THE CHAUTAUQUA EVENTS

Programme Presents Varied Attractions of a High-Class Nature.

Chautauqua is coming to Kingston for the first time this year, the date fixed being July 1st to 7th, inclusive.

The entertainment programme, which provides varied attractions of a high-class nature at a price within the reach of all, under the season ticket arrangement, for a number of years has been given the heartiest endorsation in Canada and the United States, but last summer was its first appearance in Ottawa. This year, the dates are June 24th to 30th, on Cartier Square. As formerly, there will be eleven double events, covering the afternoons and evenings of th six days, when the great comedy success, "Her Own Money," will be presented by the old favorites, the Percival Vivian Broadway Players, and no program will be offered in the afternoon.

As heretofore, the lecture features are of special interest. Hon. Philip Whitwell Wilson, former member of the British parliament and now New York correspondent to the London Daily News, is announced for an address on conditions throughout the Empire.

John Duxbury, said to be England's greatest reciter, will present a miscellaneous programme of readings; Dr. George W. Kerby, born in Ontario and now president of Mount Royal College, Calgary, will visit his home province and speak on "The Tasks of a Nation." Mr. Tom Skeyhill, the Australian soldier-poet, orator, author, and world-traveller, returns to Ontario with a new lecture dealing with conditions in Europe, with special reference to Russia, from which country he but recently returned.

The Ferguson Operatic Quintet will present the most interesting scenes from several comic operas like "The Mikado" and "Princess Pat." Mr. Herbert McFarren, the London pianist, brings his instrumental quartet in two high-class concert programmes, in the evening supporting the well-known New York opera and concert singer, Miss Hazel Huntingdon, who starred last season in the William Wade Hinshaw production of the English version of Mozart's opera comique, "The Impresario." Mr. Gabriel Hines, composer-pianist, lectures on music and illustrates his points with selections at the piano—an unusual and very attractive feature. From Sunny California comes its best known singing male quartet—the Embers Male Quartet, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Spencer Rand, pianist.

Junior Chautauqua will be held every morning at nine o'clock and on the afternoon of the last day, the Juniors will present a pageant specially written for Chautauqua called "The Conquests of Peace."

The programme is fully up to the standard of former summers and in some respects surpasses all former Chautauqua programmes in Ontario. It comes to Kingston under the auspices of the Rotary Club and the Daughters of the Empire.

Heard W. A. Report.

St. Luke's branch of the W. A. met in the church hall on Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance, for the purpose of hearing the report of the W. A. annual held at Napanee last week. Mrs. S. Green, the delegate, gave a very comprehensive and interesting report, which showed that the Women's Auxiliary is in a prosperous condition. Great interest was taken in the paper by the members present. At the close of the meeting, ice cream and cake were served, and the members had a very social half hour together.

Of course it must be hard to get along without eyes, or ears, or hands or feet, but what surprises us the most is how well some people can get along without any brains.

We worry over a lot of things that we would worry a lot more over if we thought for a second there was in a million of they're happening.
