KEEP ENEMY IN DARK

DETAILS OF DEFENCE MEASURES NOT TO BE AVAILABLE.

Fine And Imprisonment—Precautionary Measures Are Provided For Guarding Harbors.

Ottawa, Dec. 22.—Regulations for the prevention of espionage in Canada have been passed by order-in-council. The publication of information as to the movements of troops or ships is forbidden, and also information with regard to defence measures of a kind to be useful to the enemy. No person is allowed to make sketches or photographs of defended harbors, to interfere with telegraphic or telephone transmission of information, to give intoxicating liquor to a soldier with a view to eliciting information from him for the enemy, or if a sentry, to seduce him from his post, to be in possession of explosives in the vicinity of any railway, dock or harbor, or to spread reports likely to create disaffection or alarm among his majesty's forces or the civilian population.

Regulations are made for the extinguishing of lights near defended harbors, and for inhabitants to remain indoors within certain periods to be fixed by some competent military or naval authority. The forger of any pass or other document will be prosecuted. A maximum fine of $5,000 or five years' imprisonment, or both, are provided.

CANADIANS IN HONORS LIST

Forecasts Recognition For Two Canadians at New Year.

London, Dec. 22—The London correspondent of the Manchester dispatch says Canada's co-operation with the mother country in the present troubles will receive acknowledgment in two announcements in the New Year honors list published by the Colonial office.

One of these distinctions is for services rendered this side, and the other will recognize work done in Canada.

Pudding For Every Fighter.

London, Dec. 22—Every man in British uniform on land or at sea will have plum pudding for his Christmas dinner. The Christmas Pudding Fund has raised a sum amounting to over $40,000, and has provided over half a million puddings. These have been despatched to the fleet in the North Sea and elsewhere, to such distant points as Gibraltar, Malta, and Cyprus, and also to the battle line.

Even the interned men in Holland who escaped annihilation by the Germans following the attack on Antwerp only by crossing the border of a neutral country, will have their pudding on Christmas Day.

Eugene Zimmerman Dead.

Cincinnati, Dec. 22—Eugene Zimmerman, father-in-law of the Duke of Manchester, dropped dead at his club.

SESSION IN PARIS.

Of Parliament Expected To Last Only Three Days.

Paris, Dec. 22—The session of parliament which will be opened on Tuesday is expected to last three days. The government's declaration will probably be read at the close of the session Thursday. Both the chamber and the senate will open with funeral orations by their presiding officers for members who died during the recess. Fourteen deputies have died, three having been killed at the front. Ten senators have died, including M. Raymond, the aviator, who died fighting for his country.

The deputies who have been mobilized have received an intimation that they should appear in civilian dress. Some of the deputies have expressed a wish to remain at the front, where in their opinion there is more important work to be done.

Sixty bills will be introduced on Tuesday. They may be divided into two categories. The first includes a vote of six months' provisional credit, a bill modifying the naturalization the suspension of senatorial elections, laws and allowing the government to withdraw naturalizations granted to anybody who retained his original nationality, or is judged unworthy of holding French nationality.

The second category includes bills necessary to ratify ministerial decrees issued during the parliamentary recess. These will not be voted at the present session, but it is necessary that parliamentary approbation be asked for within a certain time. No discussion on any of the bills is anticipated, and all the votes are expected to be unanimous, as they were on August 4th, at the outbreak of the war.

It has been rumored that the necessary number of deputies which under the constitution is only 30, intend to make a demand that the chamber meet in secret session to allow the government to prevent confidential explanations of certain questions. Such a right has never been exercised during the forty years existence of the constitution. It is not likely that the demand will be granted now if it is made.

Perhaps the easy boss may be able to get better returns from his workmen by being easy.

Indiscreetness can be rightfully called one of the greatest of trouble and misery makers.

GERMANY IN DIRE STRAIGHTS

Experts Seek Substitutes For Petroleum and Benzine.

Copenhagen, Dec. 22—A message from Berlin states that in all German laboratories, experts are working day and night to discover whether it is possible to produce substitutes for petroleum and benzine, and a chemical for tanning leather. The fact that wool is also at a premium, has caused a new organization to come to life. School boys all over Germany call at private houses to collect old clothes, socks, underwear and boots, in fact, everything which if it cannot be repaired, can be sent to a mill to be remanufactured. Fire brigades have instructions to assist the boys as carriers, and forward the goods collected to army depots. Copper, as is well known, is also scarce, and another organization, therefore, collects copper kettles, pots, etc., which are sent to the melting pot for making ammunition.

The self-sacrifice of the Germans is beyond description; indeed, a want has only to be known and the whole country unites to supply it. When houses in Antwerp and Lodz have all been emptied, their contents are constantly dispatched to army headquarters for further distribution.

Between man and man, it is admitted that the shortage of material resources must sooner or later cause a breakdown which will have a vital effect upon the coming strife, but the hope is entertained that the army will break through somewhere, and that "the German providence" will lead the soldiers into a country flowing with milk and honey.

NEW VESSELS FOR C. P. R.

Company Has Purchased Five New Ships Now on Stocks.

London, Dec. 22—The Daily Telegraph's Belfast correspondent states that the Canadian Pacific Railway has purchased five new vessels on the stocks in Irish and Scotch shipyards, to replace wastages caused by the war.

Three of the vessels are being constructed in Belfast, and two on the Clyde. The transaction is said to involve considerably over one and half million sterling.

POLISH LEGION ORGANIZED

Four Thousand Poles Enrolled Under Own Flag.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Dec. 22—By authority of Grand Duke Nicholas, a Polish Legion has been organized. The Russian army contains many Polish volunteers, but the legion will be the first Polish contingent flying a distinctive flag to be accepted. Four thousand Poles are now enrolled in the Legion, and will be ready to go to the front in six weeks.

Hon. Martin Burrill Convalescent.

Ottawa, Dec. 22—Hon. Martin Burrill, minister of agriculture, has sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to take a trip to the south for a few weeks' rest, which he has done on the advice of his physician. It is understood that he has gone to Virginia.
