The Montreal Herald says:—We mentioned in our last issue, that from private advices from Upper Canada, we learned that the supporters of the present government were attempting to make political capital for themselves, by agitating the removal of the Seat of Government from Montreal to Toronto; and that they were using this, as an argument against Mr. Baldwin, in the Fourth Riding of York. We hear that this fact is not only denied, but that our authority for stating it, is also called in question. We are not at liberty to mention the names of the writers, but we pledge ourselves for the authenticity of the following extracts, from letters received in town within the last few days. Should doubts still exist in the minds of any of our readers, if they will favor us with a call at this office, we think we can fully satisfy them.

The first in order and date, is from a supporter of the Ex-Ministry, the second, from a member of the Conservative party.

"Toronto, 3rd Dec., 1847.

"There appears now to be no doubt of the dissolution of Parliament being near, and, in anticipation thereof, discussions upon an approaching election are becoming the all-absorbing topic. I have heard that the Ministry hint a change of the seat of Government from Montreal to Upper Canada—a hint no doubt calculated to strengthen their position with their own, and to have considerable effect upon the Radical party."

* * * * * * *

"Toronto, 6th Dec., 1847.

"The dissolution of Parliament is now settled as a matter of certainty, and political parties are on the alert for an election. We are sanguine of a large accession to our present majority, and of course a corresponding diminution of the Radical party."

"I have been informed that a change of the present Seat of Government, will, in all probability, be mooted in the next Parliament, if the present administration continue in office—a measure which, of itself, ought to entitle them to our support."

From the Montreal Correspondence of the Coburg Star.

Sir,—When, in advance of all your contemporaries, you received from me the information relative to the intended dissolution of Parliament, you did not attach to it the degree of credit, which subsequent events prove that you might with safety have done. I have now another piece of news to communicate which, as it involves what you would be inclined to think an impossibility, will meet with but little respect at your hands. It is this: The University Bill will not pass in its present form. The new arrangement is as follows. The Divinity Chair is to be abolished and the University to remain as it stands, with an addition, however, of a Moral Philosophy Chair. And the Crown Lands are to be appropriated to endow Victoria, Regiopolis, and Queen's Colleges. This is astounding, but, nevertheless, true.

If Messrs. Robinson & Cayley have not stuck in the mud in Upper Canada, you will see them in Coburg about Monday or Tuesday. They leave in high spirits; indeed they are sure of a large increase to their forces by the next meeting of the House, which will take place in February.

I see that the Conservative papers of Canada West are without exception prophesying an increased majority, "after their kind."—In this section the Ministry expect to gain 2 votes.

You must not imagine from the quietude of our political horizon, that we take no interest in the coming struggle. The L. P. S. have, I am told, been organized to protect the Conservative votes in the city and Terrebone. A few broken heads are, of course, anticipated.

It is more than probable that you will see Mr. Gowan's name in the next Gazette. Not, however, as a bankrupt, but as a Superintendent of the Banks of the Canal. It will not have the effect of locking up his tongue. He is now fairly embarked on the "tide of fortune," which, however, like a canal tide, is apt to

——— "Ebb from us,
And leave us at even on the bleak shore alone!"

☞ A ridiculous rumor has been for some time circulating to the effect that the Hon P. McGill meant to resign his seat in the Legislative Council, and offer himself for the representation of Montreal. There is not a shadow of truth in it.—Quebec Mercury.

DIED.

At Pittsburgh, on the 17th inst., in the 42nd year of his age, George Strachan, Esq. The deceased was cut off in the flower of his manhood by Typhus Fever, after an illness of three days. As a practical farmer, he had no superior in the Township, where he had lived from youth upwards; and as a man of business, his loss in Kingston, where he was the head of the Kingston Foundry, will long be deeply regretted. Very few deaths during this lamentable year, have occasioned the sensation which the present does.

TO THE FREE AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF NORTHUMBERLAND.

A DISSOLUTION of Parliament having rendered it necessary that you should exercise anew your Elective Franchise, I beg again to offer myself a Candidate for the honor of representing you in the Legislature.

My political opinions are as they have ever been. I am warmly attached to the connexion of this province with the Mother Country; and, while ready to give my support to the enactment of such measures of amendment as the altered state of the Province demands, I am decidedly opposed to any rash innovation or republican inroad upon the Constitution under which we have the happiness to live, and under which I was born.

I have, while honoured by being your representative in Parliament, given my best attention to your various local interests, irrespective of sectional feelings. This course I shall continue to pursue, and with the prospect of a more settled state of affairs, trust that my power of serving your interests will be increased.

The Question of the King's College endowment I hope to soon see settled by the appropriation of a portion of its funds to the support of other Colleges where the higher branches of learning shall be taught: and that the cause of education may be further advanced by the establishment in each District of an additional number of Grammar Schools, maintained from the proceeds of Public Lands.

To public improvement and the support of private enterprize I have ever been friendly, and when founded on proper basis my exertions shall be always given on their behalf.

Before the day of Election I hope to have an opportunity of calling on many of you—until which time,

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your obliged and faithful servant,
ADAM H. MEYERS.
