Theatrical

"Fair and Warmer."

The atmosphere at the Grand Theatre the first of the week was, in the words of the weather man, slightly dull and cloudy without the popular "Rex Stock Company," but the prospects for the end of the week are "Fair and Warmer." I believe this Avery Hopwood farce is to be the attraction for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. It should make a record hit, because the fun is fast and furious, the cast is very well suited to that variety of show, and Mr. Snelgrove and Miss Vaughn do some of their very best work in the piece. Bedroom farce may mean anything, but handled skilfully by the "Rex" Company, the refinement that is always evident in Mr. and Mrs. Snelgrove's work, removing any trace of crudeness, there is no reason why patrons of the Grand should not fill the theatre. We all know Rex and his charming wife now. They feel at home with us, so what more nantural than to see them playing around on the stage in chummy, intimate fashion doing and saying things at which we shall laugh happily and spontaneously? For those who may not care to laugh audibly (should there be any such) there will be much worth seeing. There is special scenery, attractive interior settings, and I'll say pretty Miss Vaughn in negligee will be—well—we'll be there, so no more for the present.—Advt.

Charley's Aunt Laughing Hit.

The elaborate revival of the most charming of comedies, "Charley's Aunt," for a coast to coast tour of the larger cities, brought up a discussion recently in the Lambs' Club of New York, as to the reasons for its great popularity, for the play has shown a verility that promises to equal "Rip Van Winkle," "The Old Homestead," and "The Music Master." It was finally agreed that it was due to its capacity to please more different kinds of people than any other play, combined with the advertising that it received from the book, which in English-speaking countries was the best seller for from three to five years, and is still offered in every shop that sells books regardless of how small the stock may be

As a play its rich and continuous humor please the men who wish to go to the theatre for a hearty laugh, the thoughtful mothers find the problem which "Charley's Aunt" (from Brazil) had to face a most appealing study; the young man and his girl and the young husband and his wife find in the heart interest which surrounds Donna Mucia a sweet romance. A large company of character players carefully selected for their parts constitute one of the best comedy organizations on the road to-day.

"Charley's Aunt," will be presented at the Grand Opera House on Monday, October 3rd, one night only.—Advt.

At The Strand.

"The Fatal Hour," eagerly expected and widely discussed, is shown at the Strand to-day for the first time. A play to set the heart beating and the blood tingling is this rapid-fire melodrama by Cecil Raleigh, presented by Metro on a magnificent scale with an all-star cast of Broadway players. Motivated by that most dangerous of all human weapons—a woman's hate—it recounts a stirring story. Against a brilliant background of English high social life is unfolded the tale of Lieutenant Nigel Villiers, heir to the title and estate of the Marquis of Deerminster, who, because of a snub to an actress of the music halls, is made the victim of a startling conspiracy to defraud him of his inheritance. Its swiftly moving episodes heap sensation upon sensation. Beginning with a keenly contested boat race on the Thames between rival collegiate eights, it travels into the heart of London's fashionable fast set, with glimpses behind the scenes and a revelation of brazen intrigues. Comes the daring attempt to steal the famous Crown Jewels from the Tower of London; the escape and pursuit of the thief, and then, with kaleidoscopic speed, a sudden transition to the snow covered fastnesses of the Swiss Alps, where the drama reaches its breathless climax in a desperate hand-to-hand conflict at the edge of a yawning abyss.—Advt.

Sky Pilot at Allen.

Probably because of the fact that he thoroughly knows the subject whereof he writes Ralph Connor's story, "The Sky Pilot," which King Vidor has directed as a motion picture, is one of the real gems among current motion picture releases. Ralph Connor, whose real name is Rev. Charles W. Gordon, and whose steady occupation is not writing books at all, but preaching the gospel in his little Canadian church, is to be congratulated upon the sincere manner in which the Cathrine Curtis Productions have translated his story to the screen. Few authors can claim as interesting a film version of their work as can the Rev. Gordon. The story deals with a young minister who is sent into the Canadian ranch belt to spread the gospel among the cowboys. His trials and tribulations, his fights, his faith, his hope are masterfully interpreted by King Vidor through John Bowers, who plays the title role. How the pilot, unpopular at first, wins a place for himself in the hearts of the cowboys, who surprise him on Christmas morning by leading him blind-folded down a snow-covered trail to show him the little frame church they have built without his knowledge, forms the human note of the story which is featured by several smashing dramatic scenes. "The Sky Pilot" will begin a three-day engagement at the Allen Theatre to-day.—Advt.

RUGBY MATCH PRICES FOR NEW STADIUM ANNOUNCED

Season Tickets Available With Exceptional Privileges—Good Accommodation.

On Thursday the Queen's Athletic Board of Control gave out some information about seats and prices at the games at the new stadium this fall. The most important feature is the new season ticket proposition.

The price of a season ticket is five dollars. This entitles the holder to a reserved seat at four senior games, Varsity at Queen's, Parkdale at Queen's, McGill at Queen's, and the other probably Ottawa or St. Brigid's at Queen's, and at two intermediate games between R. M. C. and Queen's. These larger games will probably include games in the junior series which will be started early in the afternoon with Queen's, R. M. C., and K. C. I. competing.

The plan for the season ticket is this: For each ticket bought, the purchaser receives a little pad of vouchers. By taking this to Uglow's or the athletic board rooms at Queen's, he may pick out his seat where he wants it and secure seats adjoining. These seats the ticket holder may have all through the year, merely by notifying either of the above-mentioned places twenty-four hours before each game and mentioning the number of his voucher. Those first purchasing season tickets, have, of course, the choice of seats, all in the large new grandstand.

The general admission to games will be 50c, with 35c to junior contests, both of these exclusive of war-tax. A special price of 10c has been set for children, so that the youngsters will not have to "go broke" to see their favorite rugby heroes in action.

These prices in general are very reasonable. When one considers the accommodation, the new stadium and the calibre of the games, they appear even more so. Some of the best rugby in Canada is played in the intercollegiate series, and the O. R. F. U. teams will also be seen here. The season ticket proposition is also a good one.

INSURANCE VICTORS.

Defeated Retailers by 12 to 4 Wednesday Evening.

In the preliminary finals for group honors in the Mercantile Baseball League last night, Insurance met and decisively defeated their old rivals, the Retailers, by a score of 12 to 4. Both teams had good strong aggregations on the field and were confident of victory, but the Insurance men had the big edge and proved their right to the higher position.

Queen's Line Better.

Wednesday afternoon's practice on the lower campus showed Queen's rugby squad to have made great advances in the past few days. With the opening of college, a few Willards and Dempseys have returned to fill up the line and it now looks like a champion collection of heavyweights.

"Bill" Muirhead is back in the fray, husky as ever, as also is Burns. "Eddie" Ryan has again made his appearance in the backfield. There certainly is no lack of good material and every day brings forth favorable developments.

Bowling Games.

Queen's bowling club will wind up the season this week. The green will be closed for playing on Saturday, and then the fall work of getting the green ready for next season will commence. The Scotch doubles for the Price cup has yet to be decided by the committee. The first group was won by C. C. Hodgins and J. H. Hoppes some weeks ago, and since then they have waited for the games of the second group to be played to decide against whom they would be matched. This series was decided Tuesday evening with A. E. Treadgold and W. Brownlee winners. The matter is to come before the committee to decide when the final game will be played off. Some of the players in the finals have left the city and it may be that new players will have to be appointed or that the cup be awarded to one of the teams in the finals. It is likely that a meeting of the club will be held in November to present the prizes and trophies won by the players this year.

An adjourned case, in which a lad was charged with assault, came before Magistrate Farrell in juvenile court on Thursday morning and was dismissed.

A special meeting of the city council has been called for Monday evening.

When a Wise Shipper Charters a Ship, He Looks Up Lloyd's Register

He wants to know more than actual tonnage. The condition of the ship, her record, the reputation of her owner and skipper are all factors in his choice of a carrier.

His mental attitude is the same as that of the Scientific Space Selector who wants to know more about publications than a mere statement of "Net Paid Circulation."

The wise Space-Buyer keeps his copy of "Scientific Space Selection" handy and digs deep into the facts set forth in A.B.C. reports so that he can obtain authentic data on where the publication goes, and to whom it goes.

He also wants to know about the influence, stability and character of the publication in which he is going to buy white space.

All these facts can be obtained from A.B.C. reports. You'll find a carefully audited statement about circulation on the first page and, if you read pages two, three and four, you'll be able to visualize the character of the publication and to answer the question, "Will this medium help to sell my goods?"

The capacity for taking infinite pains becomes, every year, more applicable to Space Buying. Exaggerated claims, misleading figures, general statements are looked upon with critical eyes. Deductive reasoning dominates space selection, as it does every other business proposition.

That is why A. B. C. reports represent the back bone of space buying. They are correct, informative, and clearly set forth

—but to reap the full benefit of A.B.C. reports they must be studied for more than the mere statement of "Net Paid Circulation."

Be sure to get your copy of "Scientific Space Selection," the new A. B. C. book. A guide to every advertiser, space-buyer and publisher who is interested in the sale or purchase of white space. Price, two dollars and a half.

A HARTINGTON FARMER HELD UP BY THREE MEN

And Robbed of $27—He Was Forced Out of His Rig.

Bert Charlton, a farmer living near Hartington, was held up on Saturday night by three armed men on the Wolf swamp road when on his way home. He was ordered out of his vehicle and robbed of $27, besides other things in his possession. Then he was told to get back in his rig and proceed on his way, which he did. Mr. Charlton served overseas in the first division. It is thought by Hartington residents that the bandits are the same men who shot Constable Cotter.

CHEESE DROPS AGAIN.

Sold on Frontenac Board Thursday At 15 5-8 Cents.

Cheese sold on the Frontenac cheese board at 15 5-8 cents. It was expected that there would be a further decline owing to the slump in prices last week, but some of the factories are holding on to their output with the expectation of a rise

There were 309 boxes boarded, and the bids started at 14 cents. At 15 5-8 cents L. W. Murphy secured the offerings of Arigan, Gilt Edge and Ontario, 143 boxes. R. Hamilton, at the same bid, failed to secure his selections, the price being refused.

Will Represent Japan.

Tokio, Sept. 29.—The Japanese delegates to the Washington conference on limitation of armaments will be Prince Iyesato Tokugawa, president of the House of Peers; Vice-Admiral Tomosaburo Kato, minister of the navy, and Baron Kijuro Shidehara, ambassador to the United States, it is officially announced.

Large Registration at Queen's.

Registration was continued at Queen's Thursday and a large number of students enrolled. The students came in so fast on Wednesday that although the staff worked until late in the evening after the office had been closed to the students, it was found impossible to get time to record the numbers entering. The classes in first year arts are of large size. First year science also has a larger registration than was at first anticipated.

Steamer Besmer Aground.

Word was received in the city at noon on Thursday, that the steamer Besmer was aground near Farran's Point. The Donnelly Wrecking Company sent aid to the vessel.

A few baskets of plums for Friday at Carnovsky's.

Mulloy May be Candidate.

Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards is to speak at the Dundas county Liberal-Conservative convention to be held at Chesterville next Monday afternoon. It is reported that the name of Lieut.-Col. L. W. Mulloy will be placed in nomination in order to get the strongest available candidate in support of the Meighen government. Owing to the way the present U. F. O. member snowed under the Conservative in the last provincial election in Dundas, the leaders of the party feel that a man of the standing of Col. Mulloy's needed to make a winning fight. Dundas is no longer controlled by the Tories as it was when Sir James Whitney and Andrew Broder were elected by sweeping majorities.

Case Settled.

The case of Blackmore vs. Maxwell was dismissed in the supreme court on Wednesday upon the parties reaching a settlement, the basis of which was the payment by Blackmore of $100 for the county claims and the costs.

R. M. C. STAFF STRENGTHENED.

By the Addition of Teachers to the Civil Staff.

Four new appointments to the civil staff of the Royal Military College are announced. L. A. Browne, formerly of Toronto, has been appointed associate professor of mathematics and will assist Lieut.-Col. H. J. Dawson in this branch. Dr. J. L. McKee, formerly assistant professor of chemistry at Queen's University, will be instructor in chemistry under Prof. F. H. Day. To the science department also comes Mr. Lewis, who for some years has been with the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. He will be instructor in physics. Percy Lowe, M.A., who graduated from the University of Toronto, Trinity College, in 1920, will assume the position of instructor in mathematics.

These appointments will allow the R. M. C. staff to carry out the new system of studies and instruction in force at the college, under which the cadets are kept in small classes of about twelve each, thus giving more individual instruction and supervision by the instructors. This plan has long been advocated by Prof. I. E. Martin, now director of studies at the college, and has been in operation at the United States academy at West Point for years.

Humane Society Meeting.

It is the wish of the Kingston humane society to have Lord Byng present the Royal Humane society medal to "Jack" Gilbert, of Ottawa, and Mrs. John Gilbert, Ottawa, upon the occasion of their visit to Kingston in November to the city's memorial hall. Mr. Gilbert displayed great bravery last winter when he rescued a girl named Irene Beck, who was on a piece of floating ice near the Prof. street breakwater. He threw thin ice to her aid, and then swam to safety to escape himself.

City Assessor's Report.

The annual report of the city assessor will be made public at the beginning of next week. It is understood that the assessment has been materially increased and that the population is about 134 less than was recorded last year. This is considered remarkable in view of the city expansion and the clouds of depression and the clouds of motive works. Had the census of 1921 taken place, Kingston's population would have been materially increased.

Do you know what constitutes a strong constitution?

To have sound, healthy nerves, completely under control, digestive organs that are capable of absorbing a hearty meal, means you have a strong constitution! Your general attitude is one of optimism and energy.

But an irritable disposition, frequent attacks of indigestion, languid depression, indicate your system is not in correct working order.

Probably you are not eating the proper food. Probably the nutritious elements are not being supplied to your system in the proper form.

Grape-Nuts is the wholesome, delicious cereal that promotes digestion, absorption and elimination, whereby nourishment is accomplished without auto-intoxication. A mixture of energy-giving phosphates and malted barley comprise the chief elements of Grape-Nuts. A dish at breakfast or lunch is an excellent, wholesome rule to follow.

You can order Grape-Nuts at any and every hotel, restaurant, lunch room; on dining cars, on lake boats and steamers; in every grocery, large and small, in every city, town or village in Canada.
