skating with Kent's rival, Miss Emery collided with Kent, but failed to beg his pardon. This led to complications in the young man's mind as to how he stood. Taking advantage of a few spare moments next day in school, he penned an epistle, which was placed in an envelope and sealed. Then something happened, just what no one will ever know.

However, the letter never reached its destination until recently, when a book was taken from the supply room of the school board and sent to the Houghton school. It was opened and a letter dropped out. The address was plain, so a messenger was despatched with the letter to Miss Emery, who read it over carefully. The school teachers with whom she talked regarding the "case" of her youth had a good laugh, as Mr. Kent is now married and has a fine baby boy.

HUNDREDS IN THIS FAMILY.

Has 518 Descendants—None Ever in Prison.

McKee, Ky., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Jane Morris, of Jackson county, now eighty-six years old, is believed to have more descendants than any other woman living. They number 518. None of them has ever been in a prison or a school for reform.

She had fifteen children. Her grandchildren number 128, great-grandchildren 326 and great-great-grandchildren forty-nine.

She was married when sixteen years old, and her husband lived until six years after they had celebrated their golden wedding.

One of her daughters, Mrs. Hannah Lake, has sixteen children, seventy-six grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. Another daughter, Mrs. Sally Sparks, has fifteen children, twenty-nine grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren.

The Best Known Portrait.

Literary Times.

In a discussion as to what is the most common and familiar portrait in the world, writes Arthur Loring Bruce, one man was sure Raphael's Sistine Madonna was the best known portrait in the world. Another was all for Leonardo's Mona Lisa. Still another contended that no likeness was so universally known as that of King Edward on the coins of Great Britain. The sphinx was mentioned and the Venus of Milo. The discussion was growing warm when a mild and callow youth chirped up with:

"You are all wrong! All of you! The best known portrait in the world is the Queen of Spades."

He then proceeded to prove what, it seems, is common knowledge among the cognoscenti, namely: that the queen of spades is a bona fide likeness of the late Queen Anne of Britain. It seems that somewhere about 1719 the English and European stationers fixed on the image of the queen of England as a suitable one to inscribe on their playing cards. For 200 years or more her face has looked out at us, not altogether unpleasantly—particularly in bezique—from the depths of the pack. How much longer, we wonder, will her physiognomy be shuffled down the corridors of time?

Plea of a Purist.

Boston Transcript.

Thus writes a purist of Dorchester: "For the honor of Boston culture will you not call attention to the proper pronunciation of the new vocabulary concerning airships? Positively, it sets one's teech on edge to hear about 'a-re-o-planes' and 'a-re-o-nots,' to say nothing of 'Bleerotts' and 'bip-lanes' and avay-shun.' It is bad enough to see 'airplanes' in bold type, but 'a-reo-planes' is tough. Say a word, too, about that terrible new coinage 'onto.' When the brave 'a-re-o-not' gets up 'onto his car,' it is really pretty bad, but no so dangerous as to get up 'onto his hanger.' And while you are about it, do ask 'em to take time to say 'telephone' and not that dreadful 'phone.' She who 'phones' so often wears a gigantic coiffure and somewhat germy fillet, and exhibits a vast amount of dentistry for the money. And ask her, too, not to buy a 'rimlet' of 'voyel' for her dress, nor to take 'Pohanna Hoff' if she wishes to 'rejuce.'"

The Foolish Virgin.

San Francisco Star.

"We should always be prepared," said H. K. Adair, the San Francisco detective, in an interview in New York, "and then we will miss nothing.

"You've heard, perhaps, of the young lady who said, as she sipped her tea:

"'I've just had such a dreadful experience.'

"'A dreadful experience?' asked another young lady.

"'Yes,' was the reply. 'I saw a splendid bargain in shoes downtown, and had a hole in my stocking.'"

Heir Thought Dead Returns.

Mount Vernon, Ill., Nov. 21.—W. J. Partridge, who has for years been mourned as dead, has returned from the Philippines to claim part of an estate left him by relatives, but divided among other heirs. The news came several years ago that he had been butchered by Moros in the Philippines. Partridge had spent much of his time in roving over Hawaii, China, Japan, Borneo and the Philippines.

Stole East Indian's Wad.

Quebec, Nov. 21.—Wadowa Singh, a merchant prince, of Lahore, India, arrived in Quebec, yesterday, and was relieved of $600 by two individuals with whom he went about sight-seeing. Mr. Singh is a distinguished looking man and all eyes were attracted to him as he passed through the street, arrayed in the gorgeous dress of his native country.

VERY BAD HUSBAND

ACCUSED OF SETTING HIS WIFE ON FIRE.

Ela Smith, of Benton Harbor, Mich., Was Himself Burned a Few Days Ago at Time Wife Died.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Nov. 21.—Ela Smith, sixty years old, husband of the woman who two days ago received burns, when her clothing caught fire, from which she died, now rests in a cell in the county jail, charged with the murder of his wife. His arrest came after developments which led Prosecutor Andrews to believe that instead of Mrs. Smith being the victim of an accident, she had died from burns caused by flames which her own husband had started.

Smith recently served a ninety-day sentence at the county jail for wife beating.

AUTUMN REFLECTIONS.

Companionship of a Good Book or Paper a Blessing.

By Prof. Paul Denys.

Pardon me if I beg to unfold my spirit before the frequent tears shed by the spheres of late, with, now and then, a smile from old Sol and a flake or two of the beautiful by way of diversion, which shows what Canada can do when she wants to. It stands to reason that we can't be ever sending bouquets to Crippen or dilate on events in Drummond and Oyster Bay, and the seeming fickleness in Miss Canada's weather tastes, proves a welcome theme for innocent words. It also enables us to observe that no matter how inclement the temperature, you will find the gentleman of the street corner persuasion undaunted, nay, superb in his staying qualities, finding fortitude sufficient even to whistle—an art I always admired. True, the while and to complete the picture, he has his hands in his pockets, which perhaps is better than having them in his neighbor's, yet forcing the reflection that, after all, man's happiness must largely be a matter of temperament.

But in these dark, dreary autumnal days, with leafless trees and flowerless terraces and the raw wind moaning at your window, what can you do if you have not learned to value the companionship of a good book or a good paper. You may be great or you may not, but no matter what, little vexations, troubles, contrarieties will, in spite of all, creep into your life—the more readily if you are of a gentle, sensitive nature—and cloud its course, and fortunate will it be if, loving those friends who are never false—books—you ask their aid, for they will lift you into an atmosphere of higher, nobler thoughts and truths!

I would, likewise, cheerfully chant a paean for the public press, that "pulpit on wings," and "first power in the land" as fittingly called in turn by two eminent divines. How lonesome we are when fails the mail to bring us our morning "quotidien," or if the local evening journal with its budget of news "about people we know," is so much as an hour late. Besides, he who reads not, knows not, and not to know in this age of intense light and life and progress, is almost a crime.

Neither could it do to expect clothes however chic, to cut all the ice. My old chum, Prof. Huxley, exacted a little more when he said: "Let your intellect having compassed knowledge, be a clear, cold, logical engine with all its parts of equal strength and in smooth working order, ready to spin gossamers or forge anchors, and your body a trained servant to it." I would wish to have seen something about the heart in that definition, yet it calls for more than smart garment to make a man, and goes a bit higher than the little chap had reached when he won the medal at school. Being asked by his proud father how he had carried off the prize, "I answered the question," was the no less proud response. And what was the question, Sonny? "How many legs has a cat?" And what did you answer? "I answered three." Heavens! and you won! "Why, yes, pa; the other boys said two!"

BRANDON INSANE ASYLUM.

Fireproof Building Will Replace One Destroyed.

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—The rebuilding of the Brandon insane asylum, recently destroyed by fire, will be commenced as soon as the plans, now under way, are completed, and the new building will be ready for occupancy within twelve months. The plan provides for a central building with radiating wings for patients' wards, to be nowhere more than two stories in height and absolutely fireproof.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Spark From Stove Ignited Little Girl's Dress.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 22.—The two-year-old child of Benjamin Welsh, of the Island railway, was burned to death at Ionia. Two children were sitting alone by the wood stove, when a spark fell and ignited the little one's dress. Two neighbors who were passing heard cries, and rushed to her aid, but she was so badly burned that death soon came.

Don't Say You're Old.
You only feel old.
Digestive organs are weak—don't assimilate food as they used to.
Other organs act more slowly and less effectually.
Blood is thin and sluggish.
Renewal of strength does not equal the wear and tear of your system.
That's what makes you feel old.
Nothing in the world will tone up and invigorate those weak, backsliding organs, make rich blood and create strength so quickly as Vinol.
Vinol is not a secret nostrum, simply the medicinal elements of the cods' livers, with the useless nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not make you stronger, feel younger and give you an added interest in life. G. W. Mahood.

THE SPORT REVIEW.

Notes on Baseball and Other Field Events.

Toronto ball club has sold Pitcher Newton to Louisville and Pitcher Lundgren to Topeka, Kan.

Varsity will likely charter the steamer Turbinia to take their rooters up to Hamilton Saturday.

Hamilton Tigers have invited T.A.A.C. to be their guests at the game with Varsity in Hamilton next Saturday.

The Varsity-T.A.A.C. gate amounted to about $3,900, which was divided between the teams after the expenses of the game had been deducted.

At Paris, France, Sam McVey, the colored heavyweight, knocked out Battling Jim Johnson in the twenty-first round of a fight for the championship of Europe.

By defeating Minnesota 6 to 0 Michigan claims the Western States football championship. The Michigan men were a little faster in returning punts and much more expert in handling the forward pass.

By defeating New York university 9 to 0 the Navy closed the season of 1910, so far as games on the home field are concerned. Next week the midshipmen will close their schedule when they meet West Point at Philadelphia.

At the New York horse show the Siftons, of Ottawa, got away with the first, second and fourth in the class for jumpers taking six fences. Ironside, entered by Wilfrid Sifton, made best showing on the field and was given the first prize. Ironside was fourth in the high jump.

The official record of the American baseball league shows Cobb's batting average for 1910 to be .385, and Lajoie's .384. Philadelphia heads the clubs in batting with .265, Chicago being last with .212. Lajoie played in the greatest number of games of any player in the league, his record being 591 times at bat in 159 games.

"Jack" Johnson's nervous breakdown is not a surprise to the general sporting public. Ever since the negro defeated Tommy Burns in Australia two years ago Christmas he has been hitting only the high spots. Unless Johnson turns over a new leaf and takes care of his physical condition it will not be long before there's another world's heavyweight champion.

The following is the official decision of the Canadian Rugby Union regarding the junior and intermediate final games: The Interprovincial junior champions, Hamilton III, will play the winners of the Junior O.R.F.U. series, Alerts, at Petrolea, the winners of that game to play Quebec Union champions on Quebec grounds. Intermediate series, Quebec winners will play R.M.C. in Kingston next Saturday.

Toronto Mail-Empire: For Royal Military College Robertson, at centre-half, was undoubtedly the star, and probably the best man on their team. His punting was accurate, he handled kicks faultlessly and ran and dodged in grand fashion. Galt, the cadets' back, was also in the limelight by reason of his clever running and catching. Gwynne, at outside, did some brilliant tackling, and the bucking of Roberts, Arnoldi and Goldie was a feature.

Under the name of the "Interprovincial Amateur Hockey Union of Canada" there will be a league in four sections, the Central, composed of the old Interprovincial Union clubs, with the Ottawa Second or New Edinburgh club taking the place of Toronto A.A.C.; the Eastern section, to be composed of the clubs of the St. Lawrence league; the Western section, to be composed of the clubs of the Manitoba Northwestern League, and, finally, the Ontario section, which is to be organized by the Toronto A.A.C.

A HAPPY EVENT.

Was the Double Wedding at Harrowsmith.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, Harrowsmith, was the scene of a happy event, on November 2nd, when two of its most popular young ladies became brides. Promptly at the hour of eleven o'clock, and to the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Mrs. Waddell, the groom, Harry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, entered the drawing-room and took his place beneath a pretty arch of evergreens and flowers. He was immediately joined by the bride, Miss Lillie Tallen. The impressive wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Waddell, in the presence of about fifty invited guests. They were attended by Miss Lillian Walker and J. H. Hughes.

This was immediately followed by the marriage of Miss L. Walker, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, and John H. Hughes, a prosperous young farmer of Pleasant Valley. Miss Walker is highly esteemed, and will be greatly missed by the young people of the village.

Both brides were dressed alike, in dark gray ladies' cloth, trimmed with guimpe and overlace, with hats to match.

After the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining-room, where a sumptuous dinner was prepared for them. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers and laden with the best things of life. After partaking of these good things, the brides exchanged bridal robes for travelling dresses, and the wedding party left for Kingston and other places. The gifts to both brides and grooms were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which all are held. May they have a long, happy and prosperous life, is the wish of a host of friends.

KING ALFONSO'S PLANS.

He Will Not Visit Rome in 1911.

Rome, Nov. 21.—There is absolutely no foundation for the wide-spread report that the king of Spain intends to visit King Victor Emanuel in Rome in 1911. The pope has received formal assurances from all Catholic sovereigns that the case of the Prince of Monaco, who visited King Victor Emmanuel last year, will remain an isolated one. The relations of Spain and the vatican have greatly improved since November 4th, when the Spanish senate passed the bill forbidding the establishment of new religious associations in Spain. The condition will enable negotiations with the holy see to be resumed.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup will Surprise You
Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply at Small Cost.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly and will usually cure the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes sixteen ounces—a family supply. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis, and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guiaicol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.
