THE SPORT REVIEW

SUNDAY SCHOOL, BASEBALL GAMES TO STAND.

Motion Before Executive to Throw Them All Out Was Beaten—Live Coals Defeated Printers by Nine to One.

A meeting of the executive of the Sunday school A.A.A. was held last evening. A motion was put to throw out the games which had been played up-to-date on account of the fact that some men had played on different teams without their certificates being properly signed before they played. This motion was defeated. It was shown that some of the rules were very lax. Another meeting has been called for June 21st.

"Shorty" Dick, the star batter of the Athletics, who has been away from the city for the past two weeks, and expected to be gone for the remainder of the season, has returned, and will be on the line-up of the Athletics for their game on Saturday with Victorias. It is understood that he has secured a position in the city which has a direct bearing on his science work at Queen's.

The Games This Evening.

Providing the weather is favorable there will be two games pulled off this afternoon and evening, one in the Mercantile series and the other in the Sunday School series. The Mercantile game will be between Locomotives and Bankers and the one in the Sunday school series is between Cooke's and Queen street. Both games should be very interesting to the numerous spectators who follow the two leagues.

VARIOUS MARRIAGES.

The June Season is Replete With Weddings.

In the twilight, on Wednesday evening, a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Thomas Sherwood, Latimer; when his charming daughter, Miss Libbie, became the wife of Joseph G. Prickett. In the drawing-room, under a canopy of cedar and wild flowers, the bridal party stood while the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. MacTavish of this city. W. G. Stainton, Deseronto, supported the groom while a like office was performed for the bride by her younger sister, Miss Bella Sherwood. The wedding march was played by Miss Wolfe, and the bride's little niece, Miss Edith Acheson, Elgin, very gracefully played the part of flower girl. After a sumptuous repast had been partaken of, toasts to the bride and groom were duly honored. The young couple took the midnight train for Toronto. Mr. Prickett was for some years a resident of Kingston, but he is now one of the prosperous young men of the Porcupine district. After a short honeymoon he and his young bride will take up residence there.

Married at Brockville.

Tuesday evening, at George Street Methodist church parsonage, Brockville, Rev. Thomas Brown united in marriage John L. McNiven, Kingston, and Miss Margaret Johnston, who had arrived during the afternoon, completing a voyage from the old country, where she had met Mr. McNiven. Later the couple proceeded to Kingston, where they will take up residence.

Hamilton, both of Emporium, Pennsylvania. The ceremony was performed by the doctor's brother-in-law, Rev. H. H. Allen, of Ottawa.

Bass Season Opens.

The season for bass fishing opens on Friday, June 16th. Many people have been under the impression that the season opened to-day but such is not the case, however, and should they be found fishing for these specimen of the finny tribe the inspector would not hesitate to have the guilty ones haled before a magistrate of the peace.

He was a member of the Boy Scouts of St. George's cathedral. His funeral on Friday afternoon will be conducted by Canon Starr. Besides his parents he leaves a sister, Addie, five years of age.
