The Daily News.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 14.

Correspondence.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Sir,—Is it true that a member of the police force is employed every three months to go amongst the cabmen of the city and pay them (the cabmen) for claims arising for civic duties performed by them (the city cabmen)? If this be true, the police force is miscemployed. People who pay their taxes suppose that the money they pay, or contribute, to the sustenance or morality of the city is employed in such a manner as was intended. But when I know, as I do know from actual observation, that a policeman is sent every three months amongst the cabmen to do that which is the duty of the Chief of Police, of the City Clerk, or whomsoever you please, I cannot help thinking there is a wrong somewhere, which should be altered at the earliest moment. What is the use of cheques (or checks) to guard against any mistakes that may possibly arise? Is it to be supposed for one moment that an unauthorized policeman, from whom no remedy in the form of redress can be expected, or asked, should be allowed to assume the expenditure of money on his own authority, because the expenditure of money by an unauthorized officer is equivalent to the same thing. I again say that such a thing is most anomalous, and should be immediately stopped. Have we officers of the city to whom we pay salaries to perform certain duties? If we have not, the sooner a change be made the better. I believe the City Clerk and the City Chamberlain are empowered to do certain things, amongst which are signing warrants on one side by one officer, and the payments of the same by another. These officers should be responsible, and I dare say that neither will refuse the responsibility. But do not, for the sake of allowing the chance of a departure from that one law of rectitude, let it be misunderstood that that refuge from the true path shall be violated. Open one gate, and you will have to shut many before we return to the right, the straightforward course of doing things as they should be done. I may possibly return to this point again if a remedy be not applied.

OSSIAN.

Nov. 13, 1873.

[We do not exactly see anything improper in the matter pointed out by our correspondent, as if a policeman pays or receives city monies, he is, no doubt, acting under the instructions of others who are responsible.]

County Council.

Thursday afternoon.

The Warden took the chair at 2:30 o'clock.

The clerk read the reply prepared to be sent to the Dominion Government which was approved of.

Several accounts were read and referred to the committee.

Mr Joyner introduced a by-law to appoint John D. Ham, Esq. arbitrator between the county and city, which was read a first time.

Mr Calvin introduced a by-law fixing the gaoler's salary which was also read a first time.

A petition from James Miller respecting taxes on certain lads in Kennebeck.

Mr Genge introduced a by-law to confirm by-law 75, of the township of Hinchinbrooke, to open a road in the township which was also read a first time.

The Council went in committee of the whole on the by-laws—Mr J. R. Dawson in the chair.

The committee resumed and on motion of Mr Joyner, seconded by Mr Craig, the rules were suspended and the by-laws read a third time and signed by the Warden.

A communication from John Cobb, asking for compensation for clearing snow from the Kingston and Napance road. Referred.

Mr Mills announced that the committee of the City Council wished to meet the committee of the County Council to try to make some arrangement for abolishing the tolls.

Mr Calvin brought up the fact that in signing the debentures for the K. and P. R. R., the Warden had to sign his name 41 times on each debenture. As he signed 82 debentures, he had to will his name 3,362 times, and he thought something ought to be allowed him for the time occupied in so doing. He moved, seconded by Mr Donaldson, "That the sum of 20 cents be paid to the Warden for each copy signed by him." This was withdrawn.

Moved in amendment by Mr J. R. Dawson, seconded by Mr McNeil, That the sum of $50 be awarded to the Warden for extra services during the year. Carried.

A report of the County Engineer on the Kingston and Napanee Road was read, stating that the road was in good condition, with the exception of a part near Cataraqui. The road has cost about $980.

Moved by Mr Playfair, seconded by Mr J. R. Dawson, That the Finance Committee, on adjournment, proceed to the Treasurer's office and destroy the condemned debentures and report to the Council to-morrow morning the number so destroyed.

The County Solicitor was instructed to defend a suit raised against the County by Crooks, Kingsmill and Cattanach, of Toronto, which was alleged to be paid.

Moved by Mr Shibley, seconded by Mr Flynn, That the Warden, Messrs. Calvin, Donaldson, Graham, the mover and County Solicitor, be a committee to look after the interests of the County in the matter of arbitration between the city and county, and also in the matter of the Registry Office, with power to act. Carried.

The Council then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

METHODIST UNION.—There seems to be every prospect of the Union Scheme between the Wesleyans and New Connexion Methodists being carried by the Quarterly Boards of the different Circuits—a majority in each body having already voted in its favor. The union of the Canada and Eastern British American (Wesleyan) Conferences is sure at any rate. We wish the movement every success.

LIBEL SUIT.—A curious libel suit has just been concluded at Montreal. It was brought by the Rev. J. D. Borthwick, a clergyman of the Church of England, and Rector of St. Mary's Church, Hochelaga, against Josias Bryant and others, members of his congregation, who had published a pamphlet containing reflections upon him. Mr Justice Johnson, before whom the case was tried, charged strongly in favour of the defendants, and the verdict was given in their favour.

THE NEW LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

The ceremony of formally installing Mr John Crawford into the office of Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Ontario, took place at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at the Governor's official residence. Among those who witnessed the ceremony were the Hon. Messrs. Mowat, McKellar, Crooks, and Pardee, members of the Local Administration; the Hon. Chief Justice Draper, the Hon. Mr Justice Galt, and Mr Justice Duggan, Hon Senators McMaster, Macpherson, Aikens, Hawthorne, Montgomery, and Smith; Messrs R. Wilkes, M.P., Angus Morrison, M.P., Hon. Stephen Richards, M.P.P., J. Metcalfe, M.P., M. C. Cameron, M.P.P., James Beaty, M.P., Hon. J. B. Robinson, M.P., D. Blain, M.P., and A. Lauder, M.P.P.; Rev. Alex. Topp, D.D., Rev. Principal Caven, Knox College, Rev. Father Laurent, Rev. Father Vincent, Superior of St. Vincent's College; Very Rev. Vicar-General Jamet, Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, and Rev. Dr. Green; Hon John Morrich, Mr C. S. Gzowski, Sheriff Jarvis, Mayor Manning, Alderman Thompson, Mr J. G. Worts, Sr., and Mr J. G. Worts, Jr., Principal Cockburn, Upper Canada College, and Mr Cawthra; Mr B. Homer Dixon, Consul-General for Netherlands; Mr J. A. Simmers, Consul for the Germanic Empire; and Col. Shaw, U. S. Consul; Col. Gilmor, Col. G. T. Denison, Major R. L. Denison, Major Goodwin, and Capt. Prince, &c., &c.

At about two o'clock Mr Crawford was introduced, and, having taken up his position in front of the desk, the gentlemen present formed in order around the room, the consuls of foreign nations and military officers present making a semi-circular line immediately in the rear. His Lordship the Chief Justice stood at Mr Crawford's left, and the Hon. Mr Mowat at his right. Captain Curtis read the patent of His Excellency the Governor-General constituting the appointment, and Mr Crawford made the usual declaration of fealty to the Crown of Great Britain, and to the person of Her Majesty and her successors. The Chief Justice then administered the oaths of office, to which His Honour duly subscribed, and the short but impressive ceremony was thus completed. Chief Justice Draper and the Hon. Mr Mowat then offered their congratulations to the newly-appointed Governor, the whole company following suit. After the installation, His Honour entertained the party to luncheon, when a pleasant hour was spent.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

The Halifax Reporter does not appear impressed with the ability of the members of the new Government. It says it cannot praise Mr Mackenzie's move in the appointment of Cabinet Ministers to Nova Scotia. Messrs Coffin and Ross—two men who have been willing to take office in or under the Government of Sir John A.—one of whom left the ranks of Sir John's party, because when Sir John tried to get him placed in the Government, the whole party were opposed to the move as one calculated to lower the party in the eyes of the people of Nova Scotia. The Reporter opposed Captain Coffin's entrance into the Cabinet with its usual vigour, and the Opposition journals had not one word to say in his favour. They condemned him as utterly unfit for the position. The Government yielded to the pressure, and Captain Coffin was not forced upon the Province of Nova Scotia as one of its representative men in the late Cabinet. It is a great fall for the Province to be unable to secure better representatives than that of two ignorant, uneducated men who will have to cope with such keen French blades as Dorion and the other Frenchmen, who will, by their superior education, obtain a preponderating influence in the Cabinet.

This move of Mr Mackenzie we must therefore condemn as an insult to the Province, as calculated to make us the tools of the French Rouge party, and as depriving us of that influence, which, in the Cabinet, can only be exerted by our ablest and best educated men.

INDUCTION OF A MINISTER.

The ceremony of inducting the Rev. Mr McLean, of Port Hope, to the pastorate of St. Andrew's Church, Belleville, took place on Wednesday evening in that church. The Rev. Dr. Snodgrass, Principal of Queen's College, Kingston, conducted the services, and at the opening preached an earnest, practical, and eloquent sermon. The usual questions were then propounded to the minister who stood in front of the congregation, and made suitable responses, Principal Snodgrass closing this part of the ceremony by extending the right hand of fellowship on the part of the Kingston Presbytery to the new minister, and welcoming him as Pastor of St. Andrew's Church.

Rev. Prof. Mowat then ascended the pulpit, and addressed a short discourse to the new Pastor on his duties and responsibilities, which was to the point, and abounded with sound, sensible and practical observations on the nature and character of the duties of a Christian Minister and his relationship to the people. He was followed by the Rev. Mr Livingston, who addressed the congregation on its duties and obligations to the new Pastor, and gave the people some sensible counsel and advice. The closing exercises were then performed by the Rev. Dr. Snograss, and the new pastor was formally inducted and received the congratulations of the people present.

The rev. gentleman, we understand, has been very successful in his ministrations at the charges he has occupied. He is said to be a clever speaker, and an earnest worker, and from the reports we have seen of his successes in other fields, we have no doubt he will worthily and honourably fill the position to which he has been called.—Belleville Intelligencer.

The St. John (N.B.) Tribune says:—"It is not thought here that Mr Burpee will remain Minister of Customs, or that he will really enter on the duties of the office, as it is incompatible with his position as an importer. The prestige of the position will aid in securing his return, and then he will exchange it for the Presidency of the Council or some less important position."

SHEEP.—Several large droves of sheep have passed through Perth this fall, but the largest one yet went through on Saturday. It contained no less than a thousand sheep, which are being taken by Mr James Donald, of Dalhousie, for sale in the Boston market.—Perth Expositor.

A TALL TURNIP.—Mr S. E. Huntington says he can beat the 17 lb. turnip that we boasted of lately, and has left a 22 lb. one at the Copelam House as a sample of what can be grown at Westmeath. If any one can beat that he will look out for a larger one.—Pembroke Standard.

COULDN'T HIT HIM.—About half-a-dozen Nimrods went out shooting about eight miles from the city—at least, there was one Miles anyway. They prowled about all day, and the dickins a sign of a head of game did they see—bar one. A fine buck came out of a bush about 120 yards from two of the sportsmen, who fired seven shots at the animal, but did not hit him. They said their 100 yards' sights were up, and thus fired too low. There was another reason: one had the buck fever, and the other couldn't hit the side of a house at twenty paces. The very dogs were disgusted at such bad shooting, and considerately chased the deer into a hiding place where there was but little danger of being made a target of.—Ottawa Free Press.
