NAPANEE'S MUSICAL CLUB.

Entertained the Kingston Ladies' Musical Club Saturday.

A number of the talented members of the Napanee Ladies' Musical Club gave a splendid recital of modern compositions in Convocation Hall, Queen's University, on Saturday afternoon. The programme substituted that of the fourth regular meeting of the Kingston club.

The numbers were well received. Piano solos were played by Miss Luella Hall, and songs sung by Mrs. Franklyn Vanluven and Miss Pearl Nesbitt. Mrs. A. Leslie Howard contributed the recitative and aria, "In Absence and the Return," by W. D. Armstrong. Mrs. Cameron Wilson played on the violin some of Edward German's works. Mrs. Vanluven, Mrs. Howard and Miss Jean Light sang in trio, with Miss Hall as accompanist.

Following the recital the visiting ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. James Massie, Earl street, and left for Napanee in the evening.

DEPLORES THE WORLDLINESS.

Of This Age—Sermon by the Rev. Dr. Ryckman.

Rev. Dr. E. B. Ryckman made some very pointed remarks from the pulpit of Sydenham street Methodist church on Sunday evening, when he based a discourse of the worldliness of the age on the scriptural text: "And be not conformed to this world." He agreed with the definition, "Human society organized apart from God," as the best for wicked society, and in the realms of human affairs, business, politics, etc., he spoke to an attentive congregation, guarding them against the influence of worldliness.

Referring to business he set forth some lines which a Christian man cannot follow, for one may retain his business reputation but not be a Christian. There are many strokes of business, said the doctor, which cannot stand the test of the sermon on the mount or the golden rule. He, in this connection, made reference to the liquor business and land peculation.

"Worldliness," he declared, "is breaking down the family altar," and he took occasion so criticize the theatre, and the violation of the Sabbath by excursions, the operation of railways and steamboats, and so on. The theatre he stamped as one of the most deplorable hindrences of the Christian church. One man had said to him that the reformation of it would be a great benefit. But Dr. Ryckman went the whole distance and said to abolish it, for a reformed theatre would not pay.
