Napanee, July 11—The first game between Brockville and Napanee in the second half of the schedule of the St. Lawrence League was played here yesterday afternoon before a large crowd of enthusiasts who were rather disappointed by faulty play by both teams.

In the following three innings the visiting team scored 14 more. The total at the end of the seventh innings was Brockville 21, Napanee 14. The last two innings could not be played owing to lack of light.

Score by innings:

BARTLEY MADDEN WILL MEET JACK DEMPSEY

It Is Announced That Madden Has Already Signed Articles.

New York, July 11.—Floyd Fitzsimmons, Michigan City promoter, announced that Bartley Madden, of New York, had signed articles to meet Jack Dempsey in a ten-round no-decision fight for the world's heavyweight championship on Labor Day. Fitzsimmons said he would be unable to complete negotiations with Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, until the champion and his bride return from Europe on July 14th. He declared he had received a cablegram from Dempsey, however, stating that the latter would accept the match if he could get into condition on such short notice. Fitzsimmons proposes to stage the bout in his own arena at Michigan City.

NO STEPPING UP TO BE HIT IN GAMES NOW

By AL DEMAREE

"The type of batter who strode up to the plate in a close game, with the fixed intention of getting to first base by crowding the plate and getting hit by a fast ball is as extinct as the dodo," said Manager John McGraw, as we were talking, the other day, about the New York Giants of a decade ago.

"Hitters like Art Fletcher and Charlie Herzog were willing to take a crack in the back any time, to get on base and start a rally in a tight game. Those birds would do anything to get on base, regardless of consequences.

"I remember one year on the old Baltimore club, Hughey Jennings was hit 49 times, and I was hit 27 times by pitched balls. You never see any hitters pulling that stuff any more."

Speaking of lost arts, you never see a hitter nowadays reverse his bat and use the handle when laying down a bunt. It used to be quite a common stunt, but as I remember, "Gavvy" Cravath of the Phillies was the last hitter to use it.

New York, July 11.—Mickey Walker, of Elizabeth, N.J., world's welterweight champion, will meet Dave Shade, of California, his most persistent challenger, in a fifteen-round decision match in New York State, if a reliable promoter can be obtained to stage the match, the State Athletic Commission announced, following a conference with the two principals.

Vancouver, July 11.—Cyril Coaffee, one of the best sprinters Canada has produced, is said to have equalled the Canadian grass track record for 100 yards here Wednesday, covering the distance, it is claimed, in 9 4-5 seconds in an exhibition run. Coaffee also did a 220 yard dash in 22 seconds, it is said. Coaffee is now running under the colors of the Illinois Athletic Club.

PUZZLE PLAYS.

The Play.

There are runners on first and third and the signal is given for the double steal. The catcher is starting his throw to second is interfered slightly by the umpire who is working too close to the backstop.

The slight contact with the umpire causes the catcher to make a very poor throw to second. It so happens the ball hits the field umpire who has positioned himself for a play a that base. The ball was deflected into right field.

The right fielder recovered the ball and threw to third base in an effort to head off the runner originally on first. The throw was wild and that runner scored.

Are the two runs that crossed the plate legal?

The Answer.

The runs do not score. The baserunners should be sent back to their original bases, first and third.

This is one situation where interference on the part of the umpire suspends play. The rule that the baserunner or runners shall return to their bases without liability to be out if the umpire interferes with the catcher in an attempt to throw.

That was he condition here. The umpire working too close to the catcher, interfered with his throw to second and the ball went wide of its mark as a result.

No consideration can be given any action that took place after the interference on the part of the umpire, even though the team in the field did make a play on the runner.

The ball immediately became dead, no bases could be possibly be run. Baserunners should be sent back to their original bases and action started anew.

INSIDE GOLF

By Chester Horton

Maker of 51 Golf Champions. "Golf's most successful teacher," says "Chick" Evans.

In practice swings with a golf club you are never conscious of body action at all. That is the way the real swing should be made. One of the most difficult lessons in all golf to learn is that those seemingly simple practice swings you make, without conscious effort, are exactly the swings that would drive the ball far and straight if you would only put them on the ball. Reverse yourself for experiment purposes—when you swing in practice, swing with all the force and might you can command. Then, when you swing at the ball, swing easily, as if you didnt mean it at all. This will probably give you the surprise of your life, and will open before you the true path to ease and rhythm in golf.

Away From Heated Cities

Ontario's Highways are a Welcoming Challenge to you somewhere a vagrant breeze rustles through orchards and grain fields—somewhere nestling lakes are rippling in laughter—somewhere there is happy health and freedom—and you can find them all in a motor trip in Ontario.

There is a good road to follow. You don't need to stay on the provincial highways. The county roads in most parts of the Province are in fine condition and lead to beauty spots you do not know.

Take a few days off in your car. Take the family with you. In every direction you will see wonderful scenery—rivers and lakes—hills and valleys—beautiful farms and beautiful towns.

Ontario's highways are a welcoming challenge to you and other motorists. Use them, but use them sanely.

See the country as you go. Drive moderately. You cannot make any speed records, although you may break speed limits. Your fast driving tears up the road surface which you and other users of the roads must replace. There is no magic about road repair work. It costs hundreds of thousands of dollars a year, and the money comes out of your pocket and those of your neighbours. In your own interest you should be careful about needlessly doing damage.

The Government is certain of the co-operation of most users of the roads by driving at moderate speeds as provided by the law. Those who omit to comply with the law and this request, should understand that the enforcement of the law will not be relaxed in any respect.

An advertisement issued by the Ontario Department of Highways to secure the co-operation of motorists and truck drivers, Automobile Clubs, Good Roads Associations and all other public spirited bodies, in abating the abuse of the roads of the Province.
