Fire Insurance

Now that the fall season is once again with us, necessitating the starting of stoves and furnaces, the danger from fire risk consequently increases, so that it is essential that all property should be adequately covered.

If in need of any additional insurance or contemplating a change, I would appreciate the opportunity of figuring on your requirements. I represent several strong tariff and non-tariff companies.

JAILER'S DREAM FOILS PRISONER'S ESCAPE

Awakens to Find Them Sawing the Bars—The Offenders Were Soon Caught.

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 13.—Dreaming he heard rats gnawing, jailer Harvey Snooks awoke in the jail last night and discovered John H. Wingert, indicted for murdering John Middleknuff, attempting to break jail by sawing bars with a knife converted into a file. One bar had already been sawed nearly in two and a few minutes later six prisoners, including Claude McCusker, indicted for murdering Jefferson Roman, near Hancock, would have battered down a window, leaped into the jail yard and escaped.

McCusker told Sheriff King that Wingert had threatened him if he revealed the jail-breaking plot.

Another War Song.

A gentleman recently returned from England brought back with him the following tongue-twisting war song:—

"Sister Susie sews soft shirts for soldiers,
Such skill for sewing shirts our shy young sister shows.
Some soldiers send epistles, say they'd rather sleep on thistles,
Than the saucy short shirts for soldiers Sister Susie sews."
