CANDIDATES ADDRESS

THE COUNTY COUNCIL FOR SCHOOL INSPECTORSHIP.

Gananoque Deputation, Headed by W. B. Carroll, K.C., Asked the Council for Tuition Fees for Frontenac Pupils.

At the county council's session on Wednesday afternoon, the applicants for the public school inspectorship of South Frontenac were given a hearing, and three of the four addressed the warden and the councillors. Two of the applicants are sons of Frontenac, namely, S. A. Truscott, principal of the Iroquois high school, who is a nephew of ex-Councillor Charles Truscott, and F. E. J. Corkill, principal of Mount Forest high school. Both are Queen's university graduates. Mr. Corkill was a schoolmate of Dr. Edward Ryan, of Kingston, and Dr. Freeman, of Inverary, at the old Wilmur school. Dr. Henry is a native of Napanee, and a graduate of Toronto university. He was formerly principal of Sydenham high school. All paid tribute to the worth of Dr. Spankie in presenting their qualifications for the inspectorship.

A deputation from the Gananoque Board of Education, consisting of W. B. Carroll, K.C., W. J. Gibson and Principal R. G. Graham, waited upon the council and asked for payment of $300 dues for the attendance of Frontenac county pupils at the Gananoque high school during the past few years. They admitted that legally, the county could not be held liable, as notice, according to statute had not been served upon the Frontenac council with reference to this school accepting outside pupils, but they thought that morally the county was liable, and that its council would admit the justice of the claim. One-fifth of the pupils attending the Gananoque high school are from Frontenac, most of these being Pittsburgh township boys and girls. The warden promised that full consideration would be given the matter.

To allow the committees to go into session, the council adjourned until 9.30 a.m. Thursday.

Friday morning was occupied chiefly with committee meetings. When the council met, Smith Elliott, of the Sydenham high school board, addressed it, and asked that its members pay a visit to the school, before it adjourned, the new wing which was nearing completion and would cost $2,000 above the contract figure.

Councillor Grimshaw thought it strange that the county had to keep up a high school, and that county pupils would go to Gananoque and become a burden upon Frontenac.

At two o'clock Thursday afternoon, deputations from charitable institutions were heard regarding grants.

CONVICT AT PORTSMOUTH

Took Part in Dramatic Feature in Toronto Murder Case.

Frank Smith, now serving five years in the penitentiary, for house-breaking, took part in a dramatic feature—the Rosenthal murder trial at Toronto, on Wednesday afternoon.

Aubrey A. Bond, counsel for the defence, asked that Smith be heard. Crown Prosecutor Meredith refused to call Smith and Sir William Mulock, hearing the case, agreed with Mr. Bond, that he should not be heard. His story was to the effect that on the day before the murder he was in Toronto and while on the streets overheard two men talking about the murder. Evidence provided the court showed that while Smith was peculiar, he was sane.

No Sales of Cheese.

According to arrangement last week there was no meeting of the Frontenac cheese board Thursday afternoon. It was decided best not to hold a meeting as there was very few cheese to board. A meeting will be held on Thursday next and it is expected that this will be the final meeting of the year.
