George Rattary will build a new and up-to-date cheese factory upon the site where the factory was burned the past summer.

RESERVES JUDGMENT

In An Appeal Against A Police Court Decision.

There were thirty-five cases on the docket of the Division court which was held before Judge Madden on Tuesday morning at the court house. Twenty-one cases were over accounts and fourteen judgment summonses.

The case of a Montreal citizen, who was charged with selling rain coats at the Kingston Industrial exhibition without first having a transient traders' license and in which Police Magistrate Farrell imposed a fine of $20 and costs, was again heard. The decision of the police magistrate was appealed, and Judge Madden after hearing considerable evidence, reserved his decision.

Gave An Address.

At a meeting of the Young People's League of Queen street Methodist church, on Monday evening, a most inspiring address was delivered by the president of the devotional committee on "A Habit Worth Having." During the evening, Mrs. Crawford rendered a solo very sweetly, "Take Time to Be Holy," which was very much appreciated.

At Pentecostal Church.

At the Pentecostal church on Sunday last, most enthusiastic services were held. Evangelist James Lebrocq and his workers have interesting messages and are certainly worth hearing. Six musicians were present and provided a fine programme of music.

Former Montreal "Cop" Tells the Commissioner He Got $50 Back.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—How he paid one hundred dollars to get a job on the police force, was given $50 of it back by the chief out of consideration for his mother-in-law and how he later quit his police job because his wife's mother called him the Prince of Wales and other satirically complimentary names on account of his nice soft job, was all told to Justice Coderre in his capacity of commissioner inquiring into the administration of police in Montreal, by Henri Giroux an ex-Constable of the police force.
